Recent Danish Research in Classical Archaeology Tobias Fischer-Hansen, 1991 This volume celebrates the centenary of Classical Archaeology as a University discipline in Denmark by presenting nineteen articles on classical archaeological research within Greek Etruscan and Roman archaeology ranging from fieldwork and research projects to the publication of material in Danish collections Proceedings of the Danish Institute at Athens Rune Frederiksen, Søren Handberg, Kristina Winther Jacobsen, 2017-05-04 Danish Contributions to Classical Scholarship, 1971-1991 Flemming Gorm Andersen, 2004 For generations the Royal Library in Denmark has contributed to or published bibliographies within the field of humanities and social sciences This bibliography of Classical studies is a continuation of P A Hansen's Bibliography of Danish Contributions to Classical Scholarship from the Sixteenth Century to 1970 Copenhagen 1977 continuing up to 1991 It restricts itself to Classical Antiquity from which follows the exclusion of Theology comprising works by or on Christian writers in antiquity as well as the Scriptures Middle Latin Byzantine Greek scholia on classical writers excepted the Classical tradition and the ancient cultures outside the classical world The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses J. A. Baird, 2014-08-28 Dura Europos on the Syrian Euphrates is one of the best preserved and most extensively excavated sites of the Roman world A Hellenistic foundation later held by the Parthians and then the Romans Dura had a Roman military garrison installed within its city walls before it was taken by the Sasanians in the mid third century The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses is the first study to consider the houses of the site as a whole The houses were excavated by a team from Yale and the French Academy of Inscriptions and Letters in the 1920s and 30s and though a wealth of archaeological and textual material was recovered most of that relating to housing was never published Through a combination of archival information held at the Yale University Art Gallery and new fieldwork with the Mission Franco Syrienne d'Europos Dura this study re-evaluates the houses of the site integrating architecture artefacts and textual evidence and examining ancient daily life and cultural interaction as well as considering houses which were modified for use by the Roman military Greek Sculpture and the Problem of Description A. A. Donohue, 2005-06-08 This book examines how interpretation and examination of Greek sculpture are intertwined In Search of the Dioskouroi. Image, Myth and Cult Sarah V. Graham, 2024-11-21 This book re-examines the Greek Dioskouroi Kastor and Polydeukes exploring their roles in image myth and cult Case studies focus on their homelands in myth Sparta Messene and Argos and areas where Greek mariners sought their protection Findings suggest that for the Greeks the term Dioskouroi may have held a specific votive meaning Etruscan Art in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Richard Daniel De Puma, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2013 Acta Hyperborea, 1991 Athens, Etruria, and the Many Lives of Greek Figured Pottery Sheramy D. Bundrick, 2019-02-26 A lucrative trade in Athenian pottery flourished from the early sixth until the late fifth century B C E finding an eager market in Etruria Most studies of these painted vases focus on the artistry and worldview of the Greeks who made them but Sheramy D Bundrick shifts attention to their Etruscan customers ancient trade networks and archaeological contexts Thousands of Greek painted vases have emerged from excavations of tombs sanctuaries and settlements throughout Etruria from southern coastal centers to northern communities in the Po Valley Using documented archaeological assemblages especially from tombs in southern Etruria Bundrick challenges the widely held assumption that Etruscans were hellenized through Greek imports She marshals evidence to show that Etruscan consumers purposefully selected figured pottery that harmonized with their own local needs and customs so much so that the vases are better described as etruscanized Athenian ceramic workers she contends learned from traders which shapes and imagery sold best to the Etruscans and employed a variety of strategies to maximize artistry output and profit

Chalkis Aitolias II Sanne Houby-Nielsen, 2020-07-24 Homeric Chalkis is situated on the coast of Aetolia at the very gateway of the Gulf of Patras The foundation occurred during an important period in early Greek history when trade and movement of peoples along the Gulf intensified with a resulting strong pull to the coast Well preserved stratigraphies date the foundation to the early seventh century BC and testify to a flourishing settlement in the sixth century lasting till the early fifth century BC when the site was temporarily given up Walls and roads follow a rectilinear layout A broad spectre of pottery shapes and wares attest to innovative local and regional workshops already from the onset of the settlement Alongside the pottery tools for complex textile manufacture were found in all houses among which were many small pyramidal loom weights and spools These findings indicated a high degree of experimental weaving techniques and demonstrated how the courtyard house as a new house model was particularly well suited to accommodate this manufacture probably mantels The results therefore offer important new evidence on relations between gender behaviour and Greek houses The catalogue is richly illustrated with profile drawings plans black and white and colour photos and accompanied by discussions of the material
