Bongiovanni, 2004 The Etruscans were the highly advanced civilization in Italy that precedes the Romans Most authors gloss over the origins of the Etruscans The author has researched the archeological and linguistic evidence of the Mediterranean and the Near East back to 6000 B C He compares this to the written history of the Etruscans and reaches some interesting new conclusions as to their origins This is followed by a description of the Etruscan cities culture and the art found in their tombs By researching the ancient authors daily life is explained in vivid detail Government and religion are compared to the Romans who inherited these from the Etruscans Finally chronological tables and maps show the relationship of the different cultures in the Italian Peninsula and the Mediterranean back to 6000 B C In Search of the Romans James

Carthaginian Armies of the Punic Wars, 264-146 BC Gabriele Esposito, 2023-11-23 The Carthaginians were undoubtedly the most formidable enemies of the ever expanding Roman Republic due to their sophisticated and often well

led military forces Although the citizens of Carthage itself a seafaring mercantile state by tradition may not have had the same military ethos as the Romans they compensated by fielding varied multinational armies consisting of subject allied and mercenary contingents many of them recruited from the most famous warrior peoples of the Mediterranean These included the incomparable Numidian light cavalry the famed slingers of the Balearic islands fierce Celts and skilled Spanish swordsmen not forgetting the famous war elephants During the first of the three conflicts that they fought against the Roman Republic the famous Punic Wars the Carthaginians completely reformed their land forces along Hellenistic lines and invited an experienced Spartan officer to command it During the Second Punic War they obtained a series of stunning victories over the Romans under the brilliant leadership of their own Hannibal Barca marauding through Italy for some fifteen years Gabriele Esposito reconstructs the history organization and weapons of the Carthaginian military forces across the Punic Wars 264 146 BC The weapons armor and tactics of each of the various ethnic components is analyzed and the accessible text is supported by dozens of excellent color photographs showing replica equipment in use Archaeological News ,1975
