urban administrators urban economists politicians diplomats soldiers and staff of NGOs and international agencies The Old Bridge of Mostar and Increasing Respect for Cultural Property in Armed Conflict Jadranka Petrovic, 2012-11-08 Although it is precious to all humanity including future generations cultural property is targeted wilfully during armed conflict In the litany of other war crimes the wilful destruction of cultural property is pushed from centre stage The deliberate destruction of the Old Bridge of Mostar is emblematic of tragedies wrought on priceless cultural objects internationally Drawing on the relevant rules of international humanitarian law and the jurisprudence of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia this book analyses the normative implications of the deliberate targeting and destruction of the Old Bridge and also examines enforcement efforts in order to identify issues relating to international legal protection of cultural property arising from this incident Jerusalem Unbound Michael Dumper, 2014-05-27 Jerusalem's formal political borders reveal neither the dynamics of power in the city nor the underlying factors that make an agreement between Israel and the Palestinians so difficult The lines delineating Israeli authority are frequently different from those delineating segregated housing or areas of uneven service provision or parallel national electoral districts of competing educational jurisdictions In particular the city's large number of holy sites and restricted religious compounds create enclaves that continually threaten to undermine the Israeli state's authority and control over the city This lack of congruity between political control and the actual spatial organization and everyday use of the city leaves many areas of occupied East Jerusalem in a kind of twilight zone where citizenship property rights and the enforcement of the rule of law are ambiguously applied Michael Dumper plots a history of Jerusalem that examines this intersecting and multileveled matrix and in so doing is able to portray the constraints on Israeli control over the city and the resilience of Palestinian enclaves after forty five years of Israeli occupation Adding to this complex mix is the role of numerous external influences religious political financial and cultural so that the city is also a crucible for broader contestation While the Palestinians may not return to their previous preeminence in the city neither will Israel be able to assert a total and irreversible dominance His conclusion is that the city will not only have to be shared but that the sharing will be based upon these many borders and the interplay between history geography and religion Ideology, Political Transitions and the City Aleksandra Djurasovic, 2016-06-10 Recent history has seen Bosnian and Herzegovinian BiH cities undergoing several transitions Their cities have developed under socialism 1945-1992 have suffered through the civil war during the 1990s and during the last twenty years have been undergoing a slow and multifaceted transition to an indeterminate end point Focusing on the post socialist postwar and neoliberal transitions experienced in BiH the book shows that planning systems deviated from control oriented and top down regulation to flexible approaches for more open for informal development The book analyzes several levels of planning related processes the former Yugoslavia BiH the city of Mostar and three urban zones the Industrial Zone Bi e Polje the City Zone Rondo and the Historic District and the Old Town Zone in order to offer insights into the new planning systems in the late phase of post socialist transition Of

Bridges Thomas Harrison, 2021-04-01 Offers a philosophical history of bridges both literal bridges and their symbolic counterparts and the acts of cultural connection they embody Always wrote Philip Larkin it is by bridges that we live Bridges represent our aspirations to connect to soar across divides And it is the unfinished business of these aspirations that makes bridges such stirring sights especially when they are marvels of ingenuity A rich compendium of myths superstitions and literary and ideological figurations Of Bridges organizes a poetic and philosophical history of bridges into nine thematic clusters Leaping in lucid prose between distant times and places Thomas Harrison questions why bridges are built and where they lead He probes links forged by religion between life's transience and eternity as well as the consolidating ties of music illustrated by the case of the blues He investigates bridges in poetry as flash points in war and the megabridges of our globalized world He illuminates real and symbolic crossings facing migrants each day and the affective connections that make persons and societies cohere In readings of literature film philosophy and art Harrison engages in a profound reflection on how bridges form and transform cultural communities Of Bridges is a mesmerizing vertiginous tale of bridges both visible and invisible both lived and imagined

Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Giulia Carabelli, Aleksandra Djurasovic, Renata Summa, 2021-05-24 The book Challenging the Representation of Ethnically Divided Cities Perspectives from Mostar questions the existing overrepresentation of Mostar as an ethnically divided city While acknowledging the existence of internal borders the chapters in this book assert that they are not solid nor fixed and by exploring how they become material or immaterial the book offers a deeper understanding of the city's complex dynamics Accordingly the chapters in this book are attentive to how ethnic divides materialise or lose importance because of socio political contingencies Events groups and spaces that promote reconciliation from the bottom up are examined not necessarily to assess their success and failures but rather to look at how they create networks gain trust and form platforms that generate novel understandings of ethnic loyalties and party memberships Further and drawing both on the empirical data and theoretical reflections this volume contributes to broader debates about divided cities by suggesting the need to engage with these cities in their complexities rather than reducing them to their ethno national divisions The book engages with socio political and economic complexities in order to shed light on how ethnic conflicts and resulting spatial partitioning are often just the surface of much more complex dynamics that are far less easy to disentangle and represent The chapters in this book were originally published in Space and Polity

Europeanisation and Memory Politics in the Western Balkans Ana Milošević, Tamara Trošt, 2020-10-15 This volume explores how the process of European integration has influenced collective memory in the countries of the Western Balkans In the region there is still no shared understanding of the causes and consequences of the Yugoslav wars The conflicts of the 1990s but also of WWII and its aftermath have created ethnically confined memory cultures As such divergent interpretations of history continue to trigger confrontations between neighboring countries and hinder the creation of a joint EU perspective In this volume the authors examine how these memory wars impact the European dimension by becoming a tool to either support or oppose Europeanisation The contributors focus on how and why memory is renegotiated exhibited adjusted or ignored in the Europeanisation process
