Regional Integration Experience Theory :

Regional Integration A. El-Agraa, 1999-07-30 The book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of the theoretical and empirical literature in international economics arising from the proliferation of regional integration schemes in the last four decades The focus is on the pure theoretical and empirical work in the field covering all recent developments in theoretical work and measurement techniques in regional integration The new book fully updates the analysis in the author's very well received The Theory and Measurement of International Economic Integration 1989 to take into account the impact of a further decade of rapid integration around the world Detailed empirical analysis of the major integration schemes themselves can be found in the author's collection International Economic Integration 1997 Regional Integration, Identity & Citizenship in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, Redie Bereketeab, 2012 Examines how regional integration can resolve the crises of the Greater Horn of Africa exploring how it can be used as a mechanism for conflict resolution promoting the economy and tackling issues of identity and citizenship The Greater Horn of Africa GHA is engulfed by three interrelated crises various inter state wars civil wars and inter communal conflicts an economic crisis manifested in widespread debilitating poverty chronic food insecurity and famines and environmental degradation that is ravaging the region While it is apparent that the countries of the region are unlikely to be able to deal with the crises individually there is consensus that their chances of doing so improve markedly with collective regional action The contributors to this volume address the need for regional integration in the GHA They identify those factors that can foster integration such as the proper management of equitable citizenship rights as well as examining those that impede it including the region's largely ineffective integration scheme IGAD and explore how the former can be strengthened and the latter transformed explain how regional integration can mitigate the conflicts and examine how integration can help to energise the region's economy Kidane Mengisteab is Professor of African Studies and Political Science at Penn State University Redie Bereketeab is a researcher at the Nordic Africa Institute Sweden Regional Integration Processes in the Commonwealth of Independent States Katarzyna Czerewacz-Filipowicz, Agnieszka Konopelko, 2016-11-26 This book investigates the economic political and cultural factors that influence regional economic integration processes as well as international political cooperation in the area of the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS The authors analyze market integration manifested in interregional trade investment and service connections Taking a constructivist approach they shed new light on how national ethnic religious and linguistic factors as well as systems of government political regimes and models of leadership shape foreign policy decision making in various post Soviet countries Assessment and Measurement of Regional Integration Philippe De Lombaerde, 2006-09-27 The book fills a niche in the market for books on regional integration where most of the publications deal with theory or the analysis of specific cases almost no books can be found dealing with analytical methodology The book includes a combination of well known and expert scholars and up and coming young academics The book will appeal strongly to both economists and politics and while the authors present an interdisciplinary approach the economists and political scientists approaches are kept separate

The Politics of Regional Integration in Latin America O. Dabène, 2009-08-31 This book explores the widely admitted failure of regional integration in this continent linking the features of regional institutional arrangements with domestic politics and includes an inquiry into regionalism at the hemispherical level

Country Experiences in Economic Development, Management and Entrepreneurship Mehmet Huseyin Bilgin, Hakan Danis, Ender Demir, Ugur Can, 2016-11-09 This volume brings together selected papers from the 17th EBES Conference organized in Venice in winter 2015 The theoretical and empirical papers present the latest research in diverse areas of business economics and finance from many different regions They chiefly focus on the interactions between economic development entrepreneurship and financial institutions especially putting the spotlight on cross country evidence Topics range from women's entrepreneurship and economic regulation to sustainability and climate change This book provides researchers professionals and students a great opportunity to catch up on the latest studies in different fields and empirical findings on many countries and regions

