Searching For A Different Future The Rise Of A Global Middle Class In Morocco:

Searching for a Different Future ,2009 DIVCohen studies the Moroccan middle class s varied transnational identifications with a global market economy as these identifications bear on middle class citizens increasing detachment from the nation state and its local political economies div Searching for a Different Future Shana Cohen,2004-08-11 Cohen studies the Moroccan middle class s varied transnational identifications with a global market economy as these identifications bear on middle class citizens increasing detachment from the nation state and its local political economies Everyday Life in Global Morocco Rachel Newcomb,2017-10-09 Following the story of one middle class family as they work eat love and grow Everyday Life in Global Morocco provides a moving and engaging exploration of how world issues impact lives Rachel Newcomb shows how larger issues like gentrification changing diets and nontraditional approaches to marriage and fertility are changing what the everyday looks and feels like in Morocco Newcomb s close engagement with the Benjelloun family presents a broad range of responses to the multifaceted effects of globalization The lived experience of the modern family is placed in contrast with the traditional expectation of how this family should operate This juxtaposition encourages new ways of thinking about how modern the notion of globalization really is Guides of the Atlas Simon Holdermann,2023-04-03 How do digital media technologies shape or restructure social practice And which transitions and demarcations of different forms of publicness arise in this context Simon Holdermann examines this question in his ethnography of everyday life in the High Atlas Mountains of Morocco In order to approach the ongoing historically situated social transformations of the region he analyses a variety of media practices concerning the organizational work and transnational cooperation that take place there in particular at the intersection of mountain tourism NGO work and local self government The Moroccan Women's Rights Movement Amy Young Evrard,2014-06-09 Among various important efforts to address women s issues in Morocco a particular set of individuals and associations have formed around two specific goals reforming the Moroccan Family Code and raising awareness of women s rights Evrard chronicles the history of the women s rights movement exploring the organizational structure activities and motivations with specific attention to questions of legal reform and family law Employing ethnographic scrutiny Evrard presents the stories of the individual women behind the movement and the challenges they faced Given the vast reform of the Moroccan Family Code in 2004 and the emphasis on the role of women across the Middle East and North Africa today this book makes a timely argument for the analysis of women s rights as both global and local in origin evolution and application Money from Nothing Deborah James,2014-11-19 Money from Nothing explores the dynamics surrounding South Africa s national project of financial inclusion dubbed banking the unbanked which aimed to extend credit to black South Africans as a critical aspect of broad based economic enfranchisement Through rich and captivating accounts Deborah James reveals the varied ways in which middle and working class South Africans access to credit is intimately bound up with identity status making and aspirations of upward mobility She draws out the deeply precarious nature of both the aspirations and the economic relations of debt which sustain her subjects revealing the shadowy side of indebtedness and its potential to produce new forms of oppression and disenfranchisement in place of older ones Money from Nothing uniquely captures the lived experience of indebtedness for those many millions who attempt to improve their positions or merely sustain existing livelihoods in emerging economies Places We Share Susan Ossman, 2007-01-01 This book explores the relationship of mobility to subjectivity identity to place by exploring the lives of people on the move The authors draw on research among nomads immigrants and serial migrants and question their own trajectories Their comments on cosmopolitanism ethnicity and religion challenge conventional wisdom from concrete but ungrounded perspectives Social Things Charles Lemert, 2012 In fifteen years Charles Lemert's Social Things has become a much loved modern classic among teachers students and many other readers for introducing the sociological imagination through lively memorable stories and interpretations This fifth edition is fresh the history of sociology section is updated to incorporate new discussions of the way sociological ideas have spread into numerous other fields to inform the new post disciplinary social theory the book now includes original yet practically vivid presentations of globalization queer theory critical race theory and much else and an entirely new chapter Global Things on a Fragile Planet addresses the environmental crises that challenge our global world Lemert focuses on man made disasters like the Gulf of Mexico Oil Spill in 2010 and natural tragedies like the 2011 earthquakes and tsunami in Japan in which the fragility of organized human life and the sociological incompetence of many social structures are dramatically illustrated Of Empires and Citizens Amaney A. Jamal, 2012-09-09 In the post Cold