Reeducating Myself:

Reeducating the Educator Helen Christiansen, S. Ramadevi, 2012-02-01 Reeducating the Educator focuses on community building within teacher education programs in Canada Israel Australia and the United States Maintaining that communities have to be built and sustained the contributors discuss possible theoretical frameworks underlying community building and change and suggest that there is a need for teacher educators to go beyond localized experiences and reach out to one another in a global discussion Because of the impact of local cultures and histories key questions and issues vary from one country to another and even from one faculty to another but the resulting global conversation provides a greater understanding of the professional development of teachers and teacher educators

Fate of the Wild Bonnie B. Burgess, 2003-02-01 Given widespread concern over the worldwide loss of biodiversity and popular crusades to save endangered species and habitats why has the Endangered Species Act remained unauthorized since October 1992 In Fate of the Wild Bonnie B Burgess offers an illuminating assembly of facts about biodiversity and straightforward analysis of the legislative stalemate surrounding the Endangered Species Act Fate of the Wild surveys the history of and analyzes the conflict over the legislation itself the heated issues regarding its enforcement and the land use and habitat battles waged between conservationists environmental activists and private property proponents Burgess s meticulous and exhaustive research makes Fate of the Wild a valuable resource for professionals in conservation biology public policy environmental law and environmental organizations while the narrative clarity of the book will appeal to anyone interested in the fate of nonhuman species Burgess explains how wilderness has been consumed by concrete and asphalt the effects of toxins on plants and animals strip mine tailings oil slicks and smog She exposes as well the invisible damage that manifests itself in the subtle degradation of natural systems and in the increased incidence and number of diseases the rise in human infertility and the drastic alteration of weather patterns and landscapes Fate of the Wild presents a factual and balanced discussion of the various sides of the contemporary debate over the Endangered Species Act alongside the author s clearly stated position We are overpopulating polluting and overdeveloping our environment and as a species we have embarked on a crash course toward a sixth great extinction event on this Earth

Real Friends Talk About Race Yseult P. Mukantabana, Hannah Summerhill, 2023-04-04 Real Friends Talk About Race is an essential guide for those who want to have stronger interracial relationships whether it s with friends colleagues or loved ones Having conversations about race is uncomfortable But for progress between individuals and our communities to happen we need to be able to speak openly and honestly Podcast hosts of The Kinswomen Yseult and Hannah use their own friendship and experiences from different racial backgrounds to offer guidance on navigating these layered conversations In Real Friends Talk About Race the duo share their two perspectives on the ways in which culture history and white supremacy have prevented us from having the skills to build trust and healthy relationships across race Yseult and Hannah approach these topics with love and candor calling readers in not out to confront hard realities and their own internalized biases while also sharing prescriptive advice encouragement and a sense of community Real Friends Talk About Race is a must read for anyone looking to listen learn and feel empowered to have meaningful conversations about race How to Feel Good Naked Sheila Bridge, 2012-07-18 The concept of the ideal sexy body still dominates fashion advertising and our thinking Success status and sex appeal are all interwoven Sheila argues that this is dangerous to our well being and contrary to the central Christian idea of our acceptance in Christ She shows how we can break bad habits of body and mind make the most of our corporeal selves and enjoy being the way God made us As we learn to love our bodies we learn to love ourselves Makeovers she writes are just not enough I don t think you can just fix up the outside of a person If you don t ever take a look on the inside and unpack all the self loathing and replace it with a deep down self acceptance and a sense of being unconditionally loved then no amount of surface rearrangement will ever be enough
