Prism Of Time And Eternity:

Delimitations John Sallis, 2022-05-24 Since Hegel philosophers have declared repeatedly that metaphysics is at an end a pronouncement that has sparked much contemporary philosophical debate What exactly does the end or closure of metaphysics mean and what are the implications of this view John Sallis characterizes the end of metaphysics as a limit or horizon both enclosing metaphysical thought and opening the field of thinking beyond it He elaborates five areas in which the boundaries of thinking are extended imagination as an opening power the radicalizing of phenomenology's injunction to attend to the things themselves Heidegger's shift of thinking toward an opening or clearing archaic closure through a return to Plato and Heraclitus and the nonidentity that takes place in the act of delimitation This last question is developed in relation to Husserl's project of a pure phenomenology to the debate between hermeneutics and deconstruction and to the secluding of ground announced in Schelling's thought

Transfiguring Time Olivier Clément, 2019-02-07 Clément's Transfiguring Time is an early work written when he was 37 It carries all the excitement of his fresh encounter with Orthodoxy and the Fathers of the Christian Church He draws on his deep study of Hinduism Buddhism and Indian myths to differentiate the understanding of time and eternity in archaic religions in Hinduism and in Buddhism from the Christian and specifically Orthodox understanding of time and eternity This new translation the first one in English wants to bring Clément's early work to a new generation of readers

Time - Just the Tip of the Iceberg Johnson Srigiri, 2023-04-01 The recurring theme Augustine and Time holds sway in both academic and popular works However most of the efforts focus on his Confessions XI unfortunately neglecting the rest of his corpus Even in a cursory reading of it a twin factor stands out and it permeates the entire corpus The cluster of temporal notions he uses holds many more beyond the concepts of time and eternity and its being posited in the cognition of the human mind This serendipitous observation necessitates a hermeneutical probe into the inextricable link between temporal notions and human cognition Taking the untrodden path this probe begins with an analysis of Augustine's conversion narrative since the inseparable intertwining of temporality and human cognition is first observable in the philosophical and theological matters he experienced then The cognitive capabilities for perception belief and language and the mind's concern with reality rationality and relationality are examined to show the way human cognition gives rise to complex temporality rather than just the notions of time and eternity The Appendix argues Augustine and Neuroscience could dialogue on temporality in human cognition

Shapes of Time Michael McGillen, 2023-12-15 Shapes of Time explores how concepts of time and history were spatialized in early twentieth century German thought Michael McGillen locates efforts in German modernism to conceive of alternative shapes of time beyond those of historicism and nineteenth century philosophies of history at the boundary between secular and theological discourses By analyzing canonical works of German modernism those of Karl Barth Franz Rosenzweig Siegfried Kracauer and Robert Musil he identifies the ways in which spatial imagery and metaphors were employed to both separate the end of history from a narrative framework and to map the liminal relation between history and eschatology Drawing on theories and practices as disparate as constructivism non Euclidean geometry photography and urban architecture Shapes of Time presents original connections between modernism theology and mathematics as played out within the canon of twentieth century German letters Concepts of temporal and spatial form McGillen contends contribute to the understanding not only of modernist literature but also of larger theoretical concerns within modern cultural and intellectual history The Glory of the Lord Hans Urs von Balthasar,1983 This book is volume one of the long awaited English version of von Balthasar s masterwork Herrlichkeit The first volume must make its way slowly toward our actual concerns in an introduction which deals both substantively and historically with the subject Its main section then treats the question of theological knowledge first as concerning its subjective structure and then with regard to its presuppositions in the theological object The fact that in this way many things come into view which are normally dealt with by so called fundamental theology should not give the impression that we are here developing a fundamental theology which would be distinct from and even opposed to dogmatics The very direction of our reflections will rather endeavor to convince the reader of the inseparability of both aspects of theology Publisher Unfading Light Sergius Bulgakov,2012-12-12 With its scholarly discussions of myth German idealist philosophy negative theology and mysticism shot through with reflections on personal religious experiences Unfading Light documents what a life in Orthodoxy came to mean for Sergius Bulgakov on the tumultuous eve of the 1917 October Revolution Written in the final decade of the Russian Silver Age the book is a typical product of that era of experimentation in all fields of culture and life Bulgakov referred to the book as miscellanies a patchwork of chapters articulating in symphonic form the ideas and personal experiences that he and his entire generation struggled to comprehend Readers may be reminded of St Augustine s Confessions and City of God as they follow Bulgakov through the challenges and opportunities presented to Orthodoxy by modernity The Relevance of Hegel's Concept of Philosophy Luca Illetterati,Giovanna Miolli,2021-12-16 In a systematic treatment of Hegel s concept of philosophy and all of the different aspects related to it this collection explores how Hegel and his understanding of his discipline can be put into dialogue with current metaphysical inquiries and shed light on the philosophical examination of the nature of philosophy itself Taking into account specific aspects of Hegel s elaboration on philosophy such the scientificity of philosophy as a self grounding rational process and his explanation of the relationship between philosophy and the history of philosophy an international line up of contributors consider Hegel s concept of philosophy in general from skepticism idealism history and difference to time politics and religion The relation of Hegel s concept of philosophy to other philosophical traditions and philosophers including Kant Fichte Schelling and Jacobi Hegel s concept of philosophy with reference to philosophy s relation to other forms of rationality and disciplines The relation of Hegel s concept of philosophy to specific issues in present metaphysical debates Reflecting the renewed and widespread interest in Hegel seen in Analytic philosophy and Continental thought this volume advances study of Hegel's conceptual tools and provides new readings of traditional philosophical problems

