Relationships Whats At Issue S:

Issues in Science and Theology: What is Life? Dirk Evers, Michael Fuller, Antje Jackelén, Knut-Willy Sæther, 2015-06-03
This book explores the concept of Life from a range of perspectives Divided into three parts it first examines the concept of Life from physics to biology It then presents insights on the concept from the perspectives of philosophy theology and ethics The book concludes with chapters on the hermeneutics of Life and pays special attention to the Biosemiotics approach to the concept The question What is Life has been deliberated by the greatest minds throughout human history Life as we know it is not a substance or fundamental property but a complex process It is not an easy task to develop an unequivocal approach towards Life combining scientific semiotic philosophical theological and ethical perspectives In its combination of these perspectives and its wide ranging scope this book opens up levels and identifies issues which can serve as intersections for meaningful interdisciplinary discussions of Life in its different aspects The book includes the four plenary lectures and selected revised and extended papers from workshops of the 14th European Conference on Science and Theology ECST XIV held in Tartu Estonia April 2012 Financial Issues and Millennials' Partnered Relationships Satisfaction Dr. Wisler Antoine, 2020-11-06 The purpose of this study is to establish the relationship between financial issues and millennials partnered relationships satisfaction Furthermore in the analysis of this topic there are three main financial issues being discussed These financial issues are the following financial management financial problem and financial distress These were used as the determining factors in assessing the level of satisfaction for millennials partnered relationships The quantitative method was used in this study by carefully selecting 385 participants whose ages range from 25 36 years old Provided that they had stayed together for at least three years these millennial participants were randomly picked from the United States of America USA In the course of this study variables including their gender educational level and income were the primary focus The results revealed that 90% of the selected millennials in partnered relationships who did not adopt the policy of financial management ended up having financial problems which eventually led them into financial distress From the results obtained it was concluded that in order for the millennials in partnered relationships to have a successful financial satisfaction they have to and ought to know how to manage their finances well Managing one s finances efficiently would definitely help in reducing our financial problems which in turn might reduce financial distress and the couples can enjoy a high level of financial satisfaction with their relationships Addressing Cultural Issues in Organizations Robert T. Carter, 2000 Analyzing how unexamined cultural patterns influence an organization s culture this book provides conceptual models and ideas about how to build practical approaches to organizational interventions The contributors focus on the broad issues such as how organizational leaders shape and influence the agenda surrounding culture cover institutional and organizational issues in corporate educational mental health and service organizations and discuss various organizational intervention strategies and approaches Boundary Issues and Dual Relationships in the Human Services Frederic G.

Reamer,2020-11-24 Should a therapist disclose personal information to a client accept a client s gift or provide a former client with a job Is it appropriate to exchange e mail or text messages with clients or correspond with them on social networking websites Some acts such as initiating a sexual relationship with a client are clearly prohibited yet what about more subtle interactions such as hugging or accepting invitations to a social event Is maintaining a friendship with a former client or a client s relative a conflict of interest Frederic G Reamer offers a frank analysis of a range of boundary issues that human service practitioners may confront He confronts the ethics of intimate relationships with clients and former clients the healthy parameters of practitioners self disclosure the giving and receiving of gifts and favors and the unavoidable and unanticipated circumstances of social encounters and geographical proximity With case studies addressing challenges in the mental health field school contexts child welfare addiction programs home health care elder services and prison rural and military settings Reamer offers effective practical risk management models that prevent problems and help balance dual relationships Since the publication of the previous edition of Boundary Issues and Dual Relationships in the Human Services in 2012 digital technology has transformed how human service professionals deliver services to clients This third edition brings the book up to date adding discussion of the ways in which practitioners online communications and technology based relationships with clients can violate ethical standards and providing practical advice for how to resolve boundary issues
