Silent Voices The Southern Negro Woman Today:

Silent Voices Josephine Carson, 1969 Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Karen-Marie Yust, Aostre N. Johnson, Sandy Eisenberg Sasso, Eugene C. Roehlkepartain, 2005-12-27 Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Perspectives from the World's Religious Traditions provides a forum for prominent religious scholars to examine the state of religious knowledge and theological reflection on spiritual development in childhood and adolescence. Featuring essays from thinkers representing the world's major religious traditions, the book introduces new voices, challenges assumptions, raises new questions, and broadens the base of knowledge and investment in this important domain of life. It specifically and intentionally focuses on theological and philosophical perspectives from within religious traditions, creating space for the religious traditions to find their voices. Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality is firmly grounded in the language and priorities of religious studies and helps stimulate explorations of whether and how religious communities are tapping their own wisdom and strengths in nurturing today's young people in a complex and changing world. Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality will set the stage for new waves of scholarship and dialogue within and across traditions, disciplines, and cultures that will enrich understanding and strengthen how the world's religious traditions and others understand and cultivate the spiritual lives of children and adolescents around the globe. Women, Their Social and Economic Status, Selected References, December 1970 United States. Department of Labor, 1971 The Practice of Social Intervention: Goals, Roles & Strategies Frank M. Loewenberg, Ralph Dolgoff, 1972 Black Foremothers Dorothy Sterling, 1988 Three heroic women whose stories in the words of Margaret Walker every woman, man, and child should know: Ellen Craft, the daring runaway Georgia slave who used her freedom to serve the cause of abolition; Ida B. Wells, the firebrand journalist whose crusade against lynching awakened the consciousness of a nation; and Mary Church Terrell, a gifted and untiring leader in the movement for suffrage, civil rights, and world peace. Through painstaking research, Sterling not only produces a fascinating account of three outstanding leaders; she also documents the role hitherto faceless, nameless millions of African American women have played in shaping our culture and history. Reflecting and connecting the historical struggle of the years 1826 through 1954, Black Foremothers will captivate and inspire readers young and old. Many Minds, One Heart Wesley C. Hogan, 2013-01-22 How did the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee break open the caste system in the American South between 1960 and 1965? In this innovative study, Wesley Hogan explores what SNCC accomplished and more important, how it fostered significant social change in such a short time. She offers new insights into the internal dynamics of SNCC as well as the workings of the larger civil rights and Black Power movement of which it was a part. As Hogan chronicles the members of SNCC created some of the civil rights movement's boldest experiments in freedom, including the sit-ins of 1960, the rejuvenated Freedom Rides of 1961, and grassroots democracy projects in Georgia and Mississippi. She highlights several key players, including Charles Sherrod, Bob Moses, and Fannie Lou Hamer, as innovators of grassroots activism and democratic practice Breaking new ground Hogan shows how SNCC laid the foundation for the emergence of the New Left and created new definitions of political leadership during the civil rights and Vietnam eras She traces the ways other social movements such as Black Power women s liberation and the antiwar movement adapted practices developed within SNCC to apply to their particular causes Many Minds One Heart ultimately reframes the movement and asks us to look anew at where America stands on justice and equality today Focus on Minorities Fort Bragg (N.C.).
