Riven by Lust Jonathan A. Silk,2008-10-31 Riven by Lust explores the tale of a man accused of causing the fundamental schism in early Indian Buddhism but not before he has sex with his mother and kills his father In tracing this Indian Buddhist Oedipal tale Jonathan Silk follows it through texts in all of the major canonical languages of Buddhism Sanskrit Pali Tibetan Chinese and Japanese along the way noting parallels and contrasts with classical and medieval European stories such as the legend of the Oedipal Judas Simultaneously he investigates the psychological and anthropological understandings of the tale of mother son incest in light of contemporary psychological and anthropological understandings of incest with special attention to the question of why we consider it among the worst of crimes In seeking to understand how the story worked in Indian texts and for Indian audiences as well as how it might work for modern readers this book has both horizontal and vertical dimensions probing the place of the Oedipal in Indian culture Buddhist and non Buddhist and simultaneously framing the Indian Oedipal within broader human concerns thereby contributing to the study of the history of Buddhism the transmission of narratives in the ancient world and the fundamental nature of one aspect of human sexuality Starting from a brief reference in a polemical treatise Riven by Lust demonstrates that its authors borrowed and intentionally adapted a preexisting story of an Oedipal antihero This recasting allowed them to calumniate their opponents in the strongest possible terms through the rhetoric of murder and incest Silk draws on a wide variety of sources to demonstrate the range of thinking about incest in Indian Buddhist culture thereby uncovering the strategies and working methods of the ancient polemicists He argues that Indian Buddhists and Hindus while occupying the same world for the most part thought differently about fundamental issues such as incest and hints at the consequent necessity of a reappraisal of our notions of the shape of the ancient cultural sphere they shared Provocative and innovative Riven by Lust is a paradigmatic analysis of a major theme of world mythology and a signal contribution to the study of the history of incest and comparative sexualities It will attract readers interested in Buddhism Indian studies Asian studies comparative culture mythology psychology and the history of sexuality

Road School Sue Cowley, 2016-11-30 Frustrated by a regime of statutory testing and keen for a midlife adventure Sue Cowley and her partner decided to step out of the system and set off on the educational adventure of a lifetime with their children Road School is the story of their family's adventures around Europe and across China and what they learned along the way Part comedy travelogue part parenting guide part educational philosophy Road School asks you to consider what an education really means and offers tips for anyone planning their own learning adventure As a parent in the UK you must make sure that your child has a full time education once they are of compulsory school age However this education does not have to take place in a school A growing number of parents are finding that home educating or unschooling either permanently or on a short term basis is a viable and attractive option The national curriculum benchmark tests and exams serve to reinforce the idea that there is a specific set of knowledge which equates to an education However when you are home educating it is entirely up to you what and how you wish to teach your children Or rather what and how you wish your children to learn You might choose to include part or everything that is in the national curriculum or you might not Sue's family found that one of the best things about Road School was the freedom to follow their interests Sue offers plenty of advice based on the lessons her family learned on their Road School adventure such as take into account how learning can happen simply by visiting a place and exploring it Don't feel that you always have to formalise your visit by turning it into a lesson The experience of going somewhere can be memorable and educational in its own right Much of what your children will learn on the road is social and emotional rather than intellectual They learn how to cope how to adapt how to be resilient and how to be brave The challenges and difficulties that you face on the road will teach them all these things without any direct teaching needed at all Involve your children in making decisions about the content of their curriculum particularly when it comes to choosing topics or themes What would they most like to study during your learning journey together You can teach subjects such as English or history through cross curricular themes rather than as discrete lessons Ask your children to decide which topics interest them the most and capitalise on those One of the great things about educating your child yourself is that you get to learn alongside them Not only do you provide a model of lifelong learning but it's also very liberating to learn new things as an adult Remember that teaching is not the same thing as learning You don't have to teach your children directly for a set number of hours each day in order to educate them Learning can take place all the time and anywhere rather than just during school hours It doesn't matter what time of the day or day of the week it is if there is learning happening then your child is being educated Contents include England English Lessons
