Peninsula Michel Jacq-Hergoualc'h, 2018-12-24 This book attempts to evaluate the role of the Malay Peninsula as a crossroads in the great wave of commercial relationships along the maritime Silk Road from the first centuries of the Christian era to the 14th century Through these exchanges representatives of all the civilizations of Asia entered into contact along its shores They left in this place a part of themselves as can be seen in the great stylistic diversity of the religious and commercial artefacts which have been found in the area These artefacts have been analysed and categorized afresh in the light of more precise information provided in Chinese texts concerning the nature of the political entities developing at the time often dynamic city states or more modest chiefdoms The Dvāravatī Wheels of the Law and the Indianization of South

East Asia Robert L. Brown, 2023-12-28 This volume deals with a unique group of stone sculptures representations of the Buddha s Wheel of the Law found in present day Thailand that date from about the seventh eighth centuries CE The book places these sculptures in their historical religious and art historical contexts to determine what they meant to the culture called Dv ravat that produced them Thus other art historical material associated with the Wheels including stone deer Buddha images and stupas are discussed Of greatest importance is how these sculptures relate to both the art in Cambodia and that in India and to determine what these relationships can tell us about the process called Indianization by which Indian culture religion and art were adapted in Southeast Asia Lost Kingdoms: Hindu-Buddhist Sculpture of Early
