Season With Verona Travel Around Italy In Search Of Illusion National Character And Goals:

A Season With Verona Tim Parks, 2011-04-18 Part travelogue part mediation and part football memoir A Season With Verona: Travels Around Italy in Search of Illusion, National Character, and...Goals! Tim Parks, 2002 After 20 years of living in Italy Tim Parks whom Joseph Brodsky has called the best British author working today spent a full year following the fortunes and misfortunes of the Verona football club Here is his rollicking report From Udine to Catania from San Siro to the Olimpico traveling with the fans and the players from the tip to the toe of Italy Tim Parks offers a highly personal account of his relationship with a country its people and its national sport The fans as always are accused of vulgarity racism and violence The police are ambiguous the journeys exhausting the referees unforgivable the anecdotes hilarious In a world stripped of idealism and increasingly bereft of religion Parks suggests that soccer offers a new and fiercely ironic way of engaging with the sacred A Season with Verona Tim Parks, 2002 After twenty years of living in Italy Tim Parks whom Joseph Brodsky has called the best British author writing today spent a full year following the fortunes and misfortunes of the Verona football club Here is his rollicking report Transnational Writing on Italy Lynn Mastellotto, 2025-03-18 Relocation narratives form a distinct subgenre of contemporary travel memoirs concerned with the experiences of travellers who become settlers in foreign locales and narrate their experience of cultural accommodation in serial autobiographical accounts This book seeks to understand the discourse of identity alterity in relocation writing which focuses on the topos of everyday life from a transnational perspective one which embraces a cosmopolitan orientation of openness to cultural difference Focusing on three transnational writers in Italy and their respective relocation trilogies Frances Mayes s Tuscan memoirs Annie Hawes s Ligurian memoirs and Tim Parks s Verona memoirs the study examines the sustained engagement with place and place based practices given narrative voice through multipart works which trace the authors migrating identities These nonfiction accounts contribute to a broader polyphonic literature in which transnational writers give voice to personal stories shaped by intercultural experiences which provide a powerful localised lens to examine how identities are dialogically transformed through contact with difference in a globalised world By giving readers an opportunity to reflect on identity and diversity in local global contexts transnational literature contributes to a better understanding of cultural change in late modernity and provides an important space for critical creative and transcultural exchange Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader s Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing

Cultural Sociology of Cultural Representations

Christopher Thorpe,2023-12-22 This book provides a historical cultural sociological analysis of cultural representations of Italy in England and later Britain from the period of the Italian Renaissance to the present day Rooted in a critical account of orthodox social scientific approaches to thinking and theorising cultural representation the study combines analytical frames and conceptual apparatus from Bourdieu s Field theory and Yale School cultural sociology Drawing from a wide range of empirical data and studies the book demonstrates the significance of representations of the Italian peninsula and its people for exploring a range of cultural sociological phenomena from the classing and commodification of Italy to the role of Italian symbolism for negotiating cultural trauma identify formation and expressions of cultural edification veneration and emulation As such it will be of interest to scholars of cultural sociology history anthropology Italian studies as well as scholars in international studies interested in intercultural exchange and representations of other nations national cultures and otherness

Fables of the Law Daniela Carpi,Marett Leiboff,2016-10-24 The latest development concerning the metaphorical use of the fairy tale is the legal perspective The law had and has recourse to fairy tales in order to speak of the nomos and its subversion of the politically correct and of the various means that have been used to enforce the law Fairy tales are a fundamental tool to examine legal procedures and structures in their many failings and errors Therefore we have privileged the term fables of the law just to stress the ethical perspective they are moral parables that often speak of justice miscarried and justice sought Law and jurists are creators of fables on the view that law is born out of the facts ex facto ius oritur so that there is a need for narrative coherence both on the level of the case and the level of legislation or turned the other way around what does it mean if no such coherence is found This is especially of interest given the influx of all kinds of new technologies that are fabulous in themselves and hard to incorporate in traditional doctrinal schemes and thus in the construction of a new reality
