, 1965 A New Season Al Robertson, Lisa Robertson, 2015-01-06 Alan and Lisa Robertson members of America's favorite back woods family and the Duck Commander Clan take on the topic of relationships as they share the secrets that saved their marriage Infidelity deceit distrust and shame Unfortunately these are recurring themes in many of today's marriages in America even in the family values promoting Christian based Robertson family With a romance that began in junior high the couple got off to a rocky start but soon settled into married life and had two baby girls Alan became a pastor in the church where his family had been members for years Then when Lisa had an affair the heartache and the tension was very public But this is not a book about a marriage gone wrong It is a candid story of rescued love and renewed commitment After nearly getting divorced Alan and Lisa came to terms with what went wrong in their marriage and both began the hard work of making it right Now married for twenty nine years Alan and Lisa counsel couples in trouble and speak across the country openly sharing their hardships their journey to renewed commitment and a thriving marriage Overcoming Orientalism Tamara Sonn, 2021-05-28 Orientalism is the term applied to scholarship that reduces Islam and Muslims to stereotypes of ignorance and violence in need of foreign control It has been used to rationalize Europe's colonial domination of most of the Muslim world and continued American led interventions in the post colonial period In the past 30 years it has been represented by claims that a monolithic Islam and equally monolithic West are distinct civilizations sharing nothing in common and indeed involved in an inevitable clash from which only one can emerge the winner Most recently it has appeared in Alt Right rhetoric Anti Muslim sentiment measured in public opinion polls hate crime statistics and legislation is reaching record levels Since John Esposito published his first book nearly 40 years ago he has been guiding readers beyond such politically charged stereotypes The essays in this volume highlight the contributions of scholars from a variety of disciplines who like and often inspired by John Esposito recognize the misleading and politically dangerous nature of Orientalist polarizations They present Islam as a multi faceted and dynamic tradition embraced by communities in globally interconnected but substantially diverse contexts over the centuries The contributors follow Esposito's lead stressing the profound commonalities among religions and replacing Orientalist discourse with holistic analyses of the complex historical phenomena that affect developments in all societies In addition to chapters focusing on diversity among Muslims and interfaith relations this collection includes chapters assessing the secular bias at the root of Orientalist scholarship and contemporary iterations of Orientalism in the form of Islamophobia

Once Again Viera Masih Gossai, 2023-05-25 This memoir takes us on a journey of an Indian American woman having endured an abusive marriage for decades Viera Gossai narrates firsthand the effects of cultural norms conventions expectations after her divorce and finally her restoration and awakening to a sense of herself There are numerous predefined social norms created by our society that far too frequently accepts the distressed and depressed life of an abused married woman but often rejects divorce particularly in the Indian American community This memoir is a poignant reminder that one cannot and should not abandon hope in the face of the suffering and the unraveling of oneself and one's identity Once Again invites readers to believe in the hope that new beginnings are possible and the assurance that abuse will not be the last word
