Vivares,2016-04-15 The events and processes that have taken place in the last decade in South America have given way to one of the most interesting regional phenomena under a global crisis and within a changing world order From the traditional status of Washington s backyard and reign of economic and political stability South America has increasingly turned into a region marked by a heterodox development in the light of other dominant regional tendencies of development the European Union NAFTA and the Asia Pacific The political economic nature of the new South American regionalism NSAR is far from echoing the dominant interpretations about it which reflects the major regional projects today Given the reach and scope of the existing literature on the topic of the NSAR there is an important gap concerning its academic exploration in relation to its nature of development political economic complexity challenges and orientations In this sense this book explores from a wider and pluralist political economic perspective the developmental dimensions of the NSAR within a changing hemispheric and world order in transformation It analyses a set of specific debates regionalism in the Americas then and now social and economic development and regional integration and organized crime intelligence and defence An in depth and critical reflection on the complex and heterogeneous path of regionalization taking place in South America from different perspectives and in key issues of regional development Understanding Global Cooperation ,2021-07-26

Region-Building in Africa Daniel H. Levine, Dawn Nagar, 2016-05-19 This landmark book is the first of its kind to assess the challenges of African region building and regional integration across all five African sub regions and more than five decades of experience considering both political and economic aspects Leading scholars and practitioners come together to analyze a range of entwined topics including the theoretical underpinnings that have informed Africa's regional integration trajectory the political economy of integration including the sources of different waves of integration in pan Africanism and the reaction to neo liberal economic pressures the complexities of integration in a context of weak states and the informal regionalization that often occurs in borderlands the increasing salience of Africa's relationships with rising extra regional economic powers including China and India and comparative lessons from non African regional blocs including the EU ASEAN and the Southern Common Market A core argument of this book running through all chapters is that region building must be recognized as a political project as much as if not more than an economic one successful region building in Africa will need to include the complex political tasks of strengthening state capacity including states capacity as developmental states that can actively engage in economic planning resolving long standing conflicts over resources and political dominance improving democratic governance and developing trans national political structures that are legitimate and inclusive
