Sculpture Safaris Heinz Mack,Thomas Höpker,1977 The Messages of Tourist Art Bennetta Jules-Rosette,2013-04-17 Tourist art may be a billion dollar business Nevertheless such art is despised What is worse the bad culture is seen as driving out the good Commercialization is assumed to destroy traditional arts and crafts replacing them with junk The process is seen as demeaning to artists in the traditional societies who are seduced into a type of whoredom unfeeling production of false beauty for money The arts remain problematic for the social sciences Sociology textbooks treat the arts as subordinate reflections of social forces norms or groups Anthropology textbooks conventionally isolate the arts in a separate chapter failing to integrate them with analyses of kinship economics politics language or biology Textbooks reflect the guiding theories which emphasize such factors as modes of production patterns of thought or biological and normative constraints but their authors have not adequately formulated the aesthetic dimension One may compare the theoretical status of the arts to that of religion After the contributions by Emile Durkheim and Max Weber the sociology of religion is well established but where is a Durkheim or Weber for the sociology of art What is true of the social sciences in general holds for understanding of modernization in the Third World These processes and those places are analyzed economically politically and socially but the aesthetic dimension is treated in isolation if at all and is poorly grasped in relation to the other forces

Girlfriend Getaways Pam Grout,2005 Safari Based Theology Dr. Enos Lwamba,2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines
