Thought, Existence and Reality as Viewed by F.H. Bradley and Bernard Bosanquet Walter Sylvester Gamertsfelder, 1920
Revival: Thought and Reality - Hegelianism and Advaita (1937) Poolla Tirupati Raju, 2018-07-27 This work is a contribution to certain aspects of idealistic philosophy It is a comparative study yet it is not a comparison for the sake of comparison This book examines the supra rational Absolutism of the West developed under the Hegelian influence and in the light of the criticisms shows the peculiar character of the Advaita Vedanta of Sankara It is therefore not a mere exposition but a criticism and construction The discussions are not cosmological but epistemological and metaphysical approached from the side of logic The work may also be viewed as a reorientation of Sankara's system It places Sankara's philosophy in line with the idealistic philosophies of the West so that we can understand the peculiarities of the former in terms of the latter It thus discovers or brings into clearer light the guiding principle of Sankara's thought It brings out the full significance of the principles of non contradiction applied by Sankara as a test of truth and reality and shows its difference from the same principle as understood by Hegel and the Hegelians The aim of this work is to attempt at laying the metaphysical foundation of the logic of supra rational Absolutism the interpretation of Advaita is based mostly on polemical works Film, Philosophy, and Reality Nathan Andersen, 2018-12-21 Film Philosophy and Reality Ancient Greece to Godard is an original contribution to film philosophy that shows how thinking about movies can lead us into a richer appreciation and understanding of both reality and the nature of human experience Focused on the question of the relationship between how things seem to us and how they really are it is at once an introduction to philosophy through film and an introduction to film through philosophy The book is divided into three parts The first is an introduction to philosophy and film designed for the reader with little background in one or the other subject The second examines the philosophical importance of the distinction between appearance and reality and shows that reflection upon this distinction is naturally provoked by the experience of watching movies The final part takes a close and careful look at the style and techniques of Jean Luc Godard's groundbreaking film Breathless in order to illustrate how such themes can be explored cinematically The book addresses topics such as Film what it is and how to understand it The methods and concerns of philosophy The nature of cinematic appearances The history of metaphysics The relationship between cinema and life The philosophical relevance of film techniques With a glossary of key thinkers terms and concepts as well as sections on suggested films and further reading this textbook will appeal to lecturers and students in undergraduate philosophy and film courses and in courses focused on Philosophy of Film Philosophy and Film or Film Philosophy CUET-PG Philosophy Theory Book 2026 II Guide Book II
