Season Of Stones Living In A Palestinian Village:

A Season of Stones Helen Winternitz,1991 An eye witness account of the Intifada by a journalist who lived in the West Bank for a full year learning the ways of the Palestinians and experiencing the harsh realities of Israeli occupation The Palestinian Uprising F. Robert Hunter,1993-01-01 The best sustained analysis of the Intifada Charles Smith author of Palestine and the Arab Israeli Conflict Speaking Stones Shaul Mishal,Reuben Aharoni,1993-09-01 The Intifada inspired a new kind of Palestinian radicalism a radicalism borne on young shoulders a radicalism that conducts its dialogue with Israel and the local population via the stone the slingshot the petro bomb and the leaflet The leaflets bring the people into the streets and instruct them what to do and when and how They determine the boundaries of the permissible If one wants to know why the Intifada erupted what the Palestinians think and what they are fighting for how they operate and how they perceive Israel and whether there is anything to talk about one should read the Palestinian leaflets They are the documents from which the Palestinians go forth and to which they return Mishal and Aharoni first provide some historical background to the Intifada and deal with the question of how it came about and what prevented its outbreak during the first twenty years of Israeli rule in the territories They then turn to the leaflets and examine in detail their contents and motivations Speaking Stones concludes with a selection of over fifty translated leaflets of the two leading bodies in the Intifada the United National Command and the Islamic Resistance Movement known as Hamas The Cambridge Companion to American Travel Writing Alfred Bendixen,Judith Hamera,2009-01-29 Travel writing has always been intimately linked with the construction of American identity Occupying the space between fact and fiction it exposes cultural fault lines and reveals the changing desires and anxieties of both the traveller and the reading public These specially commissioned essays trace the journeys taken by writers from the pre revolutionary period right up to the present They examine a wide range of responses to the problems posed by landscapes found both at home and abroad from the Mississippi and the Southwest to Europe and the Holy Land Throughout the contributors focus on the role played by travel writing in the definition and formulation of national identity and consider the experiences of minority writers as well as canonical authors This Companion forms an invaluable guide for students approaching this new important and exciting subject for the first time Women and Politics in the Third World Haleh Afshar,2005-07-26 Women and Politics in the Third World is the first comprehensive textbook on women s political activities in the third world It provides a feminist analytical perspective on the specific forms of resistance organisation and negotiation by women in third world states Using case studies the book focuses on difference as a theoretical basis for investigating feminine political activism Though Western analysts have attributed weakness to terms such as motherhood marriage and domesticity as choices made by non Western women the contributors show that such strategies are used by women to pursue particular goals such as seeking resources welfare or freedom from oppression for their children These strategies the book suggests should not be classified as unimportant or temporary and can be highly effective even within such discourses as Islamic fundamentalism The contributors highlight differing political approaches in regions as diverse as Latin America South East Asia China and the Middle East The Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa Mark Gasiorowski,2016-08-02 A comprehensive country by country examination of the history domestic politics and foreign policies of the Middle East and North Africa Government and Politics of the Middle East and North Africa Sean Yom,2019-10-30 The latest edition of this renowned textbook explores the states and regimes of the Middle East and North Africa Presenting heavily revised fully updated chapters contributed by the world s leading experts it analyzes the historical trajectory political institutions economic development and foreign policies of the region s nearly two dozen countries The volume can be used in conjunction with its sister volume The Societies of the Middle East and North Africa for a comprehensive overview of the region Chapters are organized and structured identically giving insightful windows into the nuances of each country s domestic politics and foreign relations Data tables and extensive annotated bibliographies orient readers towards further research Whether used in conjunction with its sister volume or on its own this book provides the most comprehensive and detailed overview of the region s varied politics Five new experts cover the critical country cases of Turkey Lebanon Jordan Saudi Arabia and Iran All chapters cover the latest events including trends that have remarkably changed in just a few years like the gradual end of the Syrian civil war As such this textbook is invaluable to students of Middle Eastern politics The ninth edition brings substantial changes All chapters also have a uniform streamlined structure that explores the historical context social and economic environment political institutions regime dynamics and foreign policy of each country Fact boxes and political maps are now far more extensive and photographs and images also help illustrate key points Annotated bibliographies are vastly expanded providing nothing short of the best list of research references for each country The Women and War Reader Lois Ann Lorentzen,Jennifer E. Turpin,1998-07 Women play many roles during wartime This compelling study brings together the work of foremost scholars on women and war to address questions of ethnicity women and the war complex peacemaking motherhood and more It leaves behind outdated arguments about militarist men and pacifist women while still recognizing differences in men s and women s relationships to war Radical Religion and Violence Jeffrey Kaplan,2015-11-19 Jeffrey Kaplan has been one of the most influential scholars of new religious movements extremism and terrorism His pioneering use of interpretive fieldwork among radical and violent subcultures opened up new fields of scholarship and vastly increased our understanding of the beliefs and activities of extremists This collection features many of his seminal contributions to the field alongside several new pieces which place his work within the context of the latest research developments Combining discussion of the methodological issues alongside a broad array of case studies this will be essential reading for all students and scholars of extremism religion and politics and terrorism Soul Breathing Carrie L'Esperance,2016-05-17 An exploration of the multidimensional interplay between body mind and spirit Identifies the frequencies that support life and the dissonant