Time in the Babylonian Talmud Lynn Kaye, 2018-02-08 In this book Lynn Kaye examines how rabbis of late antiquity thought about time through their legal reasoning and storytelling and what these insights mean for thinking about time today Providing close readings of legal and narrative texts in the Babylonian Talmud she compares temporal ideas with related concepts in ancient and modern philosophical texts and in religious traditions from late antique Mesopotamia Kaye demonstrates that temporal flexibility in the Babylonian Talmud is a means of exploring and resolving legal uncertainties as well as a tool to tell stories that convey ideas effectively and dramatically Her book the first on time in the Talmud makes accessible complex legal texts and philosophical ideas It also connects the literature of late antique Judaism with broader theological and philosophical debates about time

NON-EVENING LIGHT Sergiy N. Bulgakov, Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory/vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com/2023/01/book-inventory/vladimir-djambov-talmach.html> But how difficult it is in our age of lukewarmness and indifference to faith I do not pin hope on my weak powers I only put my hopes on the grace of God given to the apostles on the day of Pentecost which made them the unwise and unbooks the wise fishers of the universe And the fact that I a sinner and weak are worthy of this great apostolic grace in the days of Pentecost fills my soul with a special high spiritual joy and hope for the all powerful help of God Come to me O Good Comforter and cleanse me from all filth sharing me with Thy holiness and non evening light and Divine lives and the most fragrant dispensing canon 6 to the Holy Spirit Holy Hierarchs of God Calling on this fiery Spirit of grace onto my sinful head pray the Lord that it would burn out in me all sinful impurity that it would sanctify and enlighten me that it would instruct me in all truth and that it would make me worthy of this great and terrible blessed and glorious service

The Heritage of Sufism Leonard Lewisohn, 2018-04-30 The first volume in a three volume set this is a study of the rise of Persian Sufi spirituality and literature in Islam during the first six Muslim centuries This collection of 24 essays covers the key achievements of the Muslim intellectual and cultural tradition in history mysticism philosophy and poetry It demonstrates the positive role played by Sufi thinkers during this period The subjects covered include Sufi masters and schools literature and poetry spiritual chivalry divine love Persian Sufi literature Rumi and Attar

A Day Apart Christopher D Ringwald, 2008-11-14 The Sabbath is the original feast day a day of joy and freedom from work a holy day that allows us to reconnect with God our fellows and nature Now in a compelling blend of journalism scholarship and personal memoir Christopher D Ringwald examines the Sabbath from Creation to the present weaving together the stories of three families three religions and three thousand years of history A Day Apart is the first book to examine the Sabbath in Judaism

Christianity and Islam A marvelously readable book it describes the three weekly holy days the Muslim Juma on Friday the Jewish Shabbat on Saturday and the Christian Lord's Day on Sunday and introduces us to three families including Ringwald's own and shows how they observe the holy day and what it means to them The heart of the book recounts the history of the Sabbath ranging from the Creation story and Moses on Mount Sinai to the teachings of Jesus and Muhammad the impact of the Protestant Reformation and the Industrial Revolution and the rise of the modern weekend Ringwald shows that the Sabbath instinct to observe a special day of withdrawal and repose is universal Indeed all religions and philosophies teach that life is more than toil that time should be set aside for contemplation enjoyment and culture In today's frantic 24/7 world the Sabbath a day devoted to rest and contemplation has never been more necessary A Day Apart offers a portrait of a truly timeless way to escape the everyday world and add meaning to our lives I can not recall reading anything on the three faiths that so deftly engages them in robust conversation Amazingly learned Ringwald nonetheless has a light friendly touch The warmth of his soul is unmistakable Christian Century

