Canadian Plains Research Center, 2006 Regina's Secret Spaces Love and Lore of Local Geography is an anthology of essays and poems by eighty writers artists architects musicians patrons of the arts and cultural theorists who were inspired by and answered the call of editors Lorne Beug Anne Campbell and Jeannie Mah to share their favourite Regina secret Some submissions were quirky and whimsical delighting in those things small yet significant which bring joy and connect us to the place we live others were more serious and more theoretical examining power structures both past and present and how these have shaped and are yet shaping the city Reflective engaging and insightful all express an abiding fondness for the city of Regina Regina's dream Clara E. Saylor, 1872 Regina Eliza Cruger, 1868 Biblical Proportions Natasha Brewer, 2018-03-07 Edward and James Shaw are twins who are successful executives at Rock Star Records Unfortunately they were blindsided by the challenges of life which were of biblical proportions Edward found himself in the struggle of his life to save his marriage and his career after there has been some horrible choices made while James found himself fighting for his freedom The only way for them to find their way through the drama infidelity damaged trust addiction meaningless sex and betrayal was to build a solid relationship with God When Edward and James hit rock bottom mentally and emotionally they found out who they were and what the Lord called them to do They both began to walk into their purpose realizing that although the storms came one after another after another and almost took them out they survived through the grace of God Take this journey with the Edward and James and the rest of the Shaw family as they endure the many trials and tribulations of this life Poles Apart Jacqueline Hayden, 2018-10-24 First published in 1994 This book offers the reader a first hand account of the people who have been central to Poland's transformation since the early 1980s With interviews of main actors Lech Walesa Wojciech Jaruzelski and leaders of Solidarity Also observed and covered are the Gdansk shipyard strikes martial law a move towards democracy from Communism and the Round Table talks of 1989 Ladies of Labor, Girls of Adventure Nan Enstad, 1999 Enstad explores the complex relationship between consumer culture and political activism for late nineteenth and twentieth century working women While consumerism did not make women into radicals it helped shape their culture and their identities as both workers and political actors Dream No Little Dreams A.W. Johnson, 2004-12-15 In 1944 the people of Saskatchewan elected the first socialist government in North America Dream No Little Dreams is the biography of that government led by the great Tommy Douglas of the Cooperative Commonwealth Federation CCF later the New Democratic Party It is a history of the life of the CCF and a case study in the art and practice of governing partly a study in the policy decisions of the government and partly an insider's view A W Johnson a senior public servant in Saskatchewan during most of the Douglas years begins by introducing the government's central mission the transformation of the role of the state and describes how it achieved this goal over some seventeen years Johnson analyses the roots of the CCF in Saskatchewan history and prairie politics and its philosophy as it prepared to govern He describes the policies and programs introduced by the Douglas government the changes to the machinery of government and the processes of governing and the creation of a professional public service Medicare is viewed by many as the greatest achievement of the Douglas government Dream No Little Dreams offers rich insight into the initial planning stages of Medicare and details the protracted struggle with the medical profession that followed as Douglas fought to implement it Johnson also addresses the question of how socialists were going to pay for all their ambitions and situates the answer in the context of developments in national policy and in federal provincial fiscal arrangements from the war years through to the 1960s I Am Regina Sally M.
