

Mad Trapper

Edward Butts

Mad Trapper:

The Mad Trapper Barbara Smith, 2011-08-24 When Albert Johnson the Mad Trapper of Rat River was gunned down in February 1932 he went to his death without anyone knowing who he really was most people believed the name Albert Johnson was an alias He eluded a well organized well equipped posse for seven weeks surviving solely on wits and determination in the bitter cold of a Canadian Arctic winter Some 75 years later he was being pursued again this time by a team of filmmakers and forensic scientists bent on determining his identity once and for all In this age of DNA testing and leading edge forensic techniques would the decades old mystery finally be solved Myth Merchant Films Michael Jorgensen and Carrie Gour hoped so Armed with a television production crew and a group of top forensic scientists they headed to Aklavik Northwest Territories The team exhumed Johnson's body examined the remains and harvested samples for further testing and DNA comparison with potential kin The results were broadcast in a Discovery Channel documentary Hunt for the Mad Trapper Author Barbara Smith was on hand to witness it all In this book she takes readers to the isolated northern community of Aklavik where the legend began recounts the tale of the manhunt that mesmerized the world describes the exhumation and subsequent scientific analyses and shares the astonishing information unearthed in Myth Merchant's investigation

The Mad Trapper Rudy Wiebe, 1980 When it began he was just another stranger without a name When it ended he was the most notorious criminal in North America the object of the largest manhunt in RCMP history This is the story of Albert Johnson the Mad Trapper a silent man of superhuman strength and endurance who defied capture for fifty days in the bitter cold of winter north of the Arctic Circle He was a man who crossed hundreds of miles of frozen tundra on foot who survived dynamite blasts and the pursuit of police trappers and the army and who became the first man to cross the Richardson Mountains in a blizzard

Line of Fire Edward Butts, 2009-08-03 Across Canada peace officers put their lives on the line every day From John Fisk in 1804 the first known Canadian policeman killed in the line of duty to the four RCMP officers shot to death in Mayerthorpe Alberta in 2005 renowned true crime writer Edward Butts takes a hard hitting compassionate probing look at some of the stories involving the hundreds of Canadian law enforcement officers who have found themselves in harm's way Some like the four RCMP officers who perished in the Northwest Territories on the Lost Patrol of 1910 died in horrible accidents while performing their duties Others such as the Mounties involved in the manhunts for Almighty Voice and the Mad Trapper of Rat River found themselves in extremely dangerous violent situations One thing is certain about all of these peace officers they displayed amazing courage and never hesitated to make the ultimate sacrifice for their fellow citizens

Ethical Encounters Janne Korkka, 2013-09-01 The problems of knowing and representing the other are acute every time we encounter a text as writers or readers Ethical Encounters engages with the representation of encounters with alterity in the writings of the Canadian author Rudy Wiebe Drawing on Emmanuel Levinas's philosophy on the ethics of encountering the other the book argues that Wiebe's writings show that the self's knowledge offers an inadequate basis for ethically valid representations of those encounters In the search for ethical ways of engaging with alterity Wiebe's writings offer new ways of employing silence and the presence of the unknowable as means to explore encounters with alterity Ethical Encounters shows that dividing Wiebe's work into two sharply distinct categories of Mennonite and First Nations writings overlooks important connections between the author's central works and may seriously hinder the interrogation of narrative engagement with alterity While such human encounters resonate against ethical strategies of representation the greatest challenge for the ethics of encounter in Wiebe's texts arises in encounters with the alterity of space Ethical Encounters engages with both physical and narrative spaces which are not permanently fixed in landscape or geography or in human perceptions of place arguing that the most radical expressions of alterity in Wiebe's writings emerge in encounters with the spaces of the Canadian North The study raises questions about the relationship between the self and the other as they concern knowing what does the self know when it claims to know another person or space How does the narrating self negotiate the seeming collapse of its own knowledge when it encounters others whose stories cannot be known Ethical Encounters casts new light not just on Wiebe's writings but also on how we as authors and readers engage with expressions of alterity which refuse to be transformed into familiar knowable forms Janne Korkka is post doctoral researcher and coordinator of the North American Studies programme in the Department of English University of Turku Finland His main research interests lie in the problems of representing space and encountering alterity in Canadian writing He is co editor of Seeking the Self Encountering the Other Diasporic Narrative and the Ethics of Representation 2008 He teaches Canadian and postcolonial literatures and North American Studies and publishes mainly on Canadian writing

An Independent Stance W. J. Keith, 1991 Part One of this strongly worded informed and wide ranging collection examines key issues for the future of Canadian criticism Part Two offers new readings of important works by Grove Wilson MacLennan Davies Laurence Hood Wiebe Hodgins and Atwood As W J Keith argues We still have a mission to have our literature recognized as an essential reflection of our national life This is what I mean by retrenchment and consolidation Literature can survive without literary criticism but it cannot survive if it is unknown and unread It is criticism's prime function at the present time to see that it is both known and read with that mature enjoyment which is a combination of emotional sensitivity and humane intelligence As critics scholars editors we shall not be fulfilling our responsibilities or justifying our existence if we attempt anything less Or as Keith modestly observes in his introduction to this collection If this book is of any interest it will be because Canadian literature is an important subject Literary commentators like myself are middle men and should be prepared to admit the fact If this book succeeds in helping readers to appreciate the works of Canadian writers that I discuss and to derive increased pleasure and insight from them it will have served its purpose I can see no other justification for it or for any other work of criticism

