Werness, 2006-01-01 Animals and their symbolism in diverse world cultures and different eras of human history are chronicled in this lovely volume The Paintings and Drawings of John Dos Passos: A Collection and Study Donald Pizer, Lisa Nanney, Richard Layman, 2016-10-24 The Paintings and Drawings of John Dos Passos A Collection and Study presents for the first time a comprehensive fully illustrated record and exploration of the body of visual art created by the groundbreaking narrative innovator whose interartistic fictions helped define early twentieth century modernism Old Sea Paintings Edward Keble Chatterton, 1928 With fifteen illustrations in colour and ninety five in black and white mainly from the Macpherson collection Image of the Sea Howard F. Isham, 2004 This book explores the unprecedented surge or oceanic feeling in the aesthetic expression of the romantic century As secular thought began to displace the certainties of a sacral universe the oceans that give life to our planet offered a symbol of eternity rooted in the experience of nature rather than Biblical tradition Images of the sea permeated the minds of the early Romantics became a significant ingredient of romantic expression and continued to emerge in the language literature art and music of the nineteenth century These pages document the evidence for this oceanic consciousness in some of the most creative minds of that century

A Theory of the Tache in Nineteenth-Century Painting ?stein Sj?ad,2017-07-05 Without question the tache blot patch stain is a central and recurring motif in nineteenth century modernist painting Manet s and the Impressionists rejection of academic finish produced a surface where the strokes of paint were presented directly as patches or blots then indirectly as legible signs C nne Seurat and Signac painted exclusively with patches or dots Through a series of close readings this book looks at the tache as one of the most important features in nineteenth century modernism The tache is a potential meeting point between text and image and a pure trace of the artist s body Even though each manifestation of tacheism generates its own specific cultural effects this book represents the first time a scholar has looked at tacheism as a hidden continuum within modern art With a methodological framework drawn from the semiotics of text and image the author introduces a much needed fine tuning to the classic terms index symbol and icon The concept of the tache as a crossing of sign types enables finer distinctions and observations than have been available thus far within the Peircean tradition The sign crossing theory opens onto the whole terrain of interaction between visual art art criticism literature philosophy and psychology

Art and Identity at the Water's Edge Tricia Cusack,2017-07-05 The water s edge whether shore or riverbank is a marginal territory that becomes invested with layers of meaning The essays in this collection present intriguing perspectives on how the water s edge has been imagined and represented in different places at various times and how this process contributed to the formation of social identities Art and Identity at the Water s Edge focuses upon national coastlines and maritime heritage on rivers and seashore as regions of liminality and sites of conflicting identities and on the edge as a tourist setting Such themes are related to diverse forms of art including painting architecture maps photography and film Topics range from the South African seaside resort of Durban to the French Riviera The essays explore successive ideological mappings of the Jordan River and how Czech cubist architecture and painting shaped a new nationalist reading of the Vltava riverbanks They examine post Hurricane Katrina New Orleans as a filmic spectacle that questions assumptions about American identity and the coast depicted as a site of patriotism in nineteenth century British painting The collection demonstrates how waterside structures such as maritime museums and lighthouses and visual images of the water s edge have contributed to the construction of cultural and national identities
