Relearning the Alphabet Denise Levertov, Thomas Ingham, 1991

Selected Poems Denise Levertov, 2013-05-01

Denise Levertov's Selected Poems delivers in a single accessible volume one of the essential poets of our time. Poetry Flash Culled from two dozen poetry books and drawing from six decades of her writing life, The Selected Poems of Denise Levertov offers a chronological overview of her great body of work. It is splendid and impressive to have at last a clear unobstructed view of her ground-breaking poetry, the work of a poet who, as Kenneth Rexroth put it, more than anyone led the redirection of American poetry to the mainstream of world literature. Described by Publishers Weekly as at once as intimate as Creeley and as visionary as Duncan, Levertov was lauded as one of the indispensable poets of our language, one of those few writers to whom it is necessary to pay attention. By The Malahat Review, no poet is more overdue for a single accessible volume; no career could be better to have within easy reach.

Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov's social verse, she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement. Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war, revealed in her first published poem, Listening to Distant Guns. During the mid 1960s, Levertov's social conscience, notably her strong antiwar sentiment, was reawakened by the Vietnam War. This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings, often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive. There exists a common thread in Levertov's pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world; she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience.

The Female Autograph Donna C. Stanton, 1987 These original essays comprise a fascinating investigation into women's strategies for writing the self, constructing the female subject through autobiography, memoirs, letters, and diaries. The collection contains theoretical essays by Donna Stanton, Sandra Gilbert, and Susan Gilbert, and Susan Gubar chapters on specific issues raised by women's autographs, such as Richard Bowering's study of tenth-century Japanese diaries or Janel Mueller's on The Book of Margery Kempe, and annotated autobiographical fragments including texts by Julia Kristeva by a woman who became a czarist cavalry officer and by a contemporary Palestinian poet. There are also chapters on the seventeenth-century painter Artemisia Gentileschi, Mme de Sévigné, Mendelssohn's sister Fanny Hensel, the black minister Jarena Lee, Virginia Woolf, and Eva Perón. The result is a conversation between writers and critics across cultural and temporal boundaries. Stanton's essay plays off Virginia Woolf's A Room of One's Own; Kristeva begins with a reading of de Beauvoir while a self-published French woman writes to defend the joys of family life against the author of Memoirs of a Dutiful Daughter.

The Letters of Robert Duncan and Denise Levertov Robert Edward Duncan, Robert J. Bertholf, Albert Gelpi, 2004 This volume presents the complete correspondence between two of the most important and influential American poets of the postwar period. The almost 500 letters range widely over the poetry scene and the issues that made the period so lively and productive But what gives the exchange its special personal and literary resonance is the sense of spiritual affinity and shared conviction about the power of the visionary imagination Duncan and Levertov explore these matters in rich detail until under the stress of dealing with the Vietnam War in poetry they discover deep seated differences in the religious and ethical convictions underlying their politics and poetic stance The issues that drew them together and those that drove them apart create a powerful personal drama with far reaching historical and cultural significance The editors have provided a critical Introduction full notes a chronology and a glossary of names

The Collected Poems of Denise Levertov Denise Levertov, 2024-02-21 The landmark collected work of one of the greatest poets of the 20th century now in paperback How splendid and impressive to have a complete clear and unobstructed view of Denise Levertov Covering more than six decades and including chronologically every poem she ever published Levertov's Collected Poems presents her marvelous groundbreaking work in full Born in England Denise Levertov emigrated in 1948 to the United States where she was acclaimed by Kenneth Rexroth in The New York Times as the most subtly skillful poet of her generation the most profound the most modest the most moving A staunch anti war activist and environmentalist and the winner of the Robert Frost Medal the Shelley Memorial Award and the Lannan Prize Denise Levertov inspired generations of writers New Directions is proud to publish this landmark collected poems of one of the twentieth century's greatest poets

Gilbert,Susan Gubar,1979 Early Postmodernism Paul A. Bové,1995 In the decade that followed 1972 the journal boundary 2 consistently published many of the most distinguished and most influential statements of an emerging literary postmodernism Recognizing postmodernism as a dominant force in culture particularly in the literary and narrative imagination the journal appeared when literary critical study in the United States was in a period of theory induced ferment The fundamental relations between postmodernism and poststructuralism were being initially examined and the effort to formulate a critical sense of the postmodern was underway In this volume Paul A Bové the current editor of boundary 2 has gathered many of those foundational essays and as such has assembled a basic text in the history of postmodernism Essays by noted cultural and literary theorists join with Bové's contemporary preface to represent the important and unique moment in recent intellectual history when postmodernism was no longer seen primarily as an architectural term had not yet come to describe the wide range of culture it does now but was finding power and place in the literary realm These essays show that the history of postmodernism and its attendant critical theories are both more complex and more deeply bound with literary criticism than often is acknowledged today Early Postmodernism demonstrates not only the significance of these literary studies but also the role played by literary critical postmodernism in making possible newer forms of critical and cultural studies Contributors Barry Alpert Charles Altieri David Antin Harold Bloom Paul A Bové Hélène Cixous Gerald Gillespie Ihab Hassan Joseph N Riddel William V Spanos Catharine R Stimpson Cornel West Lyric Philosophy Jan Zwicky,2014-02-24 In this ground breaking study on the nature of philosophy Jan Zwicky demonstrates how much of potential philosophical significance is lost if our notion of meaningful language is constrained by narrow concepts of analytic rigour Her aim is not to dismiss the role of analysis in philosophy rather she strives to augment its resources and thereby give to philosophy a voice with greater range and integrity Two parallel texts on facing pages run through the book The primary one is Zwicky s which begins with a critique of existing criteria for defining a work as philosophy and then develops the notion of lyric in its relation to two other key terms technology and domesticity She finishes with an exploration of meaning form and content in lyric contexts The parallel text consists of quotations from other authors It serves as commentary on illustration of and reaction to the main text as a way of acknowledging intellectual debts and as a way of providing an historical context for some of the main text s claims Highly original in its thought and presentation Zwicky s discussion makes an exciting contribution to contemporary philosophy forging new connections and expanding old boundaries A Poet's Revolution Donna
