Lane,2005-01-26 Today more and more people are asking questions about human social and cosmic destiny Does the universe have a purpose What is the point of historical existence What happens at death What can we hope for Is it possible to talk meaningfully about another world In Keeping Hope Alive Dermot A Lane addresses these and other questions The author sets out to develop a theology of hope rooted in both human experience and the Christian tradition In discussing Christian belief Lane pays particular attention to the death and resurrection of Christ as both the pivotal eschatological event and the fundamental ground of Christian hope At the same time he deals with contemporary human experience addressing questions arising from the Marxist critique of Christianity the nuclear threat the ecological crisis and the apparent emptiness of much post modern thinking Dermot Lane confronts difficult issues such as death heaven hell purgatory resurrection reincarnation and the possibility of universal salvation with realism and honesty The end result is a new theological synthesis that takes account of recent developments in anthropology

The Burning Bush Edward Reaugh Smith,1997-07 Even more significant for Christianity in the long run than the twentieth century Dead Sea and Nag Hammadi discoveries is the growing North American awareness of Rudolf Steiner s works Virtually unavailable until the end of the twentieth century English translations from the German archives are gradually coming into print Both Steiner and his works have thus far been virtually unknown in traditional theological circles No Bible commentary has yet reflected the remarkable spiritual insights of Anthroposophy Now ten years after first encountering a written comment about Rudolf Steiner Ed Smith combines his own extensive traditional biblical knowledge with his years of concentrated study and reflection on hundreds of assembled works by Steiner The result is the first Bible commentary in the light of anthroposophic insight This is the first volume of a series of Bible commentary by the author It is based on the anthroposophic understanding given to humanity by Rudolf Steiner during the first quarter of the twentieth century Bible commentaries have always reflected the general line of thinking of their authors However the dramatic newness of anthroposophic thought means that perhaps the usual method of using a Bible commentary is not appropriate here A large part of The Burning Bush is necessarily devoted to laying an anthroposophic or spiritual scientific groundwork A major assumption indulged in most Bible commentaries that one can go directly to portions dealing with given passages of scripture and understand what is being said about them does not fit
