Land of the Turquoise Mountains Cyrus Massoudi, 2014-09-12 For Cyrus Massoudi a young British born Iranian the country his parents were forced to flee thirty years ago was a place wholly unknown to him Wanting to make sense of his roots and piece together the divided divisive and deeply contradictory puzzle that is contemporary Iran he embarked on a series of journeys that spanned hundreds of miles and thousands of years Rich portrayals of Sufis and ageing aristocrats smugglers and underground rock bands are all woven together with history religion and mythology to form a unique portrait of contemporary Iranian society And running through the heart of the narrative lies Massoudi's poignant personal quest his struggle echoing that of Iran itself as it fights to forge a cohesive modern identity Land of the Turquoise Mountains reveals a world beyond the propaganda driven media fuelled image of fractious flag burning fundamentalism and provides a compelling glimpse both into the heart of a deeply misunderstood nation and into what it is to seek out and discover one's heritage

Mission Manifest Matthew K. Shannon, 2024-06-15 In Mission Manifest Matthew Shannon argues that American evangelicals were central to American Iranian relations during the decades leading up to the 1979 revolution These Presbyterian missionaries and other Americans with ideals worked with US government officials nongovernmental organizations and their Iranian counterparts as cultural and political brokers the living sinews of a binational relationship during the Second World War and early Cold War As US global hegemony peaked between the 1940s and the 1960s the religious authority of the Presbyterian Mission merged with the material power of the American state to infuse US foreign relations with the messianic ideals of Christian evangelicalism In Tehran the missions of American evangelicals became manifest in the realms of religion development programs international education and cultural associations Americans who lived in Iran also returned to the United States to inform the growth of the national security state higher education and evangelical culture The literal and figurative missions of American evangelicals in late Pahlavi Iran had consequences for the binational relationship the global evangelical movement and individual Americans and Iranians Mission Manifest offers a history of living breathing people who shared personal professional and political aims in Iran at the height of American global power

Delirious Naples Pellegrino D'Acierno, Stanislao G. Pugliese, 2018-12-11 This book is addressed to lovers of paradoxes and we have done our utmost to assemble a stellar cast of Neapolitan and American scholars intellectuals and artists writers who are strong and open minded enough to wrestle with and illuminate the paradoxes through which Naples presents itself Naples is a mysterious metropolis Difficult to understand it is an enigma to outsiders and also to the Neapolitans themselves Its very impenetrableness is what makes it so deliriously and irresistibly attractive The essays attempt to give some hints to the answer of the enigma without parsing it into neat scholastic formulas In doing this the book will be an important means of opening Naples to students scholars and members of the community at large who are engaged in identity work A primary goal has been to establish a dialogue with leading Neapolitan intellectuals and artists and ultimately ensure that the deliriously Neapolitan dance continues In Other Words Goenawan Mohamad,2017-05-16 A wide ranging and beautiful collection of essays from one of world literature s most important writers Goenawan Mohamad is one of Indonesia s foremost public intellectuals and this translated volume of essays spanning from 1968 to the present day demonstrates the breadth of his perceptive and elegant commentary on literature faith mythology politics and history Through the worst days of Indonesia s authoritarianism in the face of the trauma of great violence and the chaos of democratic transition Goenawan has never lost faith in the act of writing Many of his essays from In Other Words were first published for Tempo the Indonesian weekly magazine that he founded in 1971 His writings bring nuance and sympathy to difficult histories introduce doubt to damaging certainties and apply clarity of thought and action to times of great upheaval Activist journalist editor essayist poet commentator theater director and playwright Goenawan Mohamad brings an unparalleled and wide ranging perspective to the world These essays translated by his long time collaborator Jennifer Lindsay reveal a vision both uniquely Indonesian and completely universal and indisputably establish him as one of the leading political thinkers and cultural observers in the world today Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader s Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing Feminist Collections University of Wisconsin System.
