Reflections On My Way Home:

Finding My Way Home Reddy Suzwe, 2010-03 I had asked the ultimate question what is Life before and so now my prayers were being answered I was about to find out for myself Never imagined this is how God was going to capture my heart but he did and so the journey begun This provided insight on how God healed my broken heart as he mended and repaired my being At first it felt like I went in for an open heart surgery and I was not on any medication so every single thing that was touched on I really felt it As painful as some of the things done to me in the past felt I came to understand that was the reason why my Lord was there so I chose to allow Him into my life for healing to begin It was in Him to give and so a new heart was provided for me to be able to live pain free As I accepted the gift I was given I felt the heart beat like never before A tear drop rolled down my cheek and I knew I was transformed I came to find out it was new life in me I was coming out a new person a new being who was no longer conformed to the world but renewed enlightened enriched I woke up and realized I was no longer sleeping beauty as I got the awakening To me that was healing from the house of heaven I was now free from heartache no longer day dreaming but living the dream The documentary touches on life experiences and showcases a woman's journey as she worked to free herself from oppression rebuilding her life to make it out of the wilderness alive It turned out to be a journey of a lifetime

On My Way Home Joyce Hutchison, 2017-03-03 Joyce Hutchison a pioneer in the hospice movement who twice chronicled her work as an oncology nurse in the popular books May I Walk You Home and Now That You've Gone Home reveals her own journey with lung cancer as her death approaches Hutchison shares not only the heartbreak and pain she experienced in these last years of her life but also her continued sense of God walking with her during these challenging times When Joyce Hutchison received the diagnosis of stage four lung cancer she couldn't believe it I have worked in oncology hospice and palliative care for thirty five years It makes no sense for me to have cancer especially terminal cancer As she shared the painful news with her children endured the hardships of chemotherapy and coped with weakness and exhaustion she came to the realization that she wanted to share this journey with others to assist those in the most difficult stage of life In sixteen brief chapters Hutchison gives an account of the physical emotional and mental challenges of each step when chemo made her dreadfully sick when her emotions fluctuated wildly in a matter of minutes how she felt when people told her she looked so good She shares how her sense of humor helped her cope with the weariness of yet another procedure and the isolation that accompanies cancer Her account includes not only the story of her illness but also how she responded when her second husband left their marriage and when her daughter was diagnosed with cancer too Despite her suffering Hutchison held fast to faith Supported by her family and friends she tells how she experienced God's love in a new way A foreword and afterword by Joyce Rupp Hutchison's writing partner on her two previous books provide context for the book and relate the circumstances of Hutchison's death on May 7 2016 and the Mass of the Resurrection that followed who would influence her return to Africa and her subsequent journalism In 1974 she trekked through the liberation zones of Guinea Bissau during its war of independence in the 1980 s she returned repeatedly to Mozambique and saw how South Africa was fomenting a civil war aimed to destroy the newly independent country From the vantage point of her activism in the United States and from her travels in Africa Urdang tracked and wrote about the slow inexorable demise of apartheid that led to South Africa s first democratic elections when she could finally return home Urdang s memoir maps out her quest for the meaning of home and for the lived reality of revolution with empathy courage and a keen eye for historical and geographic detail This is a personal narrative beautifully told of a journey traveled by an indefatigable exile who while yearning for home continued to question where as a citizen of both South Africa and the United States she belongs My South Africa she writes on her return in 1991 after the release of Nelson Mandela How could I have imagined for one instant that I could return to its beauty and not its pain The Way Home Wayne Watson,1998 As one of the most popular Christian artists of our time Wayne Watson is well known for the moving messages of his music His spiritual sensitivity is reflected in this book of devotionals designed to guide you toward your real home the heart of God Reminiscences in the Life of Elder T.C.