A Philosophy of Prayer George Pattison, 2024-07-02 Exploring the silence of prayer in Post Kantian philosophy and traditional spirituality A Philosophy of Prayer explores prayer within the perspective of post Kantian philosophy Against a background of traditional sources including Augustine The Cloud of Unknowing and the seventeenth century French school of spirituality the book uses Schleiermacher Kierkegaard Dostoevsky Heidegger Berdyaev Tillich Marcel Simone Weil Emmanuel Levinas and Jean Louis Chr tienne to provide an interpretation of what is meant by the passivity and self annihilation of the praying self suggesting an apophatics of the personality Pattison pays particular attention to the question of language and the implications of the role given to silence in traditional texts arguing that language remains a defining element of the human God relationship and that silence is not to be construed as the negation of language but as the revelation of the depth of language itself The basic structure of prayer is shown to be implicitly eschatological oriented toward a coming kingdom of justice and peace while at the same time expressing a deep desire for ontological homecoming a tension manifest in respectively Levinas and Heidegger On Pattison's reading prayer calls for and develops a particular orientation of the self toward existence corresponding to the virtue of humility long understood as the basic Christian virtue This is shown to be in tension with modernity's commitment to strong versions of autonomy However the choice of humility is not presented as the reinstatement of religious heteronomy but as a free choice of the praying self

The Legacy of Jonathan Edwards Darryl G. Hart, Sean Michael Lucas, Stephen J. Nichols, 2003 Jonathan Edwards talked about more than sinners in the hands of an angry God This book examines his vision theology and legacy within American Protestantism

One Home, One Family, One Future Bashir A. Zikria, 2009

The End of a Crusade Nathan D. Showalter, 1998 At the end of the nineteenth century a small group of American students launched a student mission movement that eventually recruited and helped to deploy more than twenty thousand missionaries over a period of about half a century The story of the Student Volunteer Movement SVM has been often recounted but never in relationship to the colossal tragedies of the Great War This is surprising since the war challenged in fundamental ways both the premises and the practices of the Protestant missionary crusade A Christian civilization's claim to moral superiority was savaged by the European war International cooperation among Protestant denominations and missionary organizations received a devastating setback The war crushed the cheerful hopes of the Social Gospel that liberal alliance between the kingdom of God and American culture The identification of the missionary with national causes in wartime led to a serious loss of credibility for missions in the decade after the war This confusion of crusades among a generation of disillusioned crusaders dealt the Student Volunteer Movement a blow from which it never recovered The End of the Crusade looks at the development and eventual decline of the SVM chronicling the disillusionment felt by student volunteers as they were compelled to leave the SVM and enlist in a different crusade the Great War

Suffering Time: Philosophical, Kabbalistic, and Hasidic Reflections on Temporality Elliot R. Wolfson, 2021-05-25 No one theory of time is pursued in these essays but a major theme that threads them together is Wolfson's signature idea of the timeserve as a linear circularity or a circular linearity expressions that are meant to avoid the conventional split between the two temporal modalities of the line and the circle The conception of time elicited by Wolfson from a host of philosophical and mystical sources both Jewish and non Jewish buttresses the contention that it is precisely structural invariability that engenders interpretive variation This hermeneutical axiom is justified in turn by the presumption regarding the cadence of time as the constant return of what has always been what is yet to be The telling of time wells forth from the time of telling One cannot speak of the being of time consequently except from the standpoint of the time of being nor of the time of being except from the standpoint of the being of time

Poets of Reality Joseph Hillis Miller, 1992

Thinking Nature McGrath Sean J. McGrath, 2020-05-28 Moving between ancient and modern sources philosophy and theology and science and popular culture Sean McGrath offers a genuinely new reflection on what it means to be human in an era of climate change mass extinction and geoengineering Engaging with contemporary thinkers in eco criticism including Timothy Morton Bruno Latour and Slavoj Žižek McGrath argues for a distinctive role for the human being in the universe the human being in nature come to full consciousness McGrath's compelling case for a new Anthropocenic humanism is founded on a reverence for nature a humanism that is not at the expense of nature and a naturalism that is not at the expense of the human

Interviews from the Edge Mark Yakich, John Biguenet, 2019-03-21 Interviews from the Edge presents a selection of conversations drawn from 50 years of the international journal New Orleans Review that dive head first into the most enduring aesthetic and social concerns of the last half century From reflections on the making of literature and films to personal accounts of writing inside racial divides and working against capital punishment the writers poets and activists featured in this book offer not only a fresh perspective on our present struggles but also perhaps a way through them for writers and readers alike I think it's frightfully important and this is really much more difficult than it sounds only to say what you absolutely believe Christopher Isherwood Most American writers probably do not think of their writing as a kind of activism And it shouldn't have to be I don't think we can impose that on writers but it can be I think for many writers the ones I admire it is Viet Thanh Nguyen Do you become a writer because you desire to become famous and make a lot of money Or do you become a writer because there's something you discovered this spark this flash that you want to share with other human beings knowing that they can enter into the words too Sister Helen Prejean The hardest part of developing a style is that you have to learn to trust your voice If I thought of my style I'd be crippled Somebody else said to me a long time ago in France Find out what you can do and then don't do it James Baldwin As I have grown older I have come to see that the romantic notion of the outsider in love with death doesn't solve a thing It only makes life worse We have to find ways to create communities Valerie Martin
