Hitler's Man in Havana Thomas Schoonover, 2008-09-12

When Heinz L ning posed as a Jewish refugee to spy for Hitler's Abwehr espionage agency he thought he had discovered the perfect solution to his most pressing problem: how to avoid being drafted into Hitler's army. L ning was unsympathetic to Fascist ideology but the Nazis' tight control over exit visas gave him no chance to escape Germany. He could enter Hitler's army either as a soldier or a spy. In 1941 he entered the Abwehr academy for spy training and was given the code name Lumann. Soon after L ning began the service in Cuba that led to his ultimate fate of being the only German spy executed in Latin America during World War II. L ning was not the only spy operating in Cuba at the time. Various Allied spies labored in Havana: the FBI controlled eighteen Special Intelligence Service operatives and the British counterintelligence section subchief Graham Greene supervised Secret Intelligence Service agents and Ernest Hemingway's private agents supplied inflated and inaccurate information about submarines and spies to the U.S. ambassador Spruille Braden. L ning stumbled into this milieu of heightened suspicion and intrigue. Poorly trained and awkward at his work, he gathered little information worth reporting, was unable to build a working radio and improperly mixed the formulas for his secret inks. L ning eventually was discovered by British postal censors and unwittingly provided the inspiration for Graham Greene's Our Man in Havana. In chronicling L ning's unlikely trajectory from a troubled life in Germany to a Caribbean firing squad, Thomas D. Schoonover makes brilliant use of untapped documentary sources to reveal the workings of the famed Abwehr and the technical and social aspects of L ning's spycraft. Using archival sources from three continents, Schoonover offers a narrative rich in atmospheric details to reveal the political upheavals of the time, not only tracking L ning's activities but also explaining the broader trends in the region and in local counterespionage. Schoonover argues that ambitious Cuban and U.S. officials turned L ning's capture into a grand victory. For at least five months after L ning's arrest, U.S. and Cuban leaders J. Edgar Hoover, Fulgencio Batista, Nelson Rockefeller, General Manuel Benitez, Ambassador Spruille Braden, and others treated L ning as a dangerous key figure for a Nazi espionage network in the Gulf Caribbean. They reworked his image from low-level bumbler to master spy, using his capture for their own political gain. In the sixty years since L ning's execution, very little has been written about Nazi espionage in Latin America, partly due to the reticence of the U.S. government. Revealing these new historical sources for the first time, Schoonover tells a gripping story of L ning's life and capture, suggesting that L ning was everyone's man in Havana but his own.

The Man Who Stopped the Trains to Auschwitz David Kranzler, 2000-10-01

George Mantello, First Secretary of the El Salvador Consulate in Geneva from 1942 to 1945, defied strict censorship to launch a press campaign against the daily deportation of 12,000 Hungarian Jews to Auschwitz. This is the true story of one man's efforts to bring horrific news of the Nazi genocide to the Swiss public and to the rest of the world.

Armed with this information prominent Swiss church leaders and theologians condemned the unfolding Holocaust from their pulpits spurring large public demonstrations In 400 articles appearing in 120 newspapers Mantello reached opinion makers throughout the world community International pressure halted the Hungarian deportations and Mantello distributed thousands of Salvadoran citizenship papers to Jews in Nazi occupied territories In addition to Mantello s role Kranzler shows how Swiss theologians such as karl barth and paul Vogt mobilized thousands of Christians against the Germans and against the indifference of the Swiss government and the International Red Cross This fresh look at the intersection of politics and religion also allows for a new assessment of Swiss complicity in the crimes of the Nazi Third Reich The Man Shakespeare
