Recapturing Anthropology Working In The Present:

Recapturing Anthropology Richard Gabriel Fox, 1991-01-01 The ten papers in this volume offer different versions of how and where anthropologists might work usefully in today's world converging on the issue of how anthropology can best recapture the progressive character its basic concepts such as culture once had Together the authors demonstrate that a reinvigorated anthropology must recognize how the profession labors under an existing intellectual discipline with its own political and economic history on a global shop floor RECAPTURING ANTHROPOLOGY., 2003 Reclaiming a Scientific Anthropology Lawrence A. Kuznar, 2008-09-11 This second edition of Reclaiming a Scientific Anthropology arrives at just the right time as new advances in science increasingly affect anthropologists of all stripes Lawrence Kuznar begins by reviewing the basic issues of scientific epistemology in anthropology as they have taken shape over the life of the discipline He then describes postmodern and other critiques of both science and scientific anthropology and he concludes with stringent analyses of these debates This new edition brings this important text firmly into the 21st century it not only updates the scholarly debates but it describes new research techniques such as computer modeling systems that could not have been imagined just a decade ago In a field that has become increasingly divided over basic methods of research and interpretation Kuznar makes a powerful argument that anthropology should return to its roots in empirical science

Black, Jewish, and Interracial Katya Gibel Azoulay, 1997-10-13 A study on being Black and Jewish in the United States Author discusses bi racialism and how and why African Americans of Jewish descent identify themselves with other groups who have had a history of legal political and racial discrimination such as Colonial Inscriptions Carolyn Martin Shaw, 1995 The Anthropological Turn in Literary Studies Jürgen Schläeger, 1996 Childhood and Migration Jacqueline Knörr, 2015-09-15 This volume puts an emphasis on the question how children themselves experience and manage migration and by means of which they construct an identity for themselves which takes into account their experiences from both their places of origin and their host societies What role does the cultural background of the society of origin on the one hand and the strategies of integration found in the host society on the other play in the creation of identity and of a concept of home origin and belonging How do children express processes of cultural orientation and integration music media fashion style and what role do peer groups and social milieus play in this regard How do migrant children experience xenophobia and a lack of acceptance on the side of the host society and how do they counter balance such experiences The approach taken is both comparative and interdisciplinary the contributors having different theoretical and methodological backgrounds the contributions dealing with different social and cultural settings both with regard to place of origin and host society

Critical Essays Emmanuel Nelson, 2013-09-13 This pioneering work is the first book to systematically explore the literature of gay and lesbian writers of color in the United States Critical Essays challenges the marginalization and tokenization of gay men and lesbians of color in the dominant academic discourses by focusing exclusively on the imaginative work of representative Native American Asian American Latino a and African American gay and lesbian writers As the first book offering a scholarly assessment of ethnic gay and lesbian writing in the U S Critical Essays simultaneously defies ethnic and mainstream homophobia as well as straight and gay lesbian racism This deliberate counter to the dominant white discourse of gay and lesbian literature offers a lively contribution to the debate on the intersections of race ethnicity gender sexuality and class in American literature A wide range of critical approaches including historical readings cultural analysis and deconstructive criticism is employed to the works of such major literary figures as Audre Lorde James Baldwin John Rechy Paula Gunn Allen and Gloria Anzald a These thought provoking chapters disrupt the complacent notion of a unified gay lesbian community by questioning the presumed similarities of persons who share sexual identity Some of the specific topics explored in Critical Essays include post coloniality and gay lesbian identities emerging Asian American gay and lesbian writers redefining the Harlem Renaissance from gay perspectives contemporary African American gay male performance art relocating the gay Filipino This groundbreaking volume will be of immense interest to undergraduate graduate and advanced scholars in Gay and Lesbian studies Women s studies African American studies Asian American studies Latino a studies and Native American studies It will also serve students and scholars as a valuable introduction to the diversity of authors that comprise twentieth century American literature

Marking Evil Amos Goldberg, Haim Hazan, 2015-05-01 Talking about the Holocaust has provided an international language for ethics victimization political claims and constructions of collective identity As part of a worldwide vocabulary that language helps set the tenor of the era of globalization This volume addresses manifestations of Holocaust engendered global discourse by critically examining their function and inherent dilemmas and the ways in which Holocaust related matters still instigate public debate and academic deliberation It contends that the contradiction between the totalizing logic of globalization and the assumed uniqueness of the Holocaust generates continued intellectual and practical discontent

Counterworks Richard Fardon, 2003-12-16 Globalization is often described as the spread of western culture to other parts of the world How accurate is the depiction of cultural flow In Counterworks ten anthropologists examine the ways in which global processes have affected particular localities where they have carried out research They challenge the validity of anthropological concepts of culture in the light of the pervasive connections which exist between local and global factors everywhere Rather than assuming that the world is culturally diverse this book proposes that culture is itself a representation of the similarities and difference recognized between forms of social life The authors address issues of globalization in terms of diverse histories and traditions of knowledge which may include the construction of difference as cultural In its attention to specific local situations such as Bali Cuba Bolivia Greece Kenya and the Maoris in New Zealand Counterworks argues that the apparent oppositoin between strong westernizing global forces and weak concept of culture which supposes cultures to be integrated and possessed of essential properties needs rethinking in a contemporary world where a marked sense of culture has become a wide spread property of people s social knowledge The book will have wide appeal to anthropologists to students of comparative studies in history religion and language and to anyone interested in the phenomenon of postmodernism
