Search For Political Community American Activists Reinventing Commitment:

The Search for Political Community Paul Lichterman, 2003 4e de couv This book challenges the myth that Americans emphasis on personal fulfilment necessarily weakens commitment to the common good Drawing on extensive participant observation with a variety of environmentalist groups Paul Lichterman argues that individualism sometimes enhances public political commitment and that a shared respect for individual inspiration enables activists with diverse political backgrounds to work together This personalised culture of commitment has sustained activists working long term for social change The book contrasts personalised politics in mainly white environmental groups with a more traditional community centred culture of commitment in an African American group The untraditional personalised politics of many recent social movements invites us to rethink common understandings of commitment community and individualism in a post traditional world The Search for Political Community Paul Lichterman, 1996-09-19 This book challenges the myth that Americans emphasis on personal fulfilment necessarily weakens commitment to the common good Drawing on extensive participant observation with a variety of environmentalist groups Paul Lichterman argues that individualism sometimes enhances public political commitment and that a shared respect for individual inspiration enables activists with diverse political backgrounds to work together This personalised culture of commitment has sustained activists working long term for social change The book contrasts personalised politics in mainly white environmental groups with a more traditional community centred culture of commitment in an African American group The untraditional personalised politics of many recent social movements invites us to rethink common understandings of commitment community and individualism in a post traditional world Youth Engagement Jessica K. Taft, Sandi Kawecka Nenga, 2013-03-08 This volume critically examines the multiple and contested meanings of ideal citizenship and reveal how children and youth craft active citizenship as they encounter and respond to the various institutions and organizations designed to encourage their civic and political development Political Translation Nicole Doerr, 2018-03 At a time of increasing doubts about political legitimacy concern for equal and inclusive democratic processes and deliberation is sweeping the social sciences In this empirical study the author presents the collective practices of political translation which help multilingual and culturally diverse groups work together more democratically Virtual Communities Felicia Wu Song, 2009 Does contemporary Internet technology strengthen civic engagement and democratic practice The recent surge in online community participation has become a cultural phenomenon enmeshed in ongoing debates about the health of American civil society But observations about online communities often concentrate on ascertaining the true nature of community and democracy typically rehearsing familiar communitarian and liberal perspectives This book seeks to understand the technology on its own terms focusing on how the technological and organizational configurations of online communities frame our contemporary beliefs and assumptions about community and the individual It analyzes key structural features of thirty award winning online community websites to show that while the values of individual autonomy egalitarianism and freedom of speech dominate the discursive content of these communities the practical realities of online life are clearly marked by exclusivity and the demands of commercialization and corporate surveillance Promises of social empowerment are framed within consumer and therapeutic frameworks that undermine their democratic efficacy As a result online communities fail to revolutionize the civic landscape because they create cultures of membership that epitomize the commodification of community and public life altogether Urban Environmental Stewardship and Civic Engagement Dana R. Fisher,Erika S. Svendsen,James Connolly,2015-02-11 Once considered the antithesis of a verdant and vibrant ecosystem cities are now being hailed as highly efficient and complex social ecological systems Emerging from the streets of the post industrial city are well tended community gardens rooftop farms and other viable habitats capable of supporting native flora and fauna At the forefront of this transformation are the citizens living in the cities themselves As people around the world increasingly relocate to urban areas this book discusses how they engage in urban stewardship and what civic participation in the environment means for democracy Drawing on data collected through a two year study of volunteer stewards who planted trees as part of the MillionTreesNYC initiative in the United States this book examines how projects like this can make a difference to the social fabric of a city It analyses quantitative survey data along with qualitative interview data that enables the volunteers to share their personal stories and motivations for participating revealing the strong link between environmental stewardship and civic engagement As city governments in developed countries are investing more and more in green infrastructure campaigns to change the urban landscape this book sheds light on the social importance of these initiatives and shows how individuals efforts to reshape their cities serve to strengthen democracy It draws out lessons that are highly applicable to global cities and policies on sustainability and civic engagement Can Neighbourhoods Save the City? Frank Moulaert,Erik Swyngedouw,Flavia Martinelli,Sara Gonzalez,2010-07-12 Instead of a top down approach this book looks at the impact of bottom up neighbourhood based initiatives It analyses and documents a variety of innovative local urban strategies in European cities and their impact on wider urban socio economic and political restructuring processes Political Sentiments and Social Movements Claudia Strauss,Jack R. Friedman,2018-03-22 This unique volume is about how ordinary people construct political meanings form political emotions and identities and become involved in or disengaged from political contests Drawing on psychological anthropology it illustrates the complexities of political subjectivities through engaging personal stories that complicate our understanding of the relationship between culture and politics Chapters examine the Tea Party and Occupy Wall Street in the United States third gender activism in India Rastafari in Jamaica Courage to Refuse in Israel the environmental movement in the U S Salafi movements in northern Nigeria post socialist labor politics in Romania and anti immigrant activism in Denmark Urban People and Places Daniel Joseph Monti,Michael Ian Borer,Lyn C. Macgregor,2014-02-10 Providing a thorough and comprehensive survey of the contemporary urban world that is accessible to students Urban People and Places

