Ella Fitzgerald J. Wilfred Johnson, 2001-01-10 Ella Fitzgerald was one of America's greatest jazz singers. This volume is as complete a discography of her recorded songs as currently seems possible to compile. This volume also contains a complete discography 1927-1939 for drummer and bandleader Chick Webb with whom Ella began her recording career in 1935. Part One includes a chronological listing of all known recorded performances of both Chick Webb and Ella. Part Two gives the complete contents of Ella's LPs and CDs including track listings, titles with lyricists and composers, and timings. Part Three is an annotated alphabetical listing of all songs contained on all of Fitzgerald's records with detailed information on each song's composer, lyricist, and history. Reviews of the movies in which Ella appeared and surveys of her career with the Decca, Verve, and Pablo music companies are included. The book also has an index of album and CD recordings and composers, lyricists, and musicians.

Love's Privilege Stella M. Düring, 1909 The Justus Scrolls Paul David Morris, 2013-03 Rejected by God or called to an uncommon path. The eleven apostles cast lots to determine whom the Holy Spirit would pick to replace Judas Iscariot. He must be someone who had been with Jesus the whole time. That left either Joseph bar Sabbas, called Justus, or Matthias. The stones were cast, and the lot fell to Matthias. Even so, Justus wouldn't be denied his dream. He had mingled among the disciples for more than three years. He had been close to Jesus, held private conversations with him, and had laughed with him. He'd slept around the same campfires, visited the same homes, and eaten at the same tables. Now Justus would chart a new path. He would reveal everything he knew about his Lord from the viewpoint of a privileged witness. Justus began to write. What was it like to be near Jesus in everyday situations or to see him in action in his greatest moments? Did Jesus have a childhood best friend? How did he relate to his fish-breathed disciples? What did he feel when the crowd cried out for his death? Justus logged all of this in a series of scrolls and began a journey to house the treasure at the great library in Alexandria, Egypt. Perhaps someday they would be seen.

Christians Who Counsel Ray S. Anderson, 2010-11-01 How does one view Christian counseling as a calling? What is the role and task of the counselor from a theological perspective? How does one strip away the ambiguity that is too often inherent in the words therapy and counseling in a religious setting Ray S Anderson has written this book as a theologian with a keen interest in helping Christian counselors fulfill their task more effectively by enabling them to see that task more clearly Too often even counselors who achieve effective results are beset by what Anderson calls an uneasy conscience the realization that for some reason a little transactional analysis once a week works better than a month of Sundays in curing the souls of troubled parishioners This book seeks to put that uneasiness and ambiguity to rest by helping counselors see their work as a means of grace rooted in a model of personhood that is both theologically and psychologically sound for realizing the full potential of each person Christians Who Counsel has three parts involving building a foundation for Christian counseling exploring the spiritual dynamics in counseling and describing counseling in a distinctly Christian mode Written without either theological or psychological jargon this book is for all Christians who counsel whether pastors lay counselors psychotherapists or family therapists With clarity of vision comes the power of a renewed commitment

Religion and Charity Robert P. Weller, C. Julia Huang, Keping Wu, Lizhu Fan, 2017-10-26 Free markets alone do not work effectively to solve certain kinds of human problems such as education, old age care, or disaster relief. Nor have markets ever been the sole solution to the psychological challenges of death, suffering, or injustice. Instead, we find a major role for the non-market institutions of society: the family, the state, and social institutions. The first in-depth anthropological study of charities in contemporary Chinese societies, this book focuses on the unique ways that religious groups have helped to solve the problems of social well-being. Using comparative case studies in China, Taiwan, and Malaysia during the 1980s and onwards, it identifies new forms of religious philanthropy as well as new ideas of social good, including different forms of political merit-making, new forms of civic selfhood, and the rise of innovative social forms including increased leadership by women. The book finally argues that the spread of these ideas is an incomplete process with many alternative notions of goodness continuing to be influential.
