Seato The Failure Of An Alliance Strategy:

SEATO, the Failure of an Alliance Strategy Leszek Buszynski, 1983 SEATO Leszek Buszynski, 1983 Conflict and Confrontation in South East Asia, 1961-1965 Matthew Jones, 2001-09-06 In the early 1960s Britain and the United States were still trying to come to terms with the powerful forces of indigenous nationalism unleashed by the Second World War. The Indonesia Malaysia confrontation a crisis which was as Macmillan remarked to Kennedy as dangerous a situation in Southeast Asia as we have seen since the war was a complex test of Anglo American relations. As American commitment to Vietnam accelerated under the Kennedy and Johnson administrations Britain was involving herself in an end of empire exercise in state building which had important military and political implications for both nations. In this book Matthew Jones provides a detailed insight into the origins outbreak and development of this important episode in international history using a large range of previously unavailable archival sources he illuminates the formation of the Malaysian federation Indonesia's violent opposition to the state and the Western Powers attempts to deal with the resulting conflict. The Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation Ang Cheng Guan, 2021-09-09 A History of the Manila Pact and the Southeast Asia Treaty Organisation SEATO from its establishment in 1954 until its dissolution in 1977. The Southeast Asia Treaty Organization SEATO has received meagre scholarly attention in comparison to other key events and global developments during the duration of the Cold War due to its perceived failure early in its existence. However there has been a renewed interest in the academic study of the organization. Some scholars have argued that SEATO was not an outright failure. New literatures have also shed in detail the workings of SEATO such as operational level contingency plans and counter insurgency plans. This book aims to reconstruct a comprehensive life cycle of SEATO using declassified archival documents which were unavailable to scholars studying the organization from the 1950s through the 1980s and provide a nuanced assessment of it. In addition in recent years there is also an emerging interest in the possibility of a multilateral military alliance in Asia for instance the Quadrilateral Security Dialogue morphing into an Asian NATO. As such it is therefore crucial to study how previous multilateral alliances in the context of Asia were formed how they functioned and subsequently dissolved. A groundbreaking reference on a key element of the United States Cold War strategy in Asia which will be a valuable resource to scholars of twentieth century diplomatic history. Malaysia Army Weapon Systems Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Weapon Systems IBP, Inc., Whose Ideas Matter? Amitav Acharya, 2011 Whose Ideas Matter is the first book to explore the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system from the perspective of local actors with Asian regional institutions as its main focus. Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D. Henry, 2022-05-15 In Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D Henry argues for a more sophisticated approach to alliance politics and ideas of interdependence. It is often assumed that if the United States failed to defend an ally then this disloyalty would instantly and irrevocably damage US alliances across the globe. Henry proposes that such damage is by no means inevitable and that predictions of disaster are dangerously simplistic If other allies fear the risks of military escalation more than the consequences of the United States abandoning an ally then they will welcome encourage and even praise such an instance of disloyalty It is also often assumed that alliance interdependence only constrains US policy options but Henry shows how the United States can manipulate interdependence to set an example of what constitutes acceptable allied behavior Using declassified documents Henry explores five case studies involving US alliances with South Korea Japan the Republic of China the Philippines Australia and New Zealand Reliability and Alliance Interdependence makes a substantial contribution to our understanding of how America's alliances in Asia function as an interdependent system Rethinking Power, Institutions and Ideas in World Politics Amitav Acharya, 2014-01-10 The study of international relations has traditionally been dominated by Western ideas and practices and marginalized the voice and experiences of the non Western states and societies As the world moves to a post Western era it is imperative that the field of IR acquires a more global meaning and relevance Drawing together the work of renowned scholar Amitav Acharya and framed by a new introduction and conclusion written for the volume this book exposes the narrow meaning currently attached to some of the key concepts and ideas in IR and calls for alternative and broader understandings of them The need for recasting the discipline has motivated and undergirded Acharya's own scholarship since his entry into the field over three decades ago This book reflects his own engagement quarrels and compromise and concludes with suggestions for new pathways to a Global IR a forward looking and inclusive enterprise that is reflective of the multiple and global heritage of IR in an changing and interconnected world It is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the history development and future of international relations and international relations theory East Asia in Transition: Robert S. Ross, 2015-03-26 Has uniformly good