Systems Theory and Regional Integration James P. O'Leary,1978 Roadmap to an ASEAN Economic Community Denis Hew Wei-Yen,2005 At the Ninth ASEAN Summit in Bali on 7 October 2003 the leaders of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations agreed to establish an ASEAN Economic Community AEC by 2020 It is envisaged that the AEC would be a single market and production base with a free flow of goods and services investments capital and skilled labour An integrated ASEAN with a sizeable market of over 500 million people could become an alternative to China as a regional production base for MNCs Although there are roadmaps for the fast track integration of eleven priority sectors an overall longer term roadmap needs to be formulated to realize the AEC This book addresses the main issues Assessing Regional Integration in Africa United Nations. Economic Commission for Africa,2004 This publication examines progress towards regional integration in Africa defined as one of the anchoring ideals of African unity and the basis for the New Partnership for Africa s Development NEPAD development framework The report analyses the current state of the integration process highlighting where efforts have succeeded or failed Findings include that progress has been mixed across sectors regional economic communities and member states with some notable progress in trade communications transport and macroeconomic policy Overall however substantial gaps remain between goals and achievements of most regional economic communities particularly in terms of internal African trade macroeconomic policy convergence production and physical connectivity A summary report is also available ISBN 9211250927

Re-imagining Border Studies in South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi,2020-12-23 This book presents a radical rethinking of Border Studies Framing the discipline beyond conventional topics of spatiality and territoriality it presents a distinctly South Asian perspective a post colonial and post partition region where most borders were drawn with political motives ignoring the socio cultural realities of the region and economic necessities of the people The authors argue that while securing borders is an essential function of the state in this interconnected world crossing borders and border cooperation is also necessary The book examines contemporaneous and topical themes like disputes of identity and nationhood the impact of social media on Border Studies trans border cooperation water sharing between countries and resolution of border problems in the age of liberalisation and globalisation It also suggests ways of enhancing cross border economic cooperation and connectivity and reviews security issues from a new perspective Well supplemented with case studies the book will serve as an indispensable text for scholars and researchers of Border Studies military and strategic studies international relations geopolitics and South Asian studies It will also be of great interest to think tanks and government agencies especially those dealing with foreign relations

New Regionalism and the European Union Alex Warleigh-Lack,Nick Robinson,Ben Rosamond,2011-06-01 The debates on regionalism have been polarized between European Union EU scholars and non EU scholars with the assumption being that regionalism within the EU and other regions of the world are quite distinct with little to be learnt from dialogue with each other This book challenges such assumptions and calls for a genuine debate between scholars of regionalism This book demonstrates that more can and needs to be learned about regional integration all over the world through comparison and reflection on specific regional trends Beginning with a theoretically driven introduction leading experts in the field are brought together to offer a series of case studies on regional integration within Latin America Africa Asia North America and Europe In Part III the authors investigate the links between the EU and selected other regional organisations and processes exploring the dynamics through which these interregional relations are developing and the implications they have for the study of contemporary regionalism regionalisation both inside and beyond the continent of Europe The conclusions set out a challenging research agenda for comparative studies in the field Addressing one of the under explored aspects of EU studies the EU s coexistence with other pan continental regional organisations in the European continent this book will be of interest to students and scholars of regionalism IPE European Studies and international politics

Regional Integration Study of East Africa
,2003 Monitoring Regional Integration in Southern Africa Yearbook ,2006 The Politics of Regionalism in South Asia B. Mohanan,1992 The European Union Illuminated A. El-Agraa,2015-05-05 The EU is under stress Many believe in the euro s demise because they blame it for the 2008 financial crisis and the unwelcome austerity measures Many resent the immigrants from the new EU member states threatening the survival of the Single European Market Many complain of a Brussels diktat seeking an escape from joint EU decisions Several member states want to unilaterally deal with the enhanced competition from the emerging markets especially China undermining the EU s common commercial policy run by a single EU commissioner And many in the UK want its exit from the EU diluting EU unity and reducing its global influence These concerns are either misguided or require a stronger EU to deal with them this book aims to address these issues by considering the nature importance and future of the European Union

The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics Todd Landman,Neil Robinson,2009-06-16 The SAGE Handbook of Comparative Politics presents in one volume an authoritative overview of the theoretical methodological and substantive elements of comparative political science The 28 specially commissioned chapters written by renowned comparative scholars guide the reader through the central issues and debates presenting a state of the art guide to the past present and possible futures of the field
