Habitations of the Veil Rebecka Rutledge Fisher, 2014-06-12 In Habitations of the Veil Rebecka Rutledge Fisher uses theory implicit in W E B Du Bois's use of metaphor to draw out and analyze what she sees as a long tradition of philosophical metaphor in African American literature She demonstrates how Olaudah Equiano Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Zora Neale Hurston Richard Wright and Ralph Ellison each use metaphors to develop a critical discourse capable of overcoming the limits of narrative language to convey their lived experiences Fisher's philosophical investigations open these texts to consideration on ontological and epistemological levels in addition to those concerned with literary craft and the politics of black identity

simply formulaic petitions but wrestling with God over real issues and questions formed the undercurrent of his life and public work The prayer that Jesus gave his followers embodies his own prayer life and his wider kingdom ministry in every clause There are many books about prayer but this is the first by Tom Wright to cover all the key teachings and examples to be found in the New Testament Commentary on the Epistle to the Galatians Martin Luther, 2022-06-13 Luther believed that Paul's letters influenced his Protestantism more than any other part of the Bible and among his works he claimed that Commentary on the Epistle to the Galatians was his favorite In this work Luther teaches that the salvation of people is based on believing Commentary on Galatians Martin Luther, 2007-12-01 Who Killed the Holy Ghost? Rufus Goodwin, 2005-04 When the Christ in his physical form left the earthly world he sent the Holy Spirit The Comforter to guide and inspire his followers Beginning with Pentecost the Holy Spirit was perhaps the most important aspect of the Godhead for the future of Christianity and for humankind as a whole Today however there are cults for Mary and there are Jesuits and Jesus freaks but what about the Holy Ghost why has the Spirit lost its central role in Christianity and the Church Who Killed the Holy Ghost is a sweeping hard hitting and accessible survey of the Spirit in the world and in human life from the Jewish prophets to modern times Goodwin a journalist former correspondent to the Vatican and an expert on the Church and its history investigates the rise of the Holy Ghost the heresies the battles defeats and victories and the Holy Spirit's exile from history He recounts and contextualizes what individuals have said about the Holy Spirit from Paul John and Jesus to Leonardo da Vinci and George Washington to Einstein Freud and John Glenn We are also given a close look at the various ways world religious traditions have treated the Spirit including Judaism Christianity Islam shamanism Buddhism Taoism and many others In the process Goodwin focuses otherwise vague uses of the word spirit from the ancient Greeks and Romans to Christian gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit to modern Pentecostals and the New Age movement Journalistic in its sweep Goodwin's treatment is nonsectarian and nondenominational honoring the history of the Holy Ghost in life and death for our materialistic times The Holy Ghost's visibility has faded with the centuries so this is in a sense also an obituary But the Holy Spirit often so invisible may not be a mere ghost or dead yet A Commentary on St. Paul's Epistle to the Galatians Martin Luther, 1939 Galatians Martin Luther, 1998-05-11 For hundreds of years Christendom has been blessed with Bible commentaries written by great men of God who were highly respected for their godly work and their insight into spiritual truth The Crossway Classic Commentary Series carefully adapted for maximum understanding and usefulness presents the very best work on individual Bible books for today's believers Ever since it was written the apostle Paul's letter to the believers in Galatia has nurtured trust and assurance in Christ Its grand themes of the superiority of Scripture over human reason the sufficiency of Christ's atonement through his death and the freedom of justification through faith alone continue to energize and enlighten Christians today This classic commentary from the heart of a courageous apostle will encourage and equip all who desire to understand live out and communicate the true gospel of Jesus Christ The Searcher of Hearts

Images at Work David Morgan, 2018-01-02 Images can be studied in many ways as symbols displays of artistic genius adjuncts to texts or naturally occurring phenomena like reflections and dreams Each of these approaches is justified by the nature of the image in question as well as the way viewers engage with it But images are often something more when they perform in ways that exhibit a capacity to act independent of human will Images come alive they move us to action calm us reveal the power of the divine change the world around us In these instances we need an alternative model for exploring what is at work one that recognizes the presence of images as objects that act on us Building on his previous innovative work in visual and religious studies David Morgan creates a new framework for understanding how the human mind can be enchanted by images in Images at Work In carefully crafted arguments Morgan proposes that images are special kinds of objects fashioned and recognized by human beings for their capacity to engage us From there he demonstrates that enchantment as described is not a violation of cosmic order but a very natural way that the mind animates the world around it His groundbreaking study outlines the deeply embodied process by which humans create culture by endowing places things and images with power and agency These various agents human and non human material geographic and spiritual become nodes in the web of relationships thus giving meaning to images and to human life Marrying network theory with cutting edge work in visual studies and connecting the visual and bodily technologies employed by the ancient Greeks and Romans to secular icons like Che Guevara Abraham Lincoln and Mao Images at Work will be transformative for those curious about why images seem to have a power of us in ways we can't always describe
