Regionalization in a Globalizing World Michael Schulz, Fredrik Soderbaum, Joakim Öjendal, 2001-05 The emerging role of regional systems of relations is an important feature of the new global politics While the European Union is the most advanced case most other parts of the world display at least the beginnings of regional systems Using a multidisciplinary approach the contributors examine these processes from a comparative perspective concentrating on the following questions what constitute a region how is the historical process of region formation unfolding what motives and factors underlie this drive to regionalisation what forms a regional awareness and institutionalisation are emerging and where what are the future prospects Globalising the Regional, Regionalising the Global: Volume 35, Review of International Studies Rick

Globalization, Regionalization and Cross-Border Regions M. Perkmann, N. Sum, 2002-07-12 Cross border regions are newly emerging social spaces stretching across national borders Globalization makes national borders more permeable and leads to a rearrangement of economic and political interactions This is particularly pronounced within supra regional blocs featuring specific internal border regimes The ensuing opportunities are increasingly seized to create border spanning discourses and institutions This is illustrated in the book by a range of experts analyzing cross border regions in Europe America East Asia and Africa Security and International Law Mary E Footer, Julia Schmidt, Nigel D White, Lydia Davies-Bright, 2016-06-16 Of the many challenges that society faces today possibly none is more acute than the security of ordinary citizens when faced with a variety of natural or man made disasters arising from climate and geological catastrophes including the depletion of natural resources environmental degradation food shortages terrorism breaches of personal security and human security or even the global economic crisis States continue to be faced with a range of security issues arising from contested territorial spaces military and maritime security and security threats relating to energy infrastructure and the delivery of essential services The theme of the book encompasses issues of human political military socio economic environmental and energy security and raises two main questions To what extent can international law address the types of natural and man made security risks and challenges that threaten our livelihood or very existence in the twenty first century Where does international law fall short in meeting the problems that arise in different situations of insecurity and how should such shortcomings be addressed Ageing and Globalisation Martin Hyde, Paul Higgs, 2016-07-06 Two of the most unprecedented transformations in the history of human social and economic life are currently underway One globalization is the subject of extensive media coverage and scholarly analysis Relatively ignored

International Handbook on the Economics of Integration: General issues and regional groups Miroslav N. Jovanović, 2011-01-01

International Handbook of Economic Integration edited by Miroslav Jovanović provides timely and rich academic contributions to considerations of the widest array of integration-related issues. European integration has been providing an inspiration to a number of academics and researchers. The Handbook is a recognition of the dynamic and strong solidarity of the European integration. At the same time, the European Union often provided an example for integration schemes throughout the world which spread enormously since the mid 1990s. Leading experts from all continents contributed to this Handbook which will be a valuable input into academic and policy-making discussions and actions. Jos Manuel Barroso, President of the European Commission. Miroslav Jovanović's publication represents a rich contribution to the complex issue of regional integration, its benefits, its shortcomings, and its relationship with multilateral trade opening. It sheds light over an issue which is the subject of intense discussions in trade circles. Pascal Lamy, Director General of the WTO. Much has been written on trade agreements as a mechanism to integrate the markets of two or more countries, often inspired by the European example. In recent years, attention has increasingly focused on the importance of economic geography as a determinant of industrial location. This book combines the two strands of analysis, bringing together leading experts in the fields of economic geography and international trade. The result is an outstanding compilation of papers that illuminate how policies and economic forces affect the location of economic activity in an integrated Europe. Bernard Hoekman, Director, The World Bank, US. The open multilateral trading system is a tremendous success of the past half century and has contributed greatly to the world's unprecedented rate of economic growth. Over the past two decades, however, preferential trading arrangements have proliferated, raising questions as to how compatible they are with the open multilateral system and what policies might be adopted to improve outcomes. The essays in this volume detail the emergence of PTAs and provide comprehensive and up-to-date analyses of the state of play of preferential arrangements in all regions of the world. The volume will provide a useful reference for all those wanting to understand existing preferential arrangements and their role in the international economy today. Anne O. Krueger, Johns Hopkins University and Stanford University, US. Economic integration is a complex and multifaceted giant with a myriad of aspects ranging from regional and global concentration and dispersal of economic activity to social and political consequences for individuals and communities in developed and developing countries alike. This landmark three-volume collection of chapters by leading authors drawn from many fields is a worthy and timely contribution to the analysis of a phenomenon with profound implications for the future world economy and its governance. James Zhan
