Regions of Memory William Stanley Merwin, Ed Folsom, 1987 Zoopoetics Aaron M. Moe, 2013-12-19 Zoopoetics assumes Aristotle was right The general origin of poetry resides in part in the instinct to imitate But it is an innovative imitation An exploration of the oeuvres of Walt Whitman E E Cummings W S Merwin and Brenda Hillman reveals the many places where an imitation of another species poiesis Greek makings contributes to breakthroughs in poetic form However humans are not the only imitators in the animal kingdom Other species too achieve breakthroughs in their makings through an attentiveness to the ways of being of other animals For this reason mimic octopi elephants beluga whales and many other species join the exploration of what zoopoetics encompasses Zoopoetics provides further traction for people interested in the possibilities when and where species meet Gestures are paramount to zoopoetics Through the interplay of gestures the human animal textual spheres merge making it possible to recognize how actual biological animals impact the material makings of poetry Moreover as many species are makers zoopoetics expands the poetic tradition to include nonhuman poiesis

Ecocriticism and the Poiesis of Form Aaron Moe, 2019-02-14 Ecocriticism and the Poiesis of Form Holding on to Proteus demonstrates how a fractal imagination helps one hold the form of a poem within the reaches of Deep Time and it explores the kinship between the hazy liminal moment when Sound becomes Syllable and the hazy liminal moment when the sage energy of the Atom made a leap toward the gaze of the first cell to echo Merwin Moe distills his methodology as follows My work I point asserted the aphorism That's what I do To point the project integrates a wide range of interdisciplinary ideas including biosemiotics fractals phi trauma theory the Mandelbrot Set hyperobjects meditative chants Goethe's morphology

Ramanujan's summation a spiderweb's sonic properties and Thoreau's sense of the plant-like burgeoning force of an Atom in order to open up multiple trajectories In this context the volume foregrounds the insights of poets-storytellers including Hillman Snyder Anzaldúa EEC Okpik Whitman Dickinson Gladding Melville Morrison and Toomer for they are most attentive to that liminal moment when the vibratory hum in language and in the cosmos turns kinetic As this volume draws on a wide range of writers from many backgrounds it allows the myriad voices to engage with one another across differences in race gender and ethnicity These writers show us how to echo Dickinson the Freight Of a delivered Syllable can split and how the energy unleashed came from and points us back toward the energy unmaking the forms of Gaia The starting point for discussing the energy of a poem can no longer begin with the human rather Holding on explores how the poem's energy is but a sliver of a hyperobject massively distributed throughout the cosmos a sage energy that brings forth form

S. Merwin's Poetry Feng Dong, 2021-12-15 In the first monograph on W S Merwin to appear since his death in 2019 Feng Dong focuses on the dialectical movement of desire and infinity that ensouls the poet's entire oeuvre His analysis foregrounds what Merwin calls the other side of despair the opposite of humans articulated personal and social agonies Feng finds these presences in Merwin's evocations of what lingers on the edge of constantly updated socio symbolic frameworks surreal encounters spiritual ecstasies and abyssal freedoms By examining Merwin's lifelong engagement with psychic fantasies anonymous holiness entities both natural and supernatural and ghostly ancestors Feng uncovers a precarious relation with the unarticulated unrealized side of existence Drawing on theories from Lacan i ek Levinas and Heidegger Desire and Infinity in W S Merwin's Poetry reads a metaphysical possibility into the poet's work at the intersection between contemporary poetics philosophy and psychoanalysis From Outlaw to Classic Alan Golding, 2009-08-26 From Outlaw to Classic presents a sweeping history of the forces that have shaped and continue to shape the American poetry canon Students scholars critics and poets will welcome this enlightening and impressively documented book Recent writings by critics and theorists on literary canons have dealt almost exclusively with prose Alan Golding shows that like all canons those of American poetry are characterized by conflict Choosing a series of varied but representative instances he analyzes battles and contentions among poets anthologists poetry magazine editors and schools of thought in university English departments The chapters present a history of American poetry anthologies compare competing models of canon formation the aesthetic poet centered and the institutional critic centered discuss the influence of the New Critics emphasizing their status as practicing poets their anti nationalist reading of American poetry and the landmark textbook Understanding Poetry by Cleanth Brooks and Robert Penn Warren examine the canonizing effects of an experimental little magazine Origin trace how the Language poets address in both their theory and their method the canonizing institutions and canonical assumptions of the age The West Side of Any Mountain J. Scott Bryson, 2005-04-01 In contrast to nature poets of the past who tended more toward the bucolic and pastoral many contemporary nature poets are taking up radical environmental and ecological themes In the last few years interesting and evocative work that examines this poetry has begun to lay the foundation for studies in ecopoetics Informed in general by current thinking in environmental theory and specifically by the work of cultural geographer Yi Fu Tuan The West Side of Any Mountain participates in and furthers this scholarly attention by offering an overarching theoretical framework with which to approach the field One area that contemporary theorists have found problematic is the dualistic civilization wilderness binary that focuses on the divisions between culture and nature thereby increasing the modern sense of alienation Tuan's place space framework offers a succinct vocabulary for describing the attitudes of ecological poets and other nature writers in a way that avoids setting up an adversarial relationship between place and space Scott Bryson describes the Tuanian framework and employs it to offer fresh readings of the work of four major ecopoets Wendell Berry Joy Harjo Mary Oliver and W S Merwin The West Side of Any Mountain will be of great interest to scholars and teachers working in the field of contemporary nature poetry It is recommended for nature writing courses as well as classes dealing with 20th century poetry contemporary literary criticism and environmental theory Modern literature Swann Galleries (New York), 1928

S. Merwin Harold Bloom, 2009 A comprehensive research and study guide to five of the poems of W S Merwin This Is My Body Thomas J.