The Sociology of Cities Suburbs and Towns will give balanced treatment to both the process by which cities are built i e urbanization and the ways of life practiced by people that live and work in more urban places i e urbanism unlike most core texts in this area Whereas most texts focus on the socio economic causes of urbanization this text analyses the cultural component how the physical construction of places is in part a product of cultural beliefs ideas and practices and also how the culture of those who live work and play in various places is shaped structured and controlled by the built environment Inasmuch as the primary focus will be on the United States global discussion is composed with an eye toward showing how U S cities suburbs and towns are different and alike from their counterparts in Africa Asia and Central and South America

Community Gerard Delanty, 2009-12-04 The increasing individualism of modern Western society has been accompanied by an enduring nostalgia for the idea of community as a source of security and belonging and in recent years as an alternative to the state as a basis for politics Gerard Delanty begins this stimulating introduction to the concept with an analysis of the origins of the idea of community in Western Utopian thought and as an imagined pristine condition equated with traditional societies in classical sociology and anthropology He goes on to chart the resurgence of the idea within communitarian thought the complications and critiques of multiculturalism and its new manifestations within a society where new modes of communication produce both fragmentation and the possibilities of new social bonds Contemporary community he argues is essentially a communication community based on new kinds of belonging No longer bounded by place we are able to belong to multiple communities based on religion nationalism ethnicity life styles and gender

Activism, Inc. Dana Fisher, 2006-07-26 Activism Inc introduces America to an increasingly familiar political actor the canvasser She s the twenty something with the clipboard stopping you on the street or knocking on your door the foot soldier of political campaigns Granted unprecedented access to the People s Project an unknown yet influential organization driving left leaning grassroots politics Dana Fisher tells the true story of outsourcing politics in America Like the major corporations that outsourced their customer service to companies abroad the grassroots campaigns of national progressive movements including Greenpeace the Sierra Club Save the Children and the Human Rights Campaign have been outsourced at different times to this single organization During the 2004 presidential campaign the Democratic Party followed a similar outsourcing model for their canvassing Fisher examines the history and rationale behind political outsourcing on the Left weaving together frank interviews with canvassers high ranking political officials across the political spectrum and People s Project management She compares all of this to the grassroots efforts on the Right which remain firmly grounded in communities and local politics This book offers a chilling review of the consequences of political outsourcing Connecting local people on the streets throughout America to the national organizations and political campaigns that make up progressive politics it shows what happens to the passionate young activists outsourced to the clients of Activism Inc

Free Trade and Faithful Globalization Amy Reynolds, 2015 Through an analysis of Christian communities in the United States Canada and Costa Rica this book

analyzes how religious groups talk about the politics surrounding economic life Amy Reynolds examines how these Christian organizations speak about trade and the economy as moral and value laden spaces deserving ethical reflection and requiring political action She reveals the ways in which religious communities have asked people to engage in new approaches to thinking about the market and how they have worked to create alternative networks and policies governing economic and social life

By Any Media Necessary Henry Jenkins, Sangita Shresthova, Liana Gamber-Thompson, Neta Kligler-Vilenchik, Arely Zimmerman, 2016-05-03 The participatory politics and civic engagement of youth in the digital age There is a widespread perception that the foundations of American democracy are dysfunctional public trust in core institutions is eroding and little is likely to emerge from traditional politics that will shift those conditions Youth are often seen as emblematic of this crisis frequently represented as uninterested in political life ill informed about current affairs and unwilling to register and vote By Any Media Necessary offers a profoundly different picture of contemporary American youth Young men and women are tapping into the potential of new forms of communication such as social media platforms spreadable videos and memes remixing the language of popular culture and seeking to bring about political change by any media necessary In a series of case studies covering a diverse range of organizations networks and movements involving young people in the political process from the Harry Potter Alliance which fights for human rights in the name of the popular fantasy franchise to immigration rights advocates using superheroes to dramatize their struggles By Any Media Necessary examines the civic imagination at work Before the world can change people need the ability to imagine what alternatives might look like and identify paths by which change can be achieved Exploring new forms of political activities and identities emerging from the practice of participatory culture By Any Media Necessary reveals how these shifts in communication have unleashed a new political dynamism in American youth Read Online at connectedyouth.nyupress.org

