Englishness and Post-imperial Space Milton Sarkar, 2016-02-08 Englishness and Post imperial Space The Poetry of Philip Larkin and Ted Hughes probes into the English mindset immediately after the British withdrawal from the colonies and examines how the loss of power and global prestige affected contemporary poetry particularly that of Philip Larkin and Ted Hughes. Frustration and disillusionment even anger characterised the era and many of the literary works the period produced. Most writers became insular and were obsessed with the English elements in their writing. The great international and cosmopolitan themes of Eliot for instance were replaced by those of narrow domestic importance. It is in such a context this book argues that Larkin and Hughes returned to the old England most notably to the themes of gradually vanishing pristine landscape and national myths and legends to the archetypal English customs and conventions. It examines their poetry mainly from the perspective of Englishness a burgeoning area of academic interest. Intricately connected with the values emanating from England as a geographical and socio cultural space Englishness as a concept is intrinsic to the identity of a people who gradually became globally powerful. The loss of empire dealt a severe blow to this sense of the self. This book explores the dynamics of the representation of this sense of loss and the frustration it produced in the poems of Larkin and Hughes.
