Rehabilitation Administration And Supervision:

Rehabilitation Administration and Supervision William George Emener, Richard S. Luck, Stanley J. Smits, 1981-01-01

Readings in Rehabilitation Administration T.F. Riggart, J.R. Lorenz, 1985-01-01 Readings in Rehabilitation Administration fills the gap in the training of human service administrators and managers. The selections reflect the growing needs, trends, and new requirements that directly affect the human services at both the national and local levels. This text meets the needs of those innovative educators who are responsive to the needs of students in the human resource field and the disabled. While practitioners are well trained in their field, many have little or no education or training for the management roles they assume. Readings in Rehabilitation Administration provides for the first time a curriculum content to prepare new administrators. The articles included cover a wide range of not only current trends but classic topics which have passed the test of time. An extensive bibliography categorizes rehabilitation administration management articles published during the past decade.

Principles and Practices for First-line Supervisors in Rehabilitation Study Group on Principles and Practices for Effective First-Line Supervision in Rehabilitation Counseling, 1971 Principles and Practices for First-line Supervisors in Rehabilitation; a Report from the Study Group on Principles and Practices for Effective First-Line Supervision in Rehabilitation Counseling ... Eighth Institute on Rehabilitation Services, May 17, 20, 1970, St. Louis, Missouri United States. Rehabilitation Services Administration, 1971 The Professional Practice of Rehabilitation Counseling, Second Edition Vilia M. Tarvydas, Michael Hartley, 2017-07-26 Revised to reflect radical changes in the field and their impact on professional practice. Now updated and substantially revised to reflect the CORE CACREP merger and fundamental changes in the field, this comprehensive graduate-level second edition textbook articulates the complementary relationship between rehabilitation and mental health counseling and how it impacts professional practice. New information is introduced to address the increasing diversity of current and emerging job titles, duties, and settings, as well as to reframe existing content to better prepare rehabilitation counselors for navigating a continually shifting health care system. The second edition defines rehabilitation counseling as a specialty area of the broader counseling profession and introduces psychiatric rehabilitation as a bridge to understanding the intersection of traditional rehabilitation and mental health counseling. It emphasizes recovery-based models and describes evidence-based research supporting the effectiveness of psychosocial interventions. Esteemed experts also address specific job functions related to assessment, credentialing, counseling, case management, advocacy, and career development. Four completely new chapters cover the fundamental concepts and models that underpin rehabilitation counseling, the evidence-based competencies that constitute rehabilitation counseling practice, and the specialized practices of forensic rehabilitation and psychiatric rehabilitation. New and Key Features: Reflects the CORE CACREP merger and its impact upon rehabilitation counseling. Conceptualizes rehabilitation counseling and its complementary relationship to counseling. Includes new chapters on fundamental elements of rehabilitation counseling.
