Rebecca Belmore The Named And The Unnamed:

Rebecca Belmore Rebecca Belmore, Charlotte Townsend-Gault, James Luna, Scott Watson, Morris and Helen Belkin Art Gallery, 2003 Belmore has always been clear that she is not a traditionalist She was raised rather as a small town Indian in Sioux Lookout which is in the Anishinabe Territory of Northern Ontario Page 12 Native or Aboriginal peoples Creative Presence Emily Merson, 2020-09-11 Historically artwork has played a powerful role in shaping settler colonial subjectivity and the political imagination of Westphalian sovereignty through the canonization of particular visual artworks aesthetic theories and art institutions methods of display Creative Presence contributes a transnational feminist intersectional analysis of visual and performance artwork by Indigenous contemporary artists who directly engage with colonialism and decolonization This book makes the case that decolonial aesthetics is a form of labour and knowledge production that calls attention to the foundational violence of settler colonialism in the formation of the world order of sovereign states Creative Presence analyzes how artists purposeful selection of materials media forms and place making in the exhibitions and performances of their work reveals the limits of conventional International Relations theories methods and debates on sovereignty and participates in Indigenous reclamations of lands and waterways in world politics Brian Jungen s sculpture series Prototypes for New Understanding and Rebecca Belmore s filmed performances Vigil and Fountain exhibit how colonial power has been imagined visualized and institutionalized historically and in contemporary settler visual culture These contemporary visual and performance artworks by Indigenous artists that name the political violence of settler colonial claims to exclusive territorial sovereignty introduce possibilities for decolonizing audiences sensibilities and political imagination of lands and waterways Skin Crafts Julia Skelly, 2022-02-10 Skin Crafts discusses multiple artists from global contexts who employ craft materials in works that address historical and contemporary violence These artists are deliberately embracing the fragility of textiles and ceramics to evoke the vulnerability of human skin and in so doing are demanding visceral responses from viewers Drawing on a range of theories including affect theory material feminism skin studies phenomenology and global art history the book illuminates the various ways in which artists are harnessing the affective power of craft materials to address and cope with violence Artists from Mexico Africa China the Netherlands and Indigenous artists based in the unceded territory known as Canada are examined in relation to one another to illuminate the connections and differences across their bodies of work Skin Crafts interrogates ongoing material violence towards women and marginalized others and demonstrates the power of contemporary art to force viewers and scholars into facing their ethical responsibilities as human beings Photography and Resistance Claire Raymond, 2022-05-26 This book argues that photography with its inherent connection to the embodied material world and its ease of transmissibility operates as an implicitly political medium It makes the case that the right to see is fundamental to the right to be Limning the paradoxical links between photography as a medium and the conditions of political social and epistemological disappearance the book interprets works by African American Indigenous American Latinx and Asian American photographers as acts of political activism in the contemporary idiom Placing photographic praxis at the crux of 21st century crises of political equity and sociality the book uncovers the discursive visual movements through which photography enacts reappearances bringing to visibility erased and elided histories in the Americas Artists discussed in depth include Shelley Niro Carrie Mae Weems Paula Luttringer LaToya Ruby Frazier Matika Wilbur Martine Gutierrez Ana Mendieta An My L and Rebecca Belmore The book makes visible the American land as a site of contestation and as yet not fully recognized battlefield

Critical Dreaming

Lilian Mengesha,2025-05-20 Critical Dreaming is an incisive study connecting feminist Indigenous performance practices across colonial borders This Is Not a Hoax Heather Jessup,2019-11-06 This Is Not a Hoax shows how the work of some contemporary artists and writers intentionally disrupts the curatorial and authorial practices of the country's most respected cultural institutions art galleries museums and book publishers This first ever study of contemporary Canadian hoaxes in visual art and literature asks why we trust authority in artistic works and how that trust is manifest This book claims that hoaxes far from being merely lies meant to deceive or wound may exert a positive influence Through their insistent disobedience they assist viewers and readers in re-examining unquestioned institutional trust habituated cultural hierarchies and the deeply inscribed racism and sexism of Canada's settler colonial history Through its attentive look at hoaxical works by Canadian artists Iris H. Ussler Brian Jungen and Rebecca Belmore photographer Jeff Wall and writers and translators David Solway and Erin Mour this book celebrates the surprising ways hoaxes call attention to human capacities for flexibility adaptation and resilience in a cultural moment when radical empathy and imagination is critically needed

Women

Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics Claire Raymond,2017-04-21 Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics makes the case for a feminist aesthetics in photography by analysing key works of twenty two women photographers including cis and trans woman photographers Claire Raymond provides close readings of key photographs spanning the history of photography from nineteenth century Europe to twenty first century Africa and Asia She offers original interpretations of well known photographers such as Diane Arbus Sally Mann and Carrie Mae Weems analysing their work in relation to gender class and race The book also pays close attention to the way in which indigenous North Americans have been represented through photography and the ways in which contemporary Native American women photographers respond to this history Developing the argument that through aesthetic force emerges the truly political the book moves beyond polarization of the aesthetic and the cultural Instead photographic works are read for their subversive political and cultural force as it emerges through the aesthetics of the image This book is ideal for students of Photography Art History Art and Visual Culture and Gender