War era why has democratization been slow to arrive in the Arab world This book argues that to understand support for the authoritarian status quo in parts of this region and the willingness of its citizens to compromise on core democratic principles one must factor in how a strong U S presence and popular anti Americanism weakens democratic voices Examining such countries as Jordan Kuwait Morocco Palestine and Saudi Arabia Amaney Jamal explores how Arab citizens decide whether to back existing regimes regime transitions and democratization projects and how the global position of Arab states shapes people's attitudes toward their governments While the Cold War's end reduced superpower hegemony in much of the developing world the Arab region witnessed an increased security and economic dependence on the United States As a result the preferences of the United States matter greatly to middle class Arab citizens not just the elite and citizens will restrain their pursuit of democratization rationalizing their backing for the status quo because of U S geostrategic priorities Demonstrating how the preferences of an international patron serve as a constraint or an opportunity to push for democracy Jamal questions bottom up approaches to democratization which assume that states are autonomous units in the world order Jamal contends that even now with the overthrow of some autocratic Arab regimes the future course of Arab democratization will be influenced by the perception of American reactions Concurrently the United States must address the troubling sources of the region's rising anti Americanism Wired Citizenship Linda

Herrera,2014-03-05 Wired Citizenship examines the evolving patterns of youth learning and activism in the Middle East and North Africa MENA In today s digital age in which formal schooling often competes with the peer driven outlets provided by social media youth all over the globe have forged new models of civic engagement rewriting the script of what it means to live in a democratic society As a result state society relationships have shifted never more clearly than in the MENA region where recent uprisings were spurred by the mobilization of tech savvy and politicized youth Combining original research with a thorough exploration of theories of democracy communications and critical pedagogy this edited collection describes how youth are performing citizenship innovating systems of learning and re imagining the practices of activism in the information age Recent case studies illustrate the context specific effects of these revolutionary new forms of learning and social engagement in the MENA region Higher education for democratic innovation Bergan, Sjur,Gallagher, Tony,Harkavy, Ira,2016-02-22 Democracy is increasingly the standard against which societies are measured The term democratic culture designates the set of attitudes and behaviours that citizens need to have for democratic institutions and laws to function in practice This is an important development from older perceptions of democracy which focused on institutions laws and procedures It is a recognition that democracy will not function unless citizens want it to function In all countries there are committed individuals aspiring to make their societies better democracies As the Secretary General of the Council of Europe Thorbj rn Jagland has said on several occasions our societies seek to address 21st century issues through 19th century institutions Through contributions by authors from Europe North America and other parts of the world this book explores how higher education can help find new ways to develop commitment to public space and societal engagement and make democracy more vibrant Industrial Islamism Utku Baris Balaban,2025 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Industrial Islamism analyzes the relationship since the end of the Cold War between the rise of political Islamism in Muslim majority countries and the rise of a new global middle class of industrial entrepreneurs Challenging common assumptions Utku Balaban questions the idea that political Islamism represents the antithesis of Western modernity and industrialization On the contrary the more enthusiastically a Muslim majority country industrializes the more Islamized its politics becomes The book focuses on Turkey historically the most industrialized Muslim majority country in the world with the most successful Islamist movement and a relatively competitive electoral system It provides a fine grained historical and ethnographic analysis at the local level of urban industrial control over workers in sweatshops and working class neighborhoods by this new global middle class whom Balaban calls the faubourgeoisie As the central actor behind Turkey s post Cold War industrialization the faubourgeoisie allies with the Islamist movement to control its workers and significantly influence national politics Against Racism Monica Moreno Figueroa,Peter Wade,2022-03-22 Powerful narratives often describe Latin American nations as fundamentally mestizo These narratives have hampered the acknowledgment of racism in the region but recent multiculturalist reforms have increased recognition of Black and Indigenous identities and cultures Multiculturalism may focus on identity and visibility and address more casual and social forms of racism but can also distract attention from structural racism and racialized inequality and constrain larger antiracist initiatives