 Patton Unleashed details the remarkable armored achievement of Patton's 3rd Army. Hear first hand accounts of the battles as described by American veterans. Full color maps augmented with black and white action photography help detail the engagements at Le Mans, the Falaise Gap, the drive to the Seine, the clearing of the West Bank, the struggle for Metz, and the grinding halt at the Siegfried Line. Patton's tank columns rumbled faster and further, sometimes up to 60 miles a day, than the Wehrmacht could react. His troops were so motivated by their General's desire to crush Nazi Germany and enter Berlin that enemy forces withered under a relentless American pursuit. Compare US armored tactics, training, equipment, and command structure to the German Panzer Divisions. Learn the history behind the myth and revealed how Patton was America's greatest armored warfare advocate. Hardcover book with full color maps detailing battle plans, operational movements, German counterattacks, and 3rd Army's race through France. The Author, Leo Daugherty, a US Marine reservist, has written numerous articles on Marine life and history. He was the Associate Editor for the Marine Corps Gazette and also authored The Battle of the Hedgerows Patton, Third Army And Operational Maneuver Major Jack D. Flowers, 2015-11-06
 On 16 December 1944, the German Army launched an offensive in the Ardennes to split Allied forces and retake the ports of Antwerp and Liege. The German advance split the XII Army forces and left the 101st Airborne Division surrounded at Bastogne. To relieve the encircled units in the Ardennes and defeat the German offensive, Third Army conducted an impressive counterattack into the flank of the Germans. The flexibility to turn ninety degrees during the worst winter in thirty-eight years and relieve the encircled forces stands out as one of the greatest operational maneuvers in history. While this operation is unique, the actions of the commander and staff that planned and executed it deserve closer analysis to determine what enabled them to orchestrate this maneuver. It is especially remarkable when taken in context how rapidly the Army changed during the previous four years. The US Army, anticipating eventual war in Europe, began a transformation which included drastic changes in force structure and doctrine. The primary transformation in doctrine was the revision of Field Service Regulation 100-5. The 1941 edition of 100-5 superseded a tentative version published in 1939, which was the first major revision of warfighting doctrine since 1923. It was with this manual that the Army went to war. It was also the manual used to train and teach new and reserve officers who had little experience in the study and practice of war. How important and to what extent did Patton's Third Army apply the doctrine in conducting the Battle of the Bulge? Particularly relevant to serving officers today is to analyze the operations of Third Army in terms of doctrine that existed in 1944 and today's current doctrine. An examination of similarities and differences between the doctrines may allow development of possible conclusions on the ability of future forces to conduct decisive maneuver in compressed time and space Patton's Third Army Christopher J. Anderson, 1997
