Sea Salt And Sweat:

Sauna Culture, Sweat and Spirituality Kaarina Kailo, 2025-06-27 This book explores spiritual and sacred practices in Finnish saunas and Native North American sweat lodges through a comparative study. It also sheds light on ancient traditions from Ireland and Galicia tracing their evolution and shared spiritual features. The book further analyzes gendered rituals, woman-centered lifeways and cyclical worldviews rooted in rebirth and regeneration. This book shows how these practices reflect a deep cross-cultural matrix of symbols celebrating Heaven and Earth. It presents the Delaware Sweat Lodge and Big House as prototypes of sacred structures for world renewal and their connections to sauna cultures worldwide. By defining key concepts from patriarchal feminist and Indigenous perspectives, this book challenges normative unquestioned notions of the sacred and the divine. The book's interdisciplinary approach will appeal to students, scholars, and researchers of gender studies, Indigenous studies, cultural studies, religious studies, philosophy, and anthropology interested in a better understanding of how ancient rituals hold ecological significance for addressing today's planetary crises and social imbalances, revealing like-mindedness across diverse faith traditions.

Asphalt Carl Hancock Rux, 2010-06-15 Already a celebrated performance artist, vocalist, poet, playwright, and visionary, Carl Hancock Rux now presents a brilliant debut novel, a profound and lyrical portrait of urban life that will take its place among the classics of American literature. Racine is a reserved young man, but his passion for music lights him up inside. He's just returned from Paris where he'd been invited by a friend to produce music, make recordings, and earn a living. The plan didn't quite pan out, and now he's back in New York where fate, providence, or just plain chance leads him to a once glorious brownstone turned into a squat by a few eccentric loners. There's Manny who wears sarongs and glitter but has no trouble attracting beautiful women, and Couchette, a gorgeous second-generation dancer whose mother has gone to Bali to live and bear a child with a man who built her a house in the midst of a rice paddy. What binds the characters is a deep sense of loss. Each is like the city they live in: wounded and seeking healing and connection with and through the other housemates. Rux's poetic fiction blurs the lines between characters' dreams, memory, and reality. Asphalt, the name representing the essence of the city and the hard-layered yet vulnerable sensibility of its inhabitants, is part post-modern parable, part urban mythology, and altogether relevant to contemporary reality. Asphalt is daring and unforgettable, marking the arrival of an original and astounding new voice in American literature.

King's American Dispensatory John King,1909 The Heartbeat of God

Katharine Jefferts Schori,2010-10 Insights from a pioneering leader in world religion on the intersections of the sacred the secular As Christians indeed as people of faith of any tradition we are called to tend to the needs of the least among us Our response to them must be the response of faith God gives us a new heart to do this work and every time we gather to do it

God offers a pacemaker jolt to tweak our heart's rhythm. The challenge is this: will our hearts respond with a strengthened beat in tune with God's own heartbeat, sending more life out into the world from the Introduction? Explore our connections as human beings with each other as one nation with all other nations as the human species with the whole of our environment through the lens of faith. Katharine Jefferts Schori, presiding bishop of The Episcopal Church, examines these connections as she looks at the intersections of faith with the major issues of our day: How does faith speak to poverty, climate change, the economy, health care, and what is the faith response? How can believers from many faith traditions find common ground while honoring the Divine, serving one another, and creating deeper community? How do we best use the resources of faith to connect us to the hearts of our neighbors and to the heart of God?
