Financial Sustainability of Local Governments in Southern Africa Nirmala Dorasamy, Tonderai Kapesa, 2024-09-09 This book delves into the critical issue of ensuring the long term financial viability of local governments in the diverse region of Southern Africa Across Southern Africa cities and communities are facing a multitude of challenges from rapid urbanization and infrastructure challenges to social inequality and environmental degradation In this thought provoking book the authors explore the intricate relationship between financial sustainability and the pursuit of sustainable cities and communities through different lenses Drawing on extensive research and case studies from various countries in the region this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the financial realities faced by local governments. It examines the factors influencing revenue generation, expenditure management and fiscal governance, shedding light on the complexities of financial decision making in the context of limited resources and pressing development needs. Furthermore, it offers practical insights and actionable recommendations for policymakers, practitioners and academics. It explores innovative approaches to revenue diversification, efficient expenditure allocation and effective fiscal management with the ultimate aim of fostering sustainable development, social services delivery and environmentally sustainable infrastructure in Southern African cities and communities. This is an essential resource for anyone interested in understanding the challenges and opportunities associated with financial sustainability in the context of urbanisation and sustainable development in greater Africa. It serves as a guide and inspiration for building financially resilient local governments that can support the aspirations and well being of their citizens while contributing to the broader vision of sustainable cities and communities.

The Effective Local Government Manager, 3rd Edition N. Joseph Cayer, Raymond W. Cox III, Chardean Newell, 2014-04-15. The Effective Local Government Manager 3rd Edition reflects the rich history and modern reinvention of a profession that sprang up at the beginning of the twentieth century. What does it mean to be a local government manager in today's world? What can a manager accomplish? What internal as well as external resources must the manager harness? What motivates the manager's employers, colleagues and employees? For the student contemplating a career as a manager in public service, The Effective Local Government Manager is almost obligatory reading. Many instructors have built introductory courses on local government management around The Effective Local Government Manager. For the young assistant in a city or county or for the mid-career manager assessing new challenges, The Effective Local Government Manager offers insights on your role and how you can best serve your community. It explores the manager's many roles and responsibilities interacting with the community, the governing body, local government employees and other governments. It offers the most up to date theory and practice of local government as well as tools of management. This book is used as a text in ICMA University's Emerging Leaders Development Program.

Local Government Management Douglas J. Watson, Wendy L. Hassett, 2016-04-15. Some of the very best writings on issues involving local government can be found in journals published by the American Society for Public Administration or journals with which ASPA is associated. This volume includes thirty of the most outstanding articles that have been published over the past sixty years in these journals. Local Government Management is an ideal supplement for any course in local management and administration, whether the audience is students or practicing professionals.

PR and Communication in Local Government and Public Services John Brown, Pat Gaudin, Wendy Moran, 2013-07-03. In the UK's current climate of budget cuts and policy changes, local government officials need to be aware of best practice in both broadcasting their services and responding to crises in their communities.
