Sociomedia Edward Barrett, 1992 Barrett's opening essay further explores his original and thought provoking application of social construction theories of knowledge to the development and analysis of multimedia systems Some of the chapters that follow look at the effectiveness of particular multimedia systems across the curriculum from medicine sociology and management to language learning writing literature and intergenerational studies Other chapters examine the implied pedagogy within these systems or the effects of using multimedia and hypermedia in the classroom

Literature & Photography Interactions, 1840-1990 Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1995 This remarkable book traces comprehensively for the first time the give and take between these sister arts by gathering writings about photography and photographs by and of writers from England Europe and the United States over the last century and a half aka Marcel Duchamp Anne Collins Goodyear, James W. Mcmanus, 2014-12-30 aka Marcel Duchamp is an anthology of recent essays by leading scholars on Marcel Duchamp arguably the most influential artist of the twentieth century With scholarship addressing the full range of Duchamp's career these papers examine how Duchamp's influence grew and impressed itself upon his contemporaries and subsequent generations of artists Duchamp provides an illuminating model of the dynamics of play in construction of artistic identity and legacy which includes both personal volition and contributions made by fellow artists critics and historians This volume is not only important for its contributions to Duchamp studies and the light it sheds on the larger impact of Duchamp's art and career on modern and contemporary art but also for what it reveals about how the history of art itself is shaped over time by shifting agendas evolving methodologies and new discoveries
