Reflections Edl Go Series:

Reflections on the Extreme Right in Western Europe, 1990-2008 Christopher Husbands, 2020-05-26 During the last three decades or so there has been a significant growth of extreme right voter support in Europe and elsewhere in the world. The chapters in this book look at an earlier period before most of this increase. Comprising eight previously published articles or book chapters and two hitherto unpublished studies, this book gives extended accounts of the major extreme right political parties or movements in a number of west European countries, looking both at their antecedents and also at their support and significance in the 1980s and early 1990s. The countries covered in detail are France, the Federal Republic of Germany, old and new regions, the Netherlands, Belgium, Switzerland, and Austria. During the last three decades, some earlier parties of the extreme right in these west European countries have disappeared into oblivion to be superseded by replacements; others have survived and flourished. Given the date when most of these chapters were written, they are now to be regarded as contributions to a modern history about the status and relevance of the respective parties or movements. The book also includes an introductory essay that discusses issues arising from the disputed labelling terminology used to describe such parties and identifies themes that feature in the more recent literature about the subsequent and current state of the extreme right in Europe. The book will be of particular interest to researchers on the contemporary politics of the extreme right in Europe as well as being a valuable resource for those teaching courses on this topic or on general political sociology.

Reflections on Indian Education Surendra Kumar Nanda, 1969 Cases on Academic Program Redesign for Greater Racial and Social Justice Cain-Sanschagrin, Ebony, Filback, Robert A., Crawford, Jenifer, 2021-11-19 Faculty and students confront persistent racial economic and social inequities in higher education locally, nationally, and globally. To counter these inequities, there has been a recent focus on universities providing an inclusive curriculum that serves the needs of students from a wide range of backgrounds. Inclusive and equitable courses and instruction are crucial in today's world as calls for racial and social justice grow particularly in higher education. Universities and instructors must take action and make changes to best serve their students. Cases on Academic Program Redesign for Greater Racial and Social Justice provides an equity-oriented practical guide for those in higher education who are engaged in the work of curricular reform or program development. It also explores practices and approaches to curriculum development that consider program quality and equitable outcomes as mutually beneficial and necessary outcomes. Covering a range of topics such as antiracism and mindful hiring, it is ideal for teachers, instructional designers, curricula developers, administrators, academics, professors, educators, researchers, those working in higher education, and students.

Ethnographic Engagements Sara Delamont, Paul Atkinson, 2021-05-25 In Ethnographic Engagements: Encounters with the Familiar and the Strange, Delamont and Atkinson, each with over 40 years of experience as ethnographers, present strategies for designing, conducting, and publishing research that contributes original insights. Ethnography is a core qualitative research method widely used across the social sciences However producing good interesting and thought provoking ethnography is never easy This book provides effective research strategies for combatting familiarity in the context of empirical fieldwork The authors rehearse ways that challenge the ethnographer to avoid taken for granted ideas and to make the familiar strange The book covers the cycle of research from research questions to publication and leaving the field and brings together the central themes of their life s work in one clearly written volume This book is aimed at researchers at postgraduate level and beyond their supervisors and principal investigators and at experienced investigators who want to improve their thinking Any ethnographer will find ideas and proposals to help them reflect self critically and creatively about their research practice Images Edith

Faith, Hope and Love Ray Gaston, 2017-09-30 Often Christian interfaith engagement has been viewed through the lense of theology of religions where the primary questions are often about the salvific destiny of people of other faiths Faith Hope and Love offers an alternative approach asking how do Christian interfaith practitioners live out their discipleship in a multi faith world And what theologically is being expressed in their activity Demonstrating a new and innovative approach to interfaith engagement this book argues for theological reflection on the multi faith reality of our society to focus on the practice of Christian interfaith engagement drawing on the methodology of practical theology to explore the impact of encounter on Christian self understanding It suggests that other faith traditions are no longer a theological problem to be solved or people to be saved but a potential means of grace in which the Christian disciple learns more about God and grows in their relationship with Christ
