The Sculpture of Robyn Horn Robyn Horn, 2018-09-01 In Robyn Horn's thirty years as a wood sculptor her work has evolved from small lathe turned objects to ten foot high redwood compositions like her Already Set in Motion 1170 which graces a garden at the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art In creating these forms that rise from the earth at improbable angles Horn's primary tool is the chainsaw and yet a tenderness for her medium reveals itself in the delicate balance of planes that allows her sculptures to both loom and flow visually indicating that they are precarious when in fact they are sturdy The essays and images in The Sculpture of Robyn Horn sketch the industrious career of this Little Rock Arkansas based sculptor illuminating her attention to geometry physics and the philosophy of design and exploring the context and origin of the various series Geodes Millstones Standing Stones and Slipping Stones among others that characterize her body of work

From Head to Hand David Levi Strauss, 2010-02-11 In his third book Strauss delves into the mysterious process whereby an idea is born in the mind and materialized through the hand in the expression of an artwork How exactly does this happen It s a question so basic an act so fundamental to art making that it has rarely received attention It makes an ideal topic for Strauss a writer with an exceptional ability to animate art s philosophical dimensions in a clear persuasive manner During this time when craft and the direct manipulation of materials by the artist appear to be in eclipse Strauss comes to their defense in a spirited cri de coeur Featuring over 35 illustrations the book examines a wide variety of media and individual examples It explores the works of sculptors Martin Puryear Ursula von Rydingsvard and Donald Lipski painters Leon Golub and Ron Gorchov and writers Robert Duncan Robert Kelly Guy Davenport John Berger and Leo Steinberg In addition there are essays on Joseph Beuys s 7000 Oaks in Ireland contemporary Haida carvers Reg Davidson and Jim Hart Cecilia Vicu a s memory of the fingers and the influence of curators Harald Szeemann and Walter Hopps on the staging of contemporary art exhibitions Known primarily for his writings on photography and politics Strauss here focuses on the least mediated arts painting sculpture and writing His claims are supported by a series of close readings which succeed in recovering the immediacy of the hand and revitalizing contemporary art s connection to the past