The Death of Albert Johnson Frank W. Anderson, 2011-11-07 Albert Johnson was a loner a deadly shot who in 1932 triggered a gruelling manhunt that has become an Arctic legend For over six weeks amid blizzards and numbing cold he eluded a posse of trappers First Nations and RCMP who for the very first time used a two way radio and an airplane in their search Johnson was involved in four shoot outs killing one policeman and gravely wounding two other men before being shot to death Over a half century later an intriguing mystery remains Who was Albert Johnson The Mad Trapper Barbara Smith,2009 Ever since he was gunned down in a torrent of RCMP bullets in February 1932 the identity of the Mad Trapper of Rat River has remained a mystery Theories and claims have abounded but no one yet has been able to positively identify the enigmatic loner who shunned his neighbours and led Canadas national police force on a wild chase that ended not only with his own death but with one officer killed and two others wounded This could be about to change Finding the Arctic Matthew Sturm,2012-06-15 The history of the Arctic is rich filled with fascinating and heroic stories of exploration multicultural interactions and humans facing nature at its most extreme In Finding the Arctic the accomplished arctic researcher Matthew Sturm collects some of the most memorable and moving of these stories and weaves them around his own story of a 2 500 mile snowmobile expedition across arctic Alaska and Canada During that trip Sturm and six companions followed a circuitous route that brought them to many of the most historic spots in the North They stood in the footsteps of their predecessors experienced the landscape and the weather and gained an intimate perspective on notable historical events all chronicled here by Sturm Written with humor and pathos Finding the Arctic is a classic tale of adventure travel And throughout the book Sturm with his thirty eight years of experience in the North emerges as an excellent guide for any who wish to understand the Arctic of today and yesterday Napachee Robert Feagan,2006-11-20 Napachee is tired of Sachs Harbour Northwest Territories He is tired of the traditional Inuit hunt and of fighting with his father who shuns snowmobiles for dog sleds and tents for igloos When two men from the Edmonton zoo fly in to capture a polar bear cub Napachee spies his chance at a trip to the big city but soon discovers that life there is not what he had expected Tusaayaksat - Summer 2009 Tusaayaksat Magazine,2009-06-01 Rafting the Snake W. J. Becker,2024-09-11 I am not a rugged adventurer and this is not the story of a journey that you could never do I brought only a reasonable degree of fitness to the Snake a camera at the ready and an open mind Experience the beauty and wonder of Canada s North through the reflections and photography of Werner J Becker He along with his wife and two teenage grandchildren embarked on a two week rafting tour of the Snake River Valley starting not far from the river s source and ending at its mouth on the Peel River From breathtaking views of majestic Mount Macdonald to a thundering waterfall and raging rapids this wilderness adventure is artfully captured in photos and prose Along the way stories of natural and human history are shared giving depth and context to the narrative A celebration of the beauty of the Yukon and a love letter to Canada s North Rafting the Snake is a timely encouragement for the protection of the environment and our planet It shows the interconnectedness of humans and nature and makes a strong case for preserving our northern wilderness Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan,2002 In Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian

Culture Ren e Hulan disputes the notion that the north is a source of distinct collective identity for Canadians Through a synthesis of critical historical and theoretical approaches to northern subjects in literary studies she challenges the epistemology used to support this idea By investigating mutually dependent categories of identity in literature that depicts northern peoples and places Hulan provides a descriptive account of representative genres in which the north figures as a central theme including autobiography adventure narrative ethnography fiction poetry and travel writing She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples Reading against the background of contemporary ethnographic literary and cultural theory Hulan maintains that the collective Canadian identity idealized in many works representing the north does not occur naturally but is artificially constructed in terms of characteristics inflected by historically contingent ideas of gender and race such as self sufficiency independence and endurance and that these characteristics are evoked to justify the nationhood of the Canadian state Riders of the Crimson Veil Pasquale De Marco,2025-07-26 Riders of the Crimson is the definitive guide to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police RCMP one of the world s most famous and respected police forces Through stunning photography and engaging narrative this book tells the story of the RCMP from its humble beginnings in the mid 1800s to its modern role as a national police force Along the way we will learn about the challenges and rewards of policing in Canada from the early days of the frontier to the present day We will also take a close look at the RCMP s unique culture and traditions their uniforms and equipment and their training and operations Through the stories of famous RCMP officers we will gain a firsthand account of the dangers and excitement of police work Riders of the Crimson is more than just a history book It is also a practical guide for anyone who is interested in joining the RCMP We will discuss the application process the training program and the different career paths available to officers We will also provide tips on how to succeed in the RCMP and how to make the most of your career Whether you are a Canadian history buff a law enforcement enthusiast or simply someone who is interested in learning more about one of the world s most famous police forces Riders of the Crimson is the book for you In addition to the historical and cultural aspects of the RCMP this book also provides practical information for anyone who is interested in joining the force We will discuss the application process the training program and the different career paths available to officers We will also provide tips on how to succeed in the RCMP and how to make the most of your career So whether you are a potential recruit a law enforcement professional or simply a curious reader this book has something for everyone Join us as we explore the fascinating world of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police If you like this book write a review Fifty Years a Hunter and Trapper Eldred Nathaniel Woodcock,1913 Oddballs Jim Westergard,2015-12-17 They say truth is stranger than fiction In Oddballs Jim Westergard proves it This collection of wood engravings accompanied by short tongue in cheek biographies showcases forty fantastically detailed warts and all portraits of some of history s most peculiar figures Jim Westergard creates a veritable rogues gallery populated by notorious historical rebels and eccentrics like Rasputin Pope Joan and Ned Kelly as well as lesser known oddballs such as octogenarian bank robber Red Roundtree and Mike the headless chicken From victims of spontaneous human combustion to the masterminds behind archaeological hoaxes Oddballs pays tribute to the zany bizarre mischievous and just plain odd rascals who by accident or design have found their way into the annals of history