Additionally multiple understandings of how racism and antiracism fit into projects of social transformation make racism a complex and multifaceted issue The essays in Against Racism examine actors in Brazil Colombia Ecuador and Mexico that move beyond recognition politics to address structural inequalities and material conflicts and build common ground with other marginalized groups The organizations in this study advocate an approach to deep social structural transformation that is inclusive fosters alliances and is inspired by a radical imagination South Asia Bulletin ,2006 Encountering Morocco David Crawford,Rachel Newcomb,2013-05-15 Encountering Morocco introduces readers to life in this North African country through vivid accounts of fieldwork as personal experience and intellectual journey We meet the contributors at diverse stages of their careers from the unmarried researcher arriving for her first stint in the field to the seasoned fieldworker returning with spouse and children They offer frank descriptions of what it means to take up residence in a place where one is regarded as an outsider learn the language and local customs and struggle to develop rapport Moving reflections on friendship kinship and belief within the cross cultural encounter reveal why study of Moroccan society has played such a seminal role in the development of cultural anthropology A New Type of Womanhood Natasha Kirsten Kraus,2008-08-18 Sociological analysis of the ideology and the reality of True Womanhood as manifest in 19th century NY state culture and politics as well as those feminist protests and legislative market developments which revised this contradiction The Making of the Middle Class A. Ricardo López,2012-01-18 The contributors question the current academic understanding of what is known as the global middle class They see middle class formation as transnational and they examine this group through the lenses of economics gender race and religion from the mid nineteenth century to today

Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa Sean Yom,2019-10-30 The latest edition of this renowned textbook explores the states and regimes of the Middle East and North Africa Presenting heavily revised fully updated chapters contributed by the world s leading experts it analyzes the historical trajectory political institutions economic development and foreign policies of the region s nearly two dozen countries The volume can be used in conjunction with its sister volume The Societies of the Middle East and North Africa for a comprehensive overview of the region Chapters are organized and structured identically giving insightful windows into the nuances of each country s domestic politics and foreign relations Data tables and extensive annotated bibliographies orient readers towards further research Whether used in conjunction with its sister volume or on its own this book provides the most comprehensive and detailed overview of the region s varied politics Five new experts cover the critical country cases of Turkey Lebanon Jordan Saudi Arabia and Iran All chapters cover the latest events including trends that have remarkably changed in just a few years like the gradual end of the

Syrian civil war As such this textbook is invaluable to students of Middle Eastern politics The ninth edition brings substantial changes All chapters also have a uniform streamlined structure that explores the historical context social and economic environment political institutions regime dynamics and foreign policy of each country Fact boxes and political maps are now far more extensive and photographs and images also help illustrate key points Annotated bibliographies are vastly expanded providing nothing short of the best list of research references for each country Historical Dictionary of Morocco Amar Boum, Thomas K. Park, 2016-06-02 A historical reference work on Morocco must take as its subject al maghrib al aqsa the far west as the Arabic scholars have generally referred to the approximate region of present day Morocco roughly the north west corner of Africa but at times including much of the Iberian peninsula because the modern nation state is a relatively recent creation owing much to events in the late 19th and early 20th centuries External influences on Morocco tend to come across the narrow straits of Gibraltar to the north from the east along the Mediterranean litoral or up from the Sahara In each case access is constrained by geography and continued control from outside the region has been difficult to manage over the long term Although many of the dynasties that came to power in Morocco conquered much broader regions history and topology have so conspired that there is still more coherence to an historical focus on al maghrib al aqsa than is the case for most modern nation states This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Morocco contains a chronology an introduction a glossary and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Morocco The Global Crisis and Transformative Social Change P. Utting, S. Razavi, R. Varghese Buchholz, Rebecca Varghese Buchholz, 2012-03-02 Global crises not only deeply impact the economy and people's livelihoods they also unsettle basic ideas and assumptions about the meaning and drivers of development This collection of theoretical and empirical studies explores the substance and politics of policy change following the 2007-8 crisis from the perspective of developing countries
