

The background of the cover is a photograph of a large, ancient stone bridge. A prominent feature is a massive cylindrical pier in the foreground, constructed from horizontal layers of weathered stone blocks. A small stream of water flows down the side of this pier. In the background, a large stone arch of the bridge spans across the frame, with its structure also made of similar stone blocks. The sky is visible in the upper left corner, showing a clear blue color with some light clouds. The overall scene is one of historical architecture and engineering.
