An essential reference for nursing students in developing and implementing the competencies necessary in caring for critically ill patients Synergy for Clinical Excellence The AACN Synergy Model for Patient Care enhances the understanding of The Synergy Model in practice Based on a decade of work by the American Association of Critical Care Nurses the text encompasses the history and development of the nurse and patient characteristic inherent in The Synergy Model and then thoroughly addresses each characteristic individually and applies the model in practice Includes sample test questions relevant to the model that will assist nursing students in preparing for certification through AACN and provide further examples of the integration of the Synergy Model in practice The Perinatal Nurse's Guide to Avoiding a Lawsuit Patricia M. Connors, 2009 In The Perinatal Nurse's Guide to Avoiding a Lawsuit Pat Connors shares her 10 years of experience and the expertise she acquired working as a legal nurse consultant and nurse expert Working with both plaintiff and defense attorneys combined with 40 years as a perinatal nurse affords her a unique ability to educate perinatal nurses as to factors that might lead them to become involved in the dreaded LAWSUIT At one time physicians were considered the captain of the ship and nurses were expected to do little more than take and follow orders Today's nurses well educated autonomous and expected to possess critical thinking skills now often find themselves responsible for many tasks once assigned to physicians The complexity of maternal child nursing has placed higher demands for assessment and vigilance This book targets those areas that make perinatal nurses vulnerable to and prime targets for a lawsuit The Perinatal Nurse's Guide to Avoiding a Lawsuit is replete with case studies and resources highlighting areas of litigation for which perinatal nurses are at greatest risk and addresses strategies to reduce those risks Legal Issues in School Health Services Nadine Schwab, 2005-07