Social Movements

David S. Meyer, Nancy Whittier, Belinda Robnett, 2002 Why do social movements take the forms they do How do activists efforts and beliefs interact with the cultural and political contexts in which they work This book considers the intersections of opportunities and identities structures and cultures in social movements

Meaning and Modernity Richard Madsen, 2001-12-04 This interesting volume of essays on contemporary religion and its ambivalent relationship to modernity not only serves as a testimony to the intellectual influence of Robert Bellah it establishes a new school of comparative religious and social thought This Bellahian school at the intersection of sociological theological and contemporary philosophical thinking has roots in Durkheim and Weber borrows insights from Marx Foucault and Bourdieu and finds its clearest voice in the writings of Bellah himself The essays by some of Bellah's colleagues and former students that have been gathered in this volume address some of the most sagacious of these Bellahian themes the religious dimension of contemporary civil societies the relationship between religious and capitalist values the cultural critique of modernity and the moral visions that hold a promise of civic renewal Mark Juergensmeyer author of Terror in the Mind of God The Global Rise of Religious Violence California 2000 This highly readable collection of original thought provoking essays by leading scholars provides fresh insights into the issues that Robert Bellah has addressed so fruitfully in his long career Readers will learn much about such issues as how Calvinism contributed to political revolution why democracies require an enlarged sense of political community how the religious foundations of Japan and the United States differ and what it means to be a Christian and an American Benton Johnson coauthor of Vanishing Boundaries The Religion of Protestant Baby Boomers 1994 and author of Functionalism in Modern Sociology Understanding Talcott Parsons 1975 The Communitarian Reader Amitai Etzioni, Drew Volmert, Elanit Rothschild, 2004 The Communitarian Reader Beyond the Essentials brings together essays by prominent social thinkers reflecting on issues ranging from moral obligations to civil liberties after 9 11 The result is a book both practical and theoretical and an essential guide for all interested in further exploring this important social movement

The State of Nonprofit America Lester M Salamon, 2012-05-14 Today America's nonprofit organizations seem caught in a force field buffeted by four impulses voluntarism professionalism civic activism and commercialism Too little attention however has been paid to the significant tensions among these impulses Understanding this force field and the factors shaping its dynamics thus becomes central to understanding the future of particular organizations and of the nonprofit sector as a whole In this second edition of an immensely successful volume Lester Salamon and his colleagues offer an overview of the current state of America's nonprofit sector examining the forces that are shaping its future and identifying the changes that might be needed The State of Nonprofit America has been completely revised and updated to reflect changing political realities and the punishing economic climate currently battering the nonprofit sector which faces significant financial challenges during a time when its services are needed more than ever The result is a comprehensive analysis of a set of institutions that Alexis de Tocqueville recognized to be more deserving of our attention than any other part of the American experiment The Dynamics and Social Outcomes of Education Systems J. Janmaat, M. Duru-Bellat, P. Méhaut, A.

Green, 2013-08-27 Some scholars argue that education systems across the western world are becoming increasingly similar due to the influence of transnational discourses and organizations Others believe that education is the panacea for all problems of social cohesion After all aren't the well educated usually more tolerant civically engaged and trusting than the poorly educated This book critically examines both claims It finds that western countries still differ markedly on key aspects of their education systems and that these differences reflect distinct political traditions and different responses to a set of competing normative and political principles The findings further suggest that raising the average education level is unlikely to be an effective strategy for promoting social cohesion Instead more promising are policies targeting the opposite ends of the lifelong learning continuum universalizing pre school education and care and promoting adult education with a pronounced second chance character Urban Grassroots Movements in Central and Eastern Europe Kerstin Jacobsson, 2016-03-09 What can we learn about collective action across Central and Eastern Europe by focusing on activism within urban spaces This volume argues that the recent resurgence of urban grassroots mobilisation represents a new phase in the development of post socialist civil societies and that these civil societies have significantly more vitality than is commonly perceived The case studies here reflect the diversity and complexity of post socialist urban movements capturing also the extent to which the laboratory of urban politics is richly illustrative of the complex nexus of state society market relations within post socialism The grassroots campaigns and actions reflect the new social cleavages and increased polarisation as a consequence of neoliberal urbanisation and global integration as well as the transformation of state power and authority in the region Studying urban activism in Central and Eastern Europe is instructive for urban movements scholars generally as it forces us to acknowledge the variety of forms that contention can take and the usefulness of embedding the study of urban movements within a larger understanding of civil society Rethinking Class and Social Difference Barry Eidlin, Michael A. McCarthy, 2020-09-30 This volume draws together scholars rethinking social scientific and theoretical approaches to a wide range of forms of social difference and inequality These include race nationalism sexuality professional classes domestic employment digital communication and uneven economic development
