Sea Came In At Midnight B Fo:

The Manchurian Candidate Greil Marcus, 2020-05-14 It may be the most sophisticated political thriller ever made in Hollywood film critic Pauline Kael wrote of John Frankenheimer's terrifying 1962 political thriller about an American serviceman brainwashed in Korea and made into an assassin Sophisticated to be sure it's also a headlong fall through the looking glass of American politics and the most deeply prophetic film of the second half of the American century As Greil Marcus reconstructs the drama The Manchurian Candidate is a movie in which the director and actors including Laurence Harvey Frank Sinatra and Angela Lansbury in an Academy Award nominated performance were suddenly capable of anything beyond any expectations This edition includes a new foreword highlighting the movie's terrifying contemporary relevance in the age of Trump and Russian interference in the US Presidential election British Film Institute Film Classics Rob White, Edward Buscombe, 2003 Directors in British and Irish Cinema Robert Murphy, 2019-07-25 A guide to directors who have worked in the British and Irish film industries between 1895 and 2005 Each of its 980 entries on individuals directors gives a resume of the director's career evaluates their achievements and provides a complete filmography It is useful for those interested in film making in Britain and Ireland The BFI Companion to Horror British Film Institute, 1996 A handbook of horror cinema Mary Pickford Christel Schmidt, 2012-11-01 Explains Pickford's roles as not only a talented actress but also as a philanthropist and industry leader who managed to end up her own producer Time Out In the early days of cinema when actors were unbilled and unmentioned in credits audiences immediately noticed Mary Pickford Moviegoers everywhere were riveted by her magnetic talent and appeal as she rose to become cinema's first great star In this engaging collection co published with the Library of Congress an eminent group of film historians sheds new light on this icon's incredible life and legacy Pickford emerges from the pages in vivid detail revealed as a gifted actress a philanthropist and a savvy industry leader who fought for creative control of her films and ultimately became her own producer With extensive photos and illustrations this book paints a fascinating portrait of a key figure in American cinematic history Includes over 200 photos illustrations and stills from the collections of the Library of Congress and Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences BFI Distribution Library Catalogue, 1978 British Film Institute. Catalogue, 1991 October Richard Taylor, 2019-07-25 Richard Taylor asks to what extent the film can lay claim to authentic history. He then examines October's relationship to the politics of the period and explains the theory and its application as well as placing October in the wider context of Eisenstein's career. Some Like It Hot Steven Cohan, 2025-05-01 Billy Wilder's classic screwball comedy Some Like it Hot 1959 starring Jack Lemmon, Tony Curtis and Marilyn Monroe tells the story of two struggling Jazz musicians who accidentally witness a mob massacre in Chicago who then disguised as women join a female band to escape the gangsters' pursuit. Despite the film's popular reception with Academy Award nominations for Wilder and star Jack Lemmon, the film gained notoriety for its crossdressing plot and gender bending comedy. Steven Cohan's study of the film disentangles its production history and subsequent notoriety from the film itself, reconsidering the ways in which it playfully challenged generic and gender conventions of the 1950s. He provides an in depth analysis of the film's near perfect comedic structure, Wilder's aesthetic choices and self reflexive star performances by Curtis, Lemmon and Monroe. He goes on to consider the film's queerness as well as its promotion and reception in 1959. Contextualizing the film within its contemporary moment, he argues its textual richness, one that allows it to be viewed differently across generations, securing its lasting influence in popular culture. Lloyd's Register OneOcean's Guide to Port Entry 1993-94 Kenya-Zaire Lloyd's Register Foundation, 1993-01-01 First published in 1971, these Guides provide invaluable information on thousands of commercial ports and terminals across the globe.
