Kilcrease, 2018-03-22 Post Enlightenment theology has frequently rejected the historic Christian doctrine of substitutionary atonement For theologians standing in the tradition of the Lutheran Confessions rejection of substitutionary atonement is particularly problematic because it endangers the unconditional nature of the justification through faith If one rejects vicarious satisfaction then the only alternative is to make redemption dependent on what sinners do for themselves In this study Jack Kilcrease argues for substitutionary atonement within the perspective of what he calls the Confessional Lutheran Paradigm The author also critiques a wide variety of modern Lutheran theologians understandings of atonement Werner Elert Gustaf Aul n Gustaf Wingren Robert Jenson Eberhard J ngel Wolfhart Pannenberg and Gerhard Forde As Kilcrease demonstrates although these authors often give many fine theological insights their distortion or misrepresentation of the doctrine of atonement carries over to a problematic understanding of law gospel and justification through faith Chris Langan's Major Papers 1989-2020 Christopher M. Langan, 2020-11-23 This book chronicles the development of the Cognitive Theoretic Model of the Universe CTMU from the first essays in the ultra high IQ

Mondal, 2014-11-12 This book explores how and in what ways the relationship between language mind and computation can be conceived of given that a number of foundational assumptions about this relationship remain unacknowledged in mainstream linguistic theory yet continue to be the basis of theoretical developments and empirical advances Ethical and Religious Thought in Analytic Philosophy of Language Quentin Smith, University Distinguished Faculty Scholar and Professor of Philosophy Quentin Smith, 1997-01-01 This is a critical history of analytic philosophy from its inception in the late 19th century to the present day The book focuses on the connections between the four leading movements in the field logical realism logical positivism ordinary language analysis and linguistic essentialism Normativity, Meaning and Philosophy: Essays on Wittgenstein Hans-Johann Glock, 2024-04-09 This is a collection of essays on Wittgenstein and Wittgensteinian themes that appeared between 1996 and 2019 It is divided into three parts with a common trajectory laid out in a substantial introduction The first part links meaning necessity and normativity It defends and modifies Wittgenstein s claim that the idea of a grammatical rule holds the key to understanding linguistic meaning and its connection to necessary truth The second part elucidates the connections between meaning concepts and thought in Wittgenstein and beyond It shows how he laid the grounds for a sound understanding of four contested issues radical interpretation concepts nonsense and animal minds The third part provides a qualified defence of Wittgenstein s controversial idea that philosophical problems are conceptual and thereby rooted in confusions concerning the meanings of and semantic relations between linguistic expressions Against irrationalist interpretations it demonstrates that Wittgenstein s method is argumentative rather than therapeutic The collection as a whole makes a powerful case for an analytic perspective on Wittgenstein The essays bring out the abiding relevance of Wittgenstein s reflections to contemporary debates on central topics such as the role of normativity the foundations of linguistic meaning the nature of concepts the possibility of animal thought and the proper methods of philosophy
