Autobiography of a Corpse Sigizmund Krzhizhanovsky, 2013-12-03 An NYRB Classics Original Winner of the 2014 PEN Translation Prize Winner of the 2014 Read Russia Prize The stakes are wildly high in Sigizmund Krzhizhanovsky's fantastic and blackly comic philosophical fables which abound in nested narratives and wild paradoxes This new collection of eleven mind bending and spellbinding tales includes some of Krzhizhanovsky's most dazzling conceits a provincial journalist who moves to Moscow finds his existence consumed by the autobiography of his room's previous occupant the fingers of a celebrated pianist's right hand run away to spend a night alone on the city streets a man's lifelong quest to bite his own elbow inspires both a hugely popular circus act and a new refutation of Kant Ordinary reality cracks open before our eyes in the pages of Autobiography of a Corpse and the extraordinary spills out

The World's First SWAT Team Leroy Thompson, 2012-10-24 In turbulent Shanghai in the years between the World Wars the International Settlement was a mercantile powerhouse that faced unrest from Communist labor unions criminal gangs spies political agitators armed kidnappers and assassins Adjoining the Settlement were the French Concession and the Chinese city both hotbeds of intrigue and crime themselves Called the most sinful in the world the Settlement relied on its police the Shanghai Municipal Police one of the most advanced forces in the world After an incident in 1926 when the police fired upon demonstrators which resulted in unrest and strikes W E Fairbairn was charged with forming a specialized unit to deal with riots and armed encounters The resulting Reserve Unit became the prototype for future SWAT teams as it developed tactics for using snipers in barricade and hostage incidents techniques for use of the submachine gun during raids hostage rescue tactics aggressive riot dispersal tactics and various other tactical innovations Out of the experiences of the unit came many of the techniques later taught by W E Fairbairn E A Sykes Pat O'Neill and others to the Commandos Rangers SOE OSS 1st Special Service Force and other Second World War elite units Those same techniques still resonate today with special forces and police tactical units

The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne Brian Moore, 2011-08-17 One of The Guardian's 1 000 Books to Read Before You Die This underrated classic of contemporary Irish literature tells the utterly transfixing story of a lonely poverty stricken spinster in 1950s Belfast The Boston Globe Judith Hearne is an unmarried woman of a certain age who has come down in society She has few skills and is full of the prejudices and pieties of her genteel Belfast upbringing But Judith has a secret life And she is just one heartbreak away from revealing it to the world Hailed by Graham Greene Thomas Flanagan and Harper Lee alike The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne is an unflinching and deeply sympathetic portrait of a woman destroyed by self and circumstance First published in 1955 it marked Brian Moore as a major figure in English literature he would go on to be short listed three times for the Booker Prize and established him as an astute chronicler of the human soul Seldom in modern fiction has any character been revealed so completely or been made to seem so poignantly real The New York Times

women in the literary world now back in print for the first time in decades Difficult Women presents portraits of three extraordinary complicated and yes difficult women while also raising intriguing and in their own way difficult questions about the character and motivations of the keenly and often cruelly observant portraitist himself The book begins with David Plante's portrait of Jean Rhys in her old age when the publication of The Wide Sargasso Sea after years of silence that had made Rhys's great novels of the 1920s and 30s as good as unknown had at last gained genuine recognition for her Rhys however can hardly be said to be enjoying her new fame A terminal alcoholic she curses and staggers and rants like King Lear on the heath in the hotel room that she has made her home while Plante looks impassively on Sonia Orwell is his second subject a suave exploiter and hapless victim of her beauty and social prowess while the unflappable brilliant and impossibly opinionated Germaine Greer sails through the final pages ever ready to set the world and any erring companion right The Burning of the World Bela Zombory-Moldovan, 2014-08-05 Publishing during the 100th Anniversary of the First World War An NYRB Classics Original The budding young Hungarian artist Bela Zombory Moldovan was on holiday when the First World War broke out in July 1914 Called up by the army he soon found himself hundreds of miles away advancing on Russian lines and facing relentless rifle and artillery fire Badly wounded he returned to normal life which now struck him as unspeakably strange He had witnessed he realized the end of a way of life of a whole world Published here for the first time in any language this extraordinary reminiscence is a powerful addition to the literature of the war that defined the shape of the twentieth century The Life of Henry Brulard Stendhal, 2016-08-23 The Life of Henry Brulard is the autobiography of one of France's greatest writers Stendhal author of The Red and the Black and The Charterhouse of Parma Here writing at white heat and with such ferocious honesty and indignation that his book was to remain unpublishable for more than a century after its composition Stendhal revisits his unhappy childhood in a stuffy provincial town and bares his rebellious heart His adored mother who died when he was only seven a father devoted only to his own social ambitions the aunt whose daily cruelties passed for care these are among the indelible portraits in a work that captures the sights sounds places and characters of Stendhal's youth its pleasures and sorrows with preternatural clarity and immediacy Full of dazzling images and burning emotions The Life of Henry Brulard is a vivid memoir that is also an extraordinary work of the imagination The Wedding of Zein Tayeb Salih, 2011-04-20 The Wedding of Zein unfolds in the same village on the upper Nile where Tayeb Salih's tragic masterpiece Season of Migration to the North is set Here however the story that emerges through the overlapping sometimes contradictory voices of the villagers is comic Zein is the village idiot and everyone in the village is dumbfounded when the news goes around that he will be getting married Zein the freak Zein who burst into laughter the moment he was born and has kept women and children laughing ever since Zein who lost all his teeth at six and whose face is completely hairless Zein married at last Zein's particular role in the life of the village has been the peculiar one of falling in love again and again with girls who promptly marry another man It would be unheard of for him to get married himself In

Tayeb Salih's wonderfully agile telling the story of how this miracle came to be is one that engages the tensions that exist in the village or indeed in any community tensions between the devout and the profane the poor and the propertied the modern and the traditional In the end however Zein's ridiculous good luck augurs an ultimate reconciliation opening a prospect of a world made whole Salih's classic novella appears here with two of his finest short stories The Doum Tree of Wad Hamid and A Handful of Dates

Nature Stories Jules Renard, 2011-12-14 The natural world in all its richness glimpsed variously in the house the barnyard and the garden in ponds and streams and at large in the woods and the fields including old friends like the dog the cat the cow and the pig along with more unusual and sometimes alarming characters such as the weasel the dragonfly snakes of several sorts and even a whale not to mention ants in their seeming infinitude and a single humble potato all these and more are the subjects of what may well be the most deft and delightful book of literary miniatures ever written In Jules Renard's world plants and animals not only feel but speak one species the swallow appears to write Hebrew and yet for all the anthropomorphic wit and whimsy the author indulges in they guard their mystery too Sly funny and touching Nature Stories here beautifully rendered into English by Douglas Parme and accompanied by the wonderful ink brush images of Pierre Bonnard with which the book was originally published is a literary classic of inexhaustible freshness