essays on economic and political change the policies of the great and local powers and the prospects for building a new regional order Foreign Affairs The Pacific Basin since 1945 Roger C. Thompson, 2014-09-25 The nations of the Pacific Basin in East and Southeast Asia Australasia the Pacific islands and the Americas make up the world's largest economic zone and its most culturally diverse region In recent years its Asian Tiger Economies have suffered economic collapse and unfinished business from the Cold War has produced continuing conflict and instability The new edition of this pioneering book traces the postwar inter relationships of all the rim and island nations It gives a unique impression of the make up of the region and the tensions within it The book integrates a wide range of information from books and articles from published and unpublished sources including recently opened Russian and American archives and from the first hand experiences of participants including those of the author in Pacific Basin affairs Vigorously written and strongly argued no other account brings together all the threads of the development of international relations in this complex and fascinating region The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger, 2004-03-01 Asia has long been an ideological battleground between capitalism and communism between nationalism and Westernisation and between the nation state and globalization This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia's development. Subjects covered include theories of development, decolonization, US political and economic intervention, the effects of communism, the end of the Cold War, the rise of neo-liberalism, Asia after the crisis, Asia in the era of globalisation. Broad in sweep and rich in theory and empirical detail, this is an essential account of the growth of Asian miracle and its turbulent position in the global economy of the twenty-first century. Michael Leifer Kin Wah Chin, Leo Suryadinata, 2005. Presents selected works of Michael Leifer, the doyen of Southeast Asian Studies who died in 2001. This book includes works on the Southeast Asian region, ASEAN, regional order and conflict, great power policies towards the region, maritime security in Southeast Asia and studies of the domestic policies of individual Southeast Asian countries. National and International Security Michael Sheehan, 2018-01-18. This title was first published in 2000. This series brings together significant journal articles appearing in the field of comparative politics over the past 30 years. The aim is to render accessible to teachers, researchers and students an extensive range of essays to provide a basis for understanding the established terrain and new ground. This volume introduces the undergraduate to a significant body of the periodical literature on the subject of national and international security. History as Policy Ron Huiskens, Meredith Thatcher, 2007-12-01. The fortieth anniversary of the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre's founding provided the opportunity to assemble many of Australia's leading analysts and commentators to review some of the more significant issues that should define Australian defence policy. The papers collected in this volume are not informed by a common view of where Australia should focus its defence policy but all address themes that should figure prominently in this difficult but essential task. Provided by publisher. Asia in the 21st Century Michael D. Bellows, 1995-10. Part I: Grand Strategy. US goals, China's grand strategy, Japan's grand strategy, Russian strategy, ASEAN, national security. Part II: Economic Dimensions, challenge of geoeconomics, interdependence on Northeast Asia. Part III: Regional Military Strategy, Japanese self-defence forces, Korean military forces, Russia's new military doctrine, China's strategic concepts. Part IV: Regional Strategic Structures in the 21st Century, post-cold war security structures and strategic architecture for the Pacific. The Architecture of Security in the Asia-Pacific Ronald Huiskens, 2009-10-01. We cannot expect in East Asia over the foreseeable future to see the sort of conflation of sovereign states that has occurred in Europe. We must anticipate that for the foreseeable future the requirement will be for the sensible management and containment of competitive instincts. The establishment of a multilateral security body in East Asia that includes all the key players and which the major powers invest with the authority to tackle the shaping of the regional security order remains a critical piece of unfinished business. Asia-Pacific Strategic Relations William T. Tow, 2001-12-10. This comprehensive 2002 book is an overview of security issues in the Asia-Pacific. It is also an argument for a strategy that promises to achieve greater regional stability. It argues that current approaches by policy makers increase the likelihood of conflict. Instead, it proposes that a strategy of convergent security be adopted to build a more enduring and peaceful regional security framework. A concise survey of key approaches to regional security politics, it presents a vast selection of empirical discussion both historical and current Assessing the outlook for the three powers most likely to vie for regional dominance the United States China and Japan the book also reviews the prospects for other secondary powers including Korea and Taiwan and analyses the role of Australia and the ASEAN nations of Southeast Asia Unique accessible authoritative and broad ranging survey designed for a wide body of analysts and students of contemporary Asian politics and strategy
