New Regionalism in the Global Political Economy Shaun Breslin, Christopher W. Hughes, Nicola Phillips, Ben Rosamond, 2002-08-22 Featuring a notable list of international contributors this book presents a systematic and stimulating discussion on regionalism covering topical issues such as recent financial crises enlargement within EU and the post Lome regionalism of Africa

The Limits of Regionalism Robert G. Finbow, 2017-11-28 Assessing the effectiveness of the North American Agreement on Labour Cooperation NAALC this book examines the operation of the core institutions the Secretariat and National Administrative Offices over the past seven years It discusses the main functions of these institutions in hearing public submissions on violations of labour laws and in conducting research and cooperative activities Based on interview research the analysis reviews the strengths and weaknesses of the accord to assess its contribution to a common labour relations regime in North America and its impact in creating new transnational communities of actors in government and civil society in the three countries The NAALC is also compared with the social dimension of the European Union system and a final assessment is made as to whether the NAALC institutions live up to the promises of their founders and whether these can be a model for labour relations in any future Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA agreement

Devolution, Regionalism and Regional Development Jonathan Bradbury, 2007-12-18 Devolution Regionalism and Regional Development provides an overview and critical perspective on the impact of devolution on regionalism in the UK since 1999 taking a research based look at issues central to the development of regionalism politics governance and planning This multidisciplinary book is written by academics from the fields of geography economics town planning public policy management public administration politics and sociology with a final chapter by Patrick Le Gales putting the research findings into a theoretical context This will be an important book for those researching and studying economic and political geography and planning as well as those involved in regional development

Negotiating the Free Trade Area of the Americas Z. Arashiro, 2011-05-09 The first detailed historical account of the Free Trade Area of the Americas FTAA negotiations this book covers the genesis of the project in the early 1990s to its demise in late 2003 It examines how the FTAA an Inter American policy idea was incompatible with the predominant ideas and beliefs of Brazilian and American decision makers as to how they could and should conduct their countries foreign trade policy in the Western Hemisphere Encyclopedia of Governance Mark Bevir,2007 Regional and Global Regulation of International Trade Francis Snyder,2002-07-05 The processes of legal and economic integration at a regional and global scale have created powerful legal and economic dilemmas They challenge the paradigms of constitutionalism including the State s monopoly of constitutionalism the autonomy of national political communities and the traditional forms of participation and representation The phenomena of globalisation and regional forms of governance have promoted the inter dependence of national political communities and destroyed the artificial boundaries upon which national constitutional democracies are found and from which they derive their legitimacy Furthermore it is inevitable that the development of international trade and economic integration will raise claims for some form of global distributive justice to complement the wealth maximisation arising from free trade This will come from the gradual development of global forms of political discourse and law making challenging State constitutionalism and requiring some of the instruments and theories of constitutionalism The essays in this collection written by leading scholars in international trade law argue the pros and cons of greater regional and global regulation They conclude that whatever the final framework for international trade the critical decisions about institutional form and content will be decided in an emerging global political arena They help to identify this political arena who governs it and according to which rules and identify the different institutional alternatives in that global political arena

State of Corruption, State of Chaos Michaelene Cox,2008-01-01 State of Corruption State of Chaos provides a base of knowledge upon which critical analyses on the nature and causes of violence can draw Studies in this volume were selected for their unique contributions to the rich and growing literature on corruption and conflict

Writing the North of England in the Middle Ages Joseph Taylor,2022-12-22 Writing the North of England in the Middle Ages offers a literary history of the North South divide examining the complexities of the relationship imaginative material and political between North and South in a wide range of texts Through sustained analysis of the North South divide as it emerges in the literature of medieval England this study illustrates the convoluted dynamic of desire and derision of the North by the rest of country Joseph Taylor dissects England s problematic sense of nationhood as one which must be negotiated and renegotiated from within rather than beyond national borders Providing fresh readings of texts such as Chaucer s Canterbury Tales the fifteenth century Robin Hood ballads and the Towneley plays this book argues for the North s vital contribution to processes of imagining nation in the Middle Ages and shows that that regionalism is both contained within and constitutive of its apparent opposite nationalism

Comparative Regionalism Fred H. Lawson,2017-03-02 Regionalism has regained momentum in the post Cold War era New economic groupings continue to spring up across the globe while older regional organizations have strengthened their institutional bases and broadened their scope Explaining the reinvigoration of regionalism requires comparative analyses that not only highlight the commonalities that characterize various regional experiments but also account for the differential outcomes and divergent trajectories such projects exhibit This collection of seminal articles on regionalism advances theoretical concepts that can stimulate useful comparisons along with scholarly surveys of important instances of regionalism in the contemporary world Besides classic studies of the European Union the volume includes authoritative overviews and case studies of regionalist projects in East Asia Sub Saharan Africa Latin America the Middle East and Central Eurasia An introductory essay situates these articles in the context of the five decade long research program on regional integration theory Regionalism and Governance in the Americas L. Fawcett, M. Serrano, 2005-08-25 This book links contemporary thinking on global and regional governance to the recent experience of the Americas It offers fresh insights into understanding the processes of order and change in the region and in the broader international system A particular concern is to reveal the changing contours of regional governance whether in terms of actors issue areas and relations with global structures Geographies of England Alan R. H. Baker, Mark Billinge, 2004-06-24 This is the pioneering exploration of the history of a fundamentally geographical concept the North South divide of England Six essays treating different historical periods in time are integrated by two geographical questions and a concluding essay reviews the social construction of England Microregionalism and World Order S. Breslin, G. Hook, 2016-01-19 Microregionalism and World Order is a pioneering work on the least understood aspect of regionalism Leading specialists analyze the form microregionalism takes in different parts of the world including the Americas Asia Pacific and Africa By illustrating the complex relationship amongst the political economic and social dimensions of microregionalism the book seeks to contribute to the theoretical debate on regionalism as well as to provide new empirical insights Inequalities in the UK David Fée, Anémone Kober-Smith, 2017-11-17 This book addresses the question of the extent of and responses to inequalities in the UK in 2017 in the wake of the 2008 Great Recession and provides an up to date account of the distribution of inequalities the evolving ways they are measured addressed as well as the changing perception of inequalities by the general public and policy makers The New Politics of Regionalism Ulf Engel, Heidrun Zinecker, Frank Mattheis, Antje Dietze, Thomas Plötze, 2016-10-04 This edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order Since the end of the Cold War different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects This volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels The chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the Global South specifically concentrating on regional projects in Latin America and Africa but also in the Asia Pacific They attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions The volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world By expanding beyond the perspective of North South transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions This volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on Latin America and Africa
