Stateless Talar Chahinian, 2023-02-20 In Stateless Talar Chahinian offers a rich exploration of Western Armenian literary history in the wake of the 1915 genocide that led to the dispersion of Armenians across Europe North America the Middle East and beyond Chahinian highlights two specific time periods post WW I Paris and Post WW II Beirut to trace the ways in which literature developed in each diaspora In Paris a literary movement known as Menk addressed the horrors they experienced and focused on creating a new literary aesthetic centered on belonging while in exile In Beirut Chahinian shows how the literature was nationalized in the absence of state institutions Armenian intellectuals constructed a unified and coherent narrative of the diaspora that returned to the pre 1915 literary tradition and excluded the Menk generation Chahinian argues that the adoption of national as the literature s organizing logic ultimately limited its vitality and longevity as it ignored the diverse composition of diaspora communities

The Armenian Woman, Minoritarian Agency, and the Making of Iranian Modernity, 1860–1979 Talinn Grigor, Houri Berberian, 2025-03-04 With this book Houri Berberian and Talinn Grigor offer the first history of Armenian women in modern Iran. Foregrounding the work of Armenian women's organizations, the authors trace minoritarian politics and the shifting relationships among doubly minoritized Armenian female subjects, Iran's central nodes of power, and the Irano-Armenian patriarchal institutions of church and political parties. Engaging broader considerations around modernization, nationalism, and feminism, this book makes a conceptually rich contribution to how we think about the history of women and minoritized peoples. Berberian and Grigor read archival, textual, visual, and oral history sources together and against one another to challenge conventional notions of the archive and transform silences and absences into audible and visual presences.

Understanding minoritarian politics as formulated by women through their various forms of public and intellectual activism, this book provides a groundbreaking intervention in Iran's history of modernization, Armenian diasporic history, and Iranian and Armenian feminist historiography.

Istanbul - Kushta - Constantinople Christoph Herzog, Richard Wittmann, 2018-10-10 Istanbul Kushta Constantinople presents twelve studies that draw on contemporary life narratives that shed light on little explored aspects of nineteenth-century Ottoman Istanbul. As a broad category of personal writing that goes beyond the traditional confines of the autobiography, life narratives range from memoirs, letters, reports, travelogues, and descriptions of daily life in the city and its different neighborhoods. By focusing on individual experiences and perspectives, life narratives allow the historian to transcend rigid political narratives and to recover lost voices, especially of those underrepresented groups including women and members of non-Muslim communities. The studies of this volume focus on a variety of narratives produced by Muslim and Christian women, by non-Muslims and Muslims, as well as by natives and outsiders alike. They dispel European Orientalist stereotypes and cross class divides and ethnic identities Travel accounts of outsiders provide us with valuable observations of daily life in the city that residents often overlooked Cries and Whispers in Karamanlidika Books Evangelia Balta, Matthias Kappler, 2010 The Karamanlides are Greek Orthodox Christians originally located in Central Anatolia with Turkish as their primary language Cries and Whispers in Karamanlidika Books contains the papers presented at the First International Conference on Karamanlidika Studies Nicosia 11th 13th September 2008 Since the main problems of research in Karamanlidika are the lack of analytical studies the absence of scholarly exchange between researchers as well as the politicization and political manipulation of the subject the conference was intended to bring together specialists in the field to present papers dealing expressly with the phenomenon without political dilatation and expansion Being a first approach to the intricate subject the conference aimed to create a scientific platform for further research and cooperation between scholars Historians linguists and researchers in literature were asked to pose questions concerning the production of Karamanlidika printed works and manuscripts the reasons that determined this production its quantity and its quality as well as the subjects who produced and assimilated it Routledge Handbook on Turkish Literature Didem Havlioğlu, Zeynep Uysal, 2023-04-10 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of Turkish literature within both a local and global context Across eight thematic sections a collection of subject experts use close readings of literature materials to provide a critical survey of the main issues and topics within the literature The chapters provide analysis on a wide range of genres and text types including novels poetry religious texts and drama with works studied ranging from the fourteenth century right up to the present day Using such a historic scope allows the volume to be read across cultures and time while simultaneously contextualizing and investigating how modern Turkish literature interacts with world literature and finds its place within it Collectively the authors challenge the national literary historiography by replacing the Ottoman Turkish literature in the Anatolian civilizations with its plurality of cultures They also seek to overcome the institutional and theoretical shortcomings within current study of such works suggesting new approaches and methods for the study of Turkish literature The Routledge Handbook on Turkish Literature marks a new departure in the reading and studying of Turkish literature It will be a vital resource for those studying literature Middle East studies Turkish and Ottoman history social sciences and political science The National Revolution Marc Nichanian, 2002 The first volume consists of essays on four major twentieth century Armenian authors Yeghishe Charents Guren Mahari Zabel Esayan and Vahan Totovents The Tsar's Armenians Onur Önel, 2017-05-30 In 1903 Tsar Nicholas II issued a decree allowing the confiscation of Armenian Church property marking the low point in relations between imperial Russia and its Armenian subjects Yet just over a decade later Russian Armenians were fully supportive of the Russian war effort Drawing on previously untouched archival material and a range of secondary sources published in English French Russian and Turkish this is the first English language study of this drastic change in relations in the Caucasus Onur Onol explains how and why the shift took place by looking in detail at the imperial Russian authorities and their relationship with the three pillars of the Russian Armenian community the Armenian Church the Armenian bourgeoisie and the Armenian Revolutionary Federation Dashnaktsutiun Onol places the evolution within a context of wider political questions such as the Russian revolutionary movement Russia's nationalities question Tsarist fears of pan Islamism the path to World War I and the influence of key characters in Russian policy making from Pyotr Stolypin to Illarion Vorontsov Dashkov This book fills a conspicuous void in the extant historiography and will be of interest to scholars working on Russian Armenian and Ottoman history
