Redoubt A Mononovel:

Redoubt Cecile Pineda, 2004 Told in the voice of a lone holdout standing guard on an unnamed frontier Redoubt addresses questions of conception and birth gender war and the slouch toward Apocalypse Structured like a series of jazz riffs its thematic underpinnings are drawn in part from the dictionary definitions that introduce each section back cover

Bardo99 Cecile Pineda, 2002 Joseph Viek Bardo99 s protagonist awakens to learn there has been an accident But what kind of accident The massive coronary that ends his own life or a much more dread accident the kind we associate with places like Chernobyl On his way to the disaster zone a road accident strands him in a deserted tundra Rescued by an unholy trinity of American GIs more adventures await him quarantine in a cancer ward or is it an AIDS ward a resurrection of the dead from all of post modernist catastrophes my lai babi yar kigali and no gun ri And why is it that everything he touches seems to have the uncanny misfortune of blowing up Cecile Pineda has crafted a divine comedy where the sacred keeps uneasy truce with the profane back cover Frieze Cecile Pineda, 2007 This poetic narrative discusses the creative life of a 9th century Indian stonecarver who is drafted at an early age to spend his entire life working on the thousands of statues that fill the niches of an Indonesian temple Exploring the muse artist relationship as few works of fiction have done this novel is an intensely political work a parable that pits the blind cruelty of a feudal ruler against the creative expression of a single slave The Love Queen of the Amazon Cecile Pineda, 2001 This hilarious novel is a feminist spoof on the mostly male magical realists of the Boom generation

Fishlight Cecile Pineda, 2001 Told in the voice of a five year old girl who sees more than she understands this novel chronicles her passage through sickness the separation of her parents and a maze of secret lives all with the richness of her budding imagination Face Cecile Pineda, 2003 When a Brazilian man s face is disfigured he attempts a grisly self surgery in this novel of survival Apology to a Whale Cecile Pineda, 2015-09 This book can be categorized as environmental philosophy An urgent re framing of current ecological thinking Apology To A Whale addresses what the intersection of relative linguistics and archeology reveals about the present world s power relations and the need for a new consciousness based on what the extraordinary communication of plants animals and indigenous people can teach us Devil's Tango Cecile Pineda, 2013-03-01 As much personal journal as investigative journalism this second edition traces the worsening developments at Fukushima Daiichi during the first year following the nuclear disaster Often poetic in tone and philosophic in scope this day to day reportage is peppered with the author s reflections and dramatic monologues as she investigates the public s willing blindness toward the nuclear power industry s disregard for public safety in the pursuit of profit The book offers a unique perspective and attempts to come to terms with Fukushima s catastrophic consequences on the planet Spilling the Beans in Chicanolandia Frederick Luis Aldama, 2006-04-01 Since the 1980s a prolific second wave of Chicano a writers and artists has tremendously expanded the range of genres and subject matter in Chicano a literature and art Building on the pioneering work of their predecessors whose artistic creations were often tied to political activism and the civil rights struggle today's Chicano writers and artists feel free to focus as much on the aesthetic quality of their work as on its social content. They use novels, short stories, poetry, drama, documentary films, and comic books to shape the raw materials of life into art objects that cause us to participate empathetically in an increasingly complex Chicano identity and experience. This book presents far-ranging interviews with twenty-one second-wave Chicano poets, fiction writers, dramatists, documentary filmmakers, and playwrights. Some are mainstream, widely recognized creators, while others work from the margins because of their sexual orientations or their controversial positions. Frederick Luis Aldama draws out the artists and authors on both the aesthetic and the sociopolitical concerns that animate their work. Their conversations delve into such areas as how the artists or writers' life experiences have molded their work, why they choose to work in certain genres and how they have transformed them, what it means to be Chicano in today's pluralistic society, and how Chicano identity influences and is influenced by contact with ethnic and racial identities from around the world.

Psst-- I Have Something to Tell You, Mi Amor Ana Castillo, 2005. Comprised of both a one-act and a two-act play, this powerful dramatic pairing centers on Sister Dianna Ortiz, who was kidnapped, raped, and tortured by U.S.-sponsored Guatemalan security forces in 1989.
