Culture in the Third World Jeff Haynes,2016-07-27 A unique focus on the relationship between religion and political culture in the Third World using a comparative and thematic approach Specific issues of religion politics interaction in the Third World in recent times include the rise of Islamic fundamentalist groups throughout the Middle East and other parts of the Muslim world the political effects of the decline of Catholicism and the rapid growth of Protestant evangelical sects in Latin America communal conflict between Hindu nationalist groups and the politicisation of Buddhism in South East Asia The common effect of such developments is to challenge existing forms of relationship between states and societies with religion used as a political resource Constellations of Value Christoph Jedan,2013 In Western public discourse there is a long tradition of opposing secular and religious values In consequence religion has been increasingly excluded from the public domain and relegated to the realm of personal motivation From different perspectives this present collection of essays shows

Political Violence in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Jonathan Fine,2015-03-26 Religious political violence is by no means a new phenomenon yet there are critical differences between the various historical instances of such violence and its more current permutations Since the mid 1970s religious fundamentalist movements have been seeking to influence world order by participating in local political systems For example Islamic fundamentalism is at the heart of the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt the Christian fundamental right wing has seen a resurgence in Europe and Jewish fundamentalism is behind the actions of Meir Kahane s Kach movement and the settler movement The shift in recent years from secular to religious political violence necessitates a reevaluation of contemporary political violence and of the concept of religious violence This text analyzes the evolution of religious political violence in both historical and contemporary perspectives Since religious political violence events are usually associated with the term terrorism the book first analyzes the origins of this controversial term and its religious manifestations It then outlines and highlights the differences between secular and religious political violence on ideological strategic and tactical levels before comparing the concept of Holy War in Judaism Christianity and Islam Lastly it shows how modern radical monotheistic religious groups interpret and manipulate their religious sources and ideas to advocate their political agendas including the practice of violence A unique comparative study of religious political violence across Judaism Islam and Christianity this text features many international case studies from the Crusades to the Arab Spring

Modernity, Religion, and the War on Terror Professor Richard Dien Winfield,2013-05-28 The war on terror cannot be truly understood without investigating the legitimacy of modernity the challenge that religion presents to modernization the inescapable conflicts attending the emergence and expansion of modernity and the post colonial predicament from which Islamist reaction arises Richard Dien Winfield illuminates the war on terror in light of these issues presenting an anti foundationalist justification of the rationality and freedom of modernity while assessing how religion can stand in opposition to modernity and why Islam has been a privileged vehicle of anti modern religious revolt Winfield shows that the privatization that religion must undergo to be compatible with modern freedom involves no capitulation to relativism but rather is a theological imperative on which the truth of religion depends Exposing the limits of any purely secular modernization of Islam Winfield shows how Islam can draw upon its core tradition to repudiate the oppression of Islamist reaction and become at home in the modern world